Oldham v. Runcorn.

AT

WATERSHEDDINGS, OLDHAM.

Saturday, Febuary 11th, 1911.

PAVILION GOSSIP.

What a game at Salford last Saturday!

At one time it looked any odds on Salford winning, especially when Cook was given his third try; at least it looked a gift from the manner in which the ball was knocked on. That evidently roused Oldham to desperation, and the Salford thirteen had no peace until the whistle blew.

When Avery rolled his sleeves up, it was a sure sign that "coming events cast their shadows before." The old Devonian simply carried all before him, when he put Jardine in with that try.

Jimmy Lomas looked just a trifle strange in a red and white jersey. He gave a few of his old club mates just a little shaking when he made that run which ended in his knocking over the corner flag. In the course of that run, four of the Salford players were laid "all in a row." They quickly recovered.

"Do you want to buy a few more players?" yelled a Salfordian, when Oldham were eight points behind. There was no reply; but when the final score was arrived at, the questioner was nowhere to be seen.

When the scores were at eleven, eight in favour of Salford, one enthusiastic supporter of the home team was so certain that victory was theirs, that he invited a number of friends into the refreshment room to celebrate the event. Before the old sport could obtain his change, after paying for drinks, there was change of a different kind on the playing enclosure. Oldham had won!

What long faces there were in the Oldham Pavilion, last Saturday, at three-quarter time.

What a change when the final result was received! The interior was so well lit up with smiles that the management could very well have afforded to have turned the gas off.

Barrett, the new half-back, made an interesting debut last Saturday, at Watersheddings; and ere long he should develop into a very capable scrummage worker.

Both Brice and Young injured themselves last Saturday, to such an extent as will keep them out of football this week end.

And now for the Cup ties! What a "Hull-a-baloo" there will be at Craven-street next Saturday, when Oldham meet the Hull Kingston Rovers.

Oldham should have a big following. Two excursions are being run by the L. & N.W. Railway Co. A day excursion leaving Oldham (Clegg Street) at 8 o'clock; due in Hull at 10-55, and a half-day excursion leaving at 11-30, and due to arrive in Hull, at 2 o'clock, in ample time for the kick-off, at 3-30. The respective fares are: day, 3/6; half-day, 3/3.
