Training Diet.

CARE in training is one of the most vital points with the successful footballer. He takes no chances. He believes in having just the right amount of exercise, and just the right kind of diet.

Experience has taught that the best beverage to bring him into the pink of condition is OXO. OXO excels not only on account of its unequalled strength-giving qualities, but also by the facility with which it imparts these qualities to the system.

If YOU aspire to championship form, or if you value fitness, take a leaf out of the champion's diary, and rely on OXO.

ENGLISH CUP WON ON OXO.

"It gives me very much pleasure to again testify to the value of Oxo in bringing our players to the best possible condition. For some years I have, as trainer for our Club, used it with the best possible results, and it is my intention to use Oxo alone during the coming season and in future seasons."—CHARLES HARPER, Trainer, BRADFORD CITY F.C.
