Saturday, February 22nd, 1913,

N.U. CHAMPIONSHIP,

OLDHAM

v.

- LEIGH,
AT WATERSHEDDINGS.

KICK-OFF AT 3-30.

PAVILION GOSSIP.

The team that journeyed to Widnes last Saturday, although not a fully representative one, got badly beaten, and the score, 16-0, is easily a record for Widnes against Oldham.

'Tis said that our defence was the worst show of the season.

The spectators at the 'A' team match v. Widnes were not prepared to see Anlezark. He turned out in place of Simister (injured), and although not in the best of condition, put in some delightful play at centre.

A Devon County (N.U.) team may shortly be seen up North, and will probably appear at Watersheddings.

The postponed match with Runcorn has been fixed for April 2nd, 1913.

The first of a series of matches in the Schools League, to be played prior to the club's League fixture, takes place to-day between Derker and Beaver Street. Kick off at 2-30.

Another Workshops' Competition is to be held this season, entries closing on Monday, March 17th, 1913. All particulars may be had from Mr. A. J. Swann.

Wharton and W. Farnworth are both progressing favourably, but it is doubtful if either will be quite fit until the Cup-tie with Normanton on March 8th.
