

JOTTINGS.

THREE fine games—Barrow, Salford, St. Helens.

The class of football shown in the three matches mentioned ought to do a lot of good to the game and increase the attendances.

Although Wigan were beaten at Barrow, they had every reason to be well satisfied with their performance.

We gave Salford a big surprise. They fully expected to win and repeat last season's performance at Central Park, when they were successful by 23 points to 5.

Our victory at St. Helens also greatly delighted Wigan's supporters. If our players can maintain this form, they should rapidly mount the League table.

In scoring two tries at St. Helens Jim Sullivan repeated a feat he accomplished against Halifax a few years ago, when he not only crossed the line twice, but kicked eleven goals, a total of 26 points off his own bat.

Oldham, who visit us to-day, were also winners at Central Park last season, though Wigan had revenge by gaining the points at Watersheddings, and thus succeeding on that ground for the first time in thirteen years.

Our forwards have been showing a vast improvement in the loose of late, and if we can only gain possession a little oftener the backs should score far more tries.

Jack Morley has scored in each of the last five games.

On New Year's Day Widnes, who defeated Warrington so heavily, are due at Wigan.
