

THE NEED.

Research shows that 70 per cent. of the population have some eye defect which if corrected would benefit both health and efficiency. Of the knowledge reaching the brain 83 per cent. does so through the eyes which also control 80 per cent. of your actions.

THE RECOMMENDATION.

This practice has increased in every one of its eleven years of existence.

THE REASON.

For the best care and attention the use of modern scientific instruments backed by wide experience and SPECIALISED SKILL is essential.

THE COST

is considerably less than that of your daily paper which without your sight would be useless.

OUR TEAM

HEDLEY RODGERS

Hedley Rodgers, our brilliant left-wing threequarter from Egremont, is in his 26th year. He played as centre-threequarter for the Hensingham Club when they won the Cumberland Cup three years in succession, at the same time as Jeff Bowden (Huddersfield). At that time he was outstanding, and in every way hall-marked for a future. His chance came when Workington Town decided to run a professional team. In their search for players they heard of this promising player from Egremont. He was immediately signed and every supporter of the club will agree that he was a good capture.

With the exception of the match against Batley, at home, he maintained his place in 41 League and Cup matches. He scored 13 tries. Hedley is equally at home in attack or defence, he is always in position; in fact, had he possessed a little more sprinting power, he would have been one of the best threequarters in the game; played for his County against Yorkshire at Leeds last season, and if given a chance against the same County this season he would not let his County down. Scored his first try this season against Halifax on Saturday.

OUR VISITORS

What more popular Club could we have as our visitors than Oldham. Always they have had a close link with Cumberland. First they came for Tom Fletcher to help them to win the (then) Northern Union Cup in season 1898-99. Then they found a Cumbrian in Joe Ferguson, who won them many matches from the toe of his boot. Many other Cumbrians have worn the Oldham Club's colours. Here a few names at random—Jim Lomas, Billy Dixon, J. Owens, F. Spottiswood, T. E. Holliday, F. Ashworth, R. Ambler, Jim Addison and others, and we all know what a great stalwart for the Club Jimmy Parkinson has been.

Oldham cannot boast of a great number of cup victories, they have never reached Wembley but live in hopes of doing so. They have been one of the most consistent sides in the League. Oldham will always be thought of as the place which produced the man who framed the by-laws of our present game, Rugby League. Yes, we owe much to Joe Platt, Secretary of the Northern Union, from its formation in 1895 until 1920.

Win or lose to-day we are sure of meeting a good lot of sportsmen.
