SALFORD TOPICS.

This programme has gone to press before our matches with Belle Vue and Wigan so we are not able to comment on these two games, we can only hope that we have gathered at least two points from these encounters.

Having wished you a Merry Christmas in our last issue may we now extend our wishes for a Bright and Prosperous New Year. We are sure that you will join with us in wishing the players a much more successful period than they have experienced up to date.

Last year after a bad run we took on a new lease of life and we are quite determined to do our best to repeat this if possible. The players are in one mind in their determination to support us to the full and we hope that the New Year will mark a steady improvement in our fortunes.

We must now start concerning ourselves with consolidating our strength with the Cup Ties in view and let us see whether we can't go one better on our performance of last year when we only missed the Semi-Final by the skin of our teeth.

Oldham who are visiting us to-day have always been an attraction at the Willows. Their fortunes have been rather mixed but there has been a very determined effort to build their side again to one which will be able to carry on a very fine tradition. Our games with Oldham have always been attractive and although we succeeded in putting them out of the Challenge Cup last year we do not forget the very sound game they put up against us in the last match of the season 1945-6.

We can certainly look forward to a bright and entertaining game, whatever the result.
