By the time this programme appears, friends from New Zealand will be keyed up for the final 'arrow' they to throw in this country. It would perhaps, un-British to wish the 'twis' should win, so we will content ourselves by expressing the hope that they will play as they have done all through their strenuous tour and by so doing, uphold the proud reputation they have earned.

To-day we have with us our friends from Oldham. Can we hold 'em' ? neither or not we can, we have some happy memories of games between clubs and this afternoon we look forward to a match in keeping with the clubs. The Mayor, Deputy Mayor and Chief Constable of Oldham will be with the Oldham players to the match. This afternoon our team will be minus Dennis Brooker who has gone with to greet his wife and two children in Australia. Ron Rylance has been diagnosed a torn ligament. This week, I will keep Ron out of the game several weeks. H. Taylor who was injured with the second team some weeks ago, has resumed training. We are also pleased to announce that Goodall, who has been in H.M. Prison for four years, has reported duty.

There's good news for you! The N.E.R.Co. are offering pleasure parties for Boxing Day at Leeds. Facilities for Boxing Day at Leeds, at 11 a.m., on the understanding that the parties are organised, and at they will travel together in each section. Prior arrangement is necessary. If you desire to travel to Leeds and accept the great opportunity offered, here's your chance! The return fare is 2/1 and there are trains to Leeds at 9.11 a.m. and 9.55 a.m. with a return train from Leeds at 2.20 p.m. Having mentioned rail facilities for Leeds, information for Wembley will be in our next programme.

Turn your eyes for a moment to the league team. They have a grand record: Played - 15, won - 13, lost - 2, league points, 62 goals, 82 tries, 92 points. Today they visit Wakefield, on December 27th they try Norman at Belle Vue. We artily congratulate the players on their fine achievement. Next home match, Xmas Day, kick-off 2.15, Trinity v. Castleford. The Joint Committee have obtained number of R.A.F. cushions and these will be on hire to-day at 3d. each.
