To-Day's Game.

This week we have a visit from Oldham "A" team and next week from Oldham first team, when we will probably see Prescott and Goldswain in opposition at loose forward.

We join with all good supporters of the Saints in wishing Alf. Frodsham good luck in his new job as coach to the Rochdale Hornets team.

The two youngsters from the Oldham Greenacres team who had trials last year have both signed on for League teams Gerry Wilde, scrum-half, is playing for Rochdale, and Eric Battersby, hooker, has just been by signed Leeds.

Honey and Grundy are getting better and may be fit by Wednesday when we visit Barrow. Jimmy Stott, who injured his shoulder hopes to be fit by then too.

The second leg of the Cup-tie at Workington resulted in a 7-4 win for the home team.

The Saints faced the wind and rain in the first half and pleased the little band of supporters by the way they stuck to their guns.

The referee, S. Abram, once Wigan's half-back, again showed that he has the makings of a first-class referee.

Do You Understand the Game?

You cannot derive maximum enjoyment from the game unless you understand its laws. Every Rugby League Supporter should have a copy of the new official illustrated book on Laws of the Game. It contains over sixty illustrations and can be obtained from the Offices of The Rugby Football League, 180 Chapeltown Road, Leeds, 7. Price 2/-, Postage: 1 copy 3d., 3 copies 5d., 12 copies 9d., 30 copies and over post free.
