NOTES

The almighty Wigan came, saw, but did not conquer on December 3rd! In fact they came as near being defeated as they ever will be this season. Many people will give them credit for holding us to a draw when carrying so many reserves, but many a Rugby League team would be willing to pay large sums for reserves of the Wigan calibre. But it was a great game, and we were just a wee bit disappointed that we did not pull it off.

Last Saturday's game at Whitehaven must have caused quite a lot of money to change hands, particularly when the Town were being held at half-time. We had just that little extra speed, finish and stamina in the second half to give us a good margin eventually. Local derbies are apt to deteriorate into slogging matches, but this one was far removed from that, and the football was really good right through.

It is hoped to include a trialist outside-half to-day. No names, no pack drill, but this boy is a very well-known player and has played representative football. We think he will do well, and we know our supporters will give him all the encouragement possible.

Wedding bells for Jimmy Hayton to-day. We would have liked to have seen him on the field against Oldham, but as Jimmy says: "This is only once in a lifetime," let us speed him with our best wishes. Billy Telford was married a fortnight ago. Congratulations, Bill!

Oldham visit us to-day with vastly improved recent form. We have memories of last season's game when they put us 10 points behind in no time, but just couldn't hold the pace. Notabilities in the side include Batten (son of the famous Billy) on the wing; Morgan at scrum-half, a recent signing from the new Cardiff R.L. Club; Barraclough at full-back; Goldswain, captain and Welsh International, and Leyland an improving forward. Oldham always provide us with a good game and this one should be no exception.
