Work Personally Supervised

The Workington Game . . .

If we can have as interesting a game to-day as we had last Saturday, I am sure everyone will go home happy. Our games with Workington have always been packed full of incident and entertainment and last Saturdays was no exception.

The most satisfactory feature of the game was that the whole team tried to play together. The Saints backed up better than they have done for years and played as if they knew exactly what they were doing.

Training Pays Good Dividends.

Chairman Harry Cook and Trainer Peter Lyons must have been more than pleased with the results of their insistence on this type of play, and the players themselves cannot have had any doubt that their training of the past weeks can get results.

If they will just keep this up, Christmas will see the Saints on the top of their form and Wigan will not be supplying all the fireworks on Boxing Day.

We can leave any comment on individual players, but it was pleasing to notice two of the Welshmen. Blakemore had easily his best game this season, and Cale showed that he is definitely on the way to making a first-class Rugby League man.

Congratulations . . .

Don Gullick has the best wishes of all Knowsley Road supporters on his wedding which took place this morning. He misses this match and next week's.

To-day's Game . . .

Oldham must feel satisfied with the players they have got from St. Helens. Nip Heyes has come along splendidly since he joined Oldham and gets a good word from all the teams he plays against. Leyland, too, has held his place consistently, and justified his many supporters at Knowsley Road.

Supporters' Club Notes

It is Saturday, November 11th, and our Committee are collecting at the ground for the Earl Haig Fund.

The Edington Stand is now in course of erection and we expect all regular spectators to rally round to help us to raise the necessary funds. It is the most ambitious project as yet undertaken by an individual Supporters' Club. With the addition of three canteens you must agree that your comfort is our interest.

This evening we hold the third Aston Benefit Dance at Parr Oddfellows and all first team players have promised to attend. Admission 2s. 6d.

December 31st is the last day for accepting Wembley deposits and for anything you wish to know in connection with Supporters Club activities, inquire at the Canteen. ENROL NOW—6d. per year.
