SALFORD versus OLDHAM

No 1478

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27th, 1951

Kick-off at 3-0 p.m.

WELCOME TO VERY OLD FRIENDS.

Oldham's visit revives many memories.

If history could be unfolded in the limited space devoted to the introduction of our very old and welcome opponents from Oldham, it would contain many thrilling passages and bring back to memory the deeds of dozens of famous players, not the least of whom would be our great Jimmy Lomas, who played for both clubs during his distinguished career.

No doubt many of you staunch supporters who have not been enticed to go to Swinton for the Lancashire Cup Final will have many happy memories of Joe Ferguson, Alf Wood, Dave Holland, Bert Avery, Albert Brough, the brothers Farnsworth, George Smith, George Anlezark, Bob Sloman, Sid Rix (a Salfordian), Herman Hilton, Reg Farrar, Evan Davies, and many others who made the club famous before and immediately after the first World War.

But the greatest of all contributions Oldham have made to the game was to produce one of its greatest legislators, the late Mr. Joe Platt, and one of its finest referees, the late Mr. Billy McCutcheon.

Oldham has subscribed lavishly to the upbuilding and progress of the game since its inception 56 years ago, and no team is more welcome at Weaste.

Though they may not be the power on the field of play today that they were in the days of the players mentioned, they are a well-balanced combination, sufficiently powerful, to make the outcome of today's engagement impossible to predict with any measure of certainty. Recently they defeated the "Kiwis" and only failed by a narrow margin to be finalists for the Lancashire Cup.

You will perceive from the following results of our post-war League engagements that they have beaten us more often than we have defeated them.

JACK BROWN

Our photograph today is of Jack Brown, who has given long and enthusiastic service to Salford.

Jack was signed from Pendlebury Juniors in 1938 and, like many other players, lost valuable years with the intervention of the war. Known to the supporters as "The Bomber" Jack is a firm favourite of the crowd. Weighing 16 stone, he has been of immense value in the scrum, and his long reach and ability to steal the ball at a play-the-ball has often delighted the home followers. He has played for Lancashire County Team.

CLUB GOSSIP.

Since the issue of our last programme we have signed Eric Hesketh, a sound and experienced outside half-back from St. Helens. We have attempted more—as yet without success. Recently our Secretary paid a visit to Wales, but unfortunately the circumstances were not sufficiently favourable for an assessment of the player's ability to be made.

Recently the name of a well-known Scottish International was mentioned as having been approached by certain "big-moneyed" clubs. We made a substantial bid for his services long ago.

Our director, Mr. J. W. Hammond, who is Chairman of the Lancashire Committee, made some straight-from-the-shoulder criticism of the Lancashire team's performance against Yorkshire. In future you will find players with reputations to make will be given preference over many who have made them in other forms of representative games.

TOPICAL TALK.

It took a lot of persuasion to make the Australian Board of Control realise the hardship imposed upon the five Rochdale Hornets players by the ban. In spite of their action there is still a strong feeling in this country that the embargo should not be renewed when it expires next August.

Why should Rugby Unionists be allowed to pick all the financial plums? There is wisdom in the suggestion that Rugby Unionists and not Rugby League players should be banned. This would force Union men, keen to capitalise their skill, to join the League—probably in numbers that would be surprising.

The extraordinary feat of scoring four tries in a match by Phillips, the Bradford Northern full-back, has, so far as we are aware, never before been equalled in a first-class match.

The attacking full-back is quite a modern innovation, developed by such men as Risman, Ryan, Ledgard, Cook and Hunter. In the old days a full-back was essentially a defensive unit, who made his reputation by the success of his tackling, fielding the ball, and the strength and performance of his long-range kicking. Not so today.

The Warrington Club have started a Testimonial Fund for Geoffrey Lawrenson, who had to have his leg amputated after sustaining a fracture in his first professional game. We are having a collection for this unfortunate player when the Tourists visit Weaste on December 1st, and we feel sure that spectators will give generously on this occasion.

In future we are publishing a Penny Programme at "A" Team games. We hope that spectators will purchase these, as we feel that many people watch "A" Team games without knowing who is playing. All information will be given, and if trialists are on view we will let you know. This will help "A" Team football generally, and, as our "A" Team is performing very well indeed, they deserve support.

We are pleased to let you know that Bill Hughes is progressing very well. The same can be said of Geo. Aspinall, who starts work this week.

Supporters' Club Notes

It is always gratifying to any club and its supporters when one of their team is chosen to play for a representative team. In this case we refer to Tom McKinney, who once again has been chosen to play for the Other Nationalities team. All supporters of this club will want to join with us in offering him our congratulations. There is no doubt that, on his present form, there are very few, if any, better hookers playing in the League today. A continuance of this form must surely put him in line for that honour coveted by all players of winning an International Cap. Keep it up, Mac!

Three members of the Willows Juniors team (Intermediate)—Mallinson, Walker and Knoffe (Res.)—played for the Swinton & Pendlebury Intermediate League versus the Warrington & District League in an inter-town match last Saturday. The result is not to hand at the time of going to press.

On Saturday, December 22nd, the Supporters' Club will hold an Xmas Dance at Eccles Town Hall. Tickets will be available soon.

Tickets for the Autographed Ball will be on sale on the ground each home fixture up to and including December 1st. Have you got yours?

This being Dai Davies' benefit season, the Committee are considering ways and means of enabling Dai to have a bumper benefit. Details of all efforts relating to same will appear from time to time in these notes.
