CLUB NOTES.

Oldham

Oldham are enjoying their most successful period for many years. They were recently at the top of the table and now occupy the 6th position, and this without having lately indulged in any costly acquisitions. In fact a few weeks ago they received a large fee for the transfer of their stand-off or centre Ken Ward who went to Leeds.

Ganley, their full-back and goal-kicker, is the son of the old Leigh, Lancs and international half-back. Mitchell has been a sound centre for a number of years, while Platt has represented Lancashire this season. Davies, still only 19 years of age, arouses big expectations. Stirrup, the scrum-half, has seen service with Leigh and Salford. Keith, who was a Yorks. junior county hooker, has few equals in that position. Jackson received his first county recognition against New Zealand. Leyland gained international honours while with St. Helens. Goldswain, who acts as player-coach, is also an international and formerly played with Hull K.R.

We regret that owing to circumstances entirely beyond our control it has been impossible to avoid today's clash with Barrow A.F.C.

How The Money Goes!

It is surprising how many items of expenditure a club nowadays has to face. Some of these account for quite substantial sums and yet are apt to be overlooked until the bills come in. Just to give a little insight into what club managements have to face we propose occasionally to deal with some of these points.

Insurance comes under this heading. We have actually ten different policies covering all kinds of risks. These cost £120 per annum with a total cover of £50,000. The biggest item is for public liability, £30,000. The R.L. insist on £20,000 which we consider hardly adequate. Then there are other such obvious ones as fire, storm (damage to grandstand), burglary, and accidents to people working on ground, boiler, etc.

In addition we have a policy which supplements the Industrial Accidents Payments which players receive. This gives them £2 per week for 13 weeks. This costs each club about £240 per year. Thus insurance accounts for £360 practically an average net gate. As we have only 18 league home matches it will be appreciated that insurance take a considerable place in our economy,

Congratulations

We congratulate Frank Castle and Philip Jackson on their selections for England and Lancashire respectively. We hope these are but the forerunners of future honours. At the same time we would state our convictions that others among our players also deserved recognition. It is not the fault of our representatives that such was not accorded.
