We are looking forward to a very good game with the much talked about Oldham team, who are a very strong and well blended side of youth and experience, having enjoyed a most successful sequence of victories which has brought them to the fringe of the "first four" and it may mean that if Huddersfield should lose to the Hull team and Oldham gain a victory over the Robins today the Water-sheddings team may finish in the fourth position.

Much interest will be centred on the visit and form of Bryn Goldswain a once popular forward at Craven Park, whose skill and coaching abilities have done so much to put the visitors so high in the League Table.

The Rovers' much improved displays over the Easter holidays against Hull, Hunslet and Bramley, when interesting and entertaining football of a high order was given. The unfortunate injury to Bryn Knowelden during the Bramley match may cause him to miss today's fixture.

Please note that the "A" Team will be entertaining Huddersfield "A" who are in the first four of the Yorkshire Senior Competition League and also finalists in the Challenge Cup, the time of kick-off will be at 6.15 p.m.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES
