Club Notes

HULL v OLDHAM

Saturday, 23rd April, 1960. Kick-off 3.0 p.m.

Today we are delighted to welcome to the Boulevard the strong and attractive Oldham side. Their playing personnel are familiar both to the Hull players and spectators following our cup semi-final engagement with them at Swinton a fortnight ago. Both teams today will be feeling the effects of a hectic Easter programme and there may well be several changes in both teams.

The visitors have not had a very successful Easter, Oldham having been beaten at Swinton on Good Friday and at Workington on Easter Monday, while we were sustaining a very disappointing home defeat at the Boulevard on Easter Monday by the strong St. Helens side. As a result of these set backs, the Lancashire side lost their chance of a place in the Top Four. The Lancastrians have recently been effected by injury and illness but we hope two of their international players, Jackson, prop forward and Pitchford, scrum half will both have recovered and be in their side today.

Two well known international players in the Oldham side, Charlie Winslade and Ken Jackson are, this year, taking a well earned benefit as also is Keith who, after giving many years service to Oldham in the position of hooker, was transferred to the Halifax Club in January this year. We hope these players will have a bumper benefit.

Match Review

At Doncaster on Saturday last with a somewhat re-arranged side, our senior team picked up two valuable league points. Their play, however, was not that of a Top Four or Cup Final side although they always had the game well in hand. As a result of an injury sustained by Johnny Smith in the recent Cup Tie against Leeds 'A' at Headingley, Terry Devonshire was called upon to fill the vacancy at scrum half when Tommy Finn was not available for the Doncaster game. Although Terry was playing in what to him was an unusual position, he acquitted himself well and scored a brilliant try in the first few minutes of the game and shortly after made a fine opening to put Stan Cowan over for a try.
