CLUB NOTES

After perhaps the shortest close season in the game's history, the Rugby League programme is again under way.

In fact, today's annual Charity Cup game with Oldham is not even the usual "pipe opener", for Hornets had a League match at York last Saturday and Oldham won the "Sevens" Competition at Wigan.

Forgetting for a moment last weeks events, we welcome both old and new supporters to the Athletic Grounds and hope that they get value for money during the coming campaign.

We also welcome two newcomers to the Hornets playing staff, Malcolm Price and Ken Payne, both of whom played at York and both of whom will be making their first appearance in Hornets colours at the Athletic Grounds this afternoon.

Price, a Welsh Rugby Union international who toured New Zealand with the British Lions Rugby Union side, did not have the best luck when he swapped codes and joined Oldham R.L. Club.

But a change of luck often goes with a change of clubs and Price has the class and ability to sharpen up Hornets attacking play providing he sees more of the ball than he did at York.

Payne, though an Oldhamer, has played all his senior Rugby with Blackpool Borough. When he first went on the transfer list he was so highly rated by the Seasiders that they asked for a £4,000 fee. We hasten to add that Hornets paid nothing approaching that sum for Payne who, it is hoped, will fill the front-row forward vacancy created by the transfer of Peter Birchall to Bradford Northern.

Returning to the York match. Hornets' defeat by 18pts. to 7 was a disappointment, the extent of which can be measured, at least in the boardroom, by the five changes made for this afternoon's game.

One encouraging feature, however, was the form of second-row man Apesai Toga. He showed no ill-effects from the serious ankle operation he had in the Spring and his power play was good enough to create enough chances for Hornets to have taken a substantial lead early in the game.

One hopes that Hornets take their chances more readily today. They will need to do if the Charity Cup is to remain at the Athletic Grounds.

Oldham's success in the Wigan "Sevens" was an impressive performance, though it was achieved at some cost. Their £5,000 full-back and goalkicking star, Brian Curry from Huddersfield, twisted his knee in the semi-final and, unfortunately, misses today's game.

HOOLIGANISM BY SPECTATORS

The Management Committee of the Northern Rugby Football League wish to make it known that they are viewing with increasing concern the number of incidents which are reported involving attacks on referees and touch-judges. It would be as well for all clubs to warn their spectators as to the possible consequences arising out of acts of hooliganism. Clubs may be fined or even grounds may be suspended.

The Management Committee intend henceforth to be particularly severe when they take disciplinary action against clubs proved not to have taken adequate precautions to protect the referee and touch-judges at any game. Supporters should be asked to apprehend or report any culprit so that adequate legal action can be taken. It might be as well to make some suitable reference to this in your club programmes at the beginning of next season.

W. FALLOWFIELD, Secretary.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Our A.G.M. on Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair, the balance sheet revealing another solid year's work. With a profit of £961 and £1050 handed to the Hornets, nothing much more could have been expected of us.

The hon. treasurer in his review of the season's working, mentioned the fact that the committee of the Supporters' Club alone individually brought in to the weekly lottery over £100 per week. In addition, of course, something like £90 per year is saved for the Hornets on debenture interest.

Our immediate need is to work for a permanent tea-bar to replace our present main wooden hut, and this could well be our target for the coming season. For many years we have spent very little on maintaining this building except what we have been forced to spend, and for the sake of the comfort of those who give their services free—the ladies—year after year we need to get something done.

MR. CLIFFORD IBBERSON

As far away as last March—unknown to the eventual recipient—a presentation was planned to mark thirty years of loyal work for the Hornets by Mr. Clifford Ibberson. Before we were able to carry out this plan, Clifford, through ill-health, had to relinquish the bar secretary's job, and on Tuesday an inscribed tankard was handed to him by the Supporters' Club Chairman, Mr. Harrison

Laycock. Men like Clifford have been with the Hornets through thick and thin, and but for them there would have been no club long ago. Fortunately we are not to lose his services. He is continuing as a committee member, and Mr. Ken Allen is combining the bar duties with his secretarial work. After Tuesday's meeting there was an hour of reminiscing back to the days when some of us stood in pouring rain without a roof to our heads recruiting members at the Athletic Grounds just after the last war.

Whether or not it is "old age brooding" one has the feeling that young men today are not "fired" with the keenness that resurrected the Hornets after the war years—starting from scratch. Perhaps this feeling is wrong, for we have recently made new committee acquisitions which will be a great asset to our work, in Messrs. H. Walker, F. Hill and F. Setway, and to further strengthen us Messrs. C. Cryer and H. Riddle were added on Tuesday.

MEMBERSHIP

Renewal of Supporters' Club membership is now due, and for 2/- you can again enjoy on match days the facilities of our comfortable bar, complete with T.V. Committee members will be "on the job" this afternoon issuing new cards, and you are asked to help by getting your new card today. Members are also asked to please show their cards to the doorman.

JUNIOR SUPPORTERS CLUB

Mr. J. F. Law outlined plans for the Junior Supporters' Club at Tuesday's meeting, including a club trip to be run soon for the purpose of raising funds for a Christmas party for our young members. See Mr. Law today for full details.
