Oldham beat our traditional "enemy" Swinton in the First Round of this Competition and, in fact play the same team against us tonight that beat the "Lions" in this cup tie.

Brian Curry at fullback is a big price pre-season Oldham capture, and as befits a goalkicker of Brian's reputation, our boys must give him the minimum of goal shots tonight, or else he could win the game off his own bat. Our opposition threequarter line is composed of experienced players such as ex-Wiganer Jim McCormack, ex-St. Helens John Donovan, and the former Rochdale and St. Helens winger Trevor Simms. Mike Elliot on the other flank is a boy of much promise.

Tommy Warburton, who is a Leigh lad, has established himself as one of the best stand-off halves in our code, and he is playing a brand of top class football right now. Tommy Canning, his half-back partner, is an ex-Rugby Union player, but he comes from that Rugby League hot bed St. Helens—enough said.

The Oldham pack even without skipper Dave Parker, is a formidable one. The second row pairing of Peter Smethurst and young Bobby Irving is claimed by a lot of good judges as the best club second row pair in our Rugby League business. Tug Wilson is an ex-English Rugby Union forward and this season he has consolidated his position as Oldham's open side prop forward. Youngsters Geoff Fletcher, Kevin Taylor and Mooney are all very useful forwards, and this trio all play their part in making this Oldham forward formation a very handy club outfit.

For ourselves we welcome our latest signing Test forward Frank Collier on his League debut tonight at The Willows.
