SALFORD versus OLDHAM

This evening we welcome and entertain our very keen Lancashire rivals, Oldham. Like ourselves, Oldham have not made a great start in the League programme. They have had their team problems and a long injury list has not enabled them to field their strongest side, but tonight they look more themselves.

Despite their improving strength, one big Oldham name that will be absent is second row forward Bobby Irving, who will be playing for Great Britain in the First Test at Headingley tomorrow. We offer Bob and his colleagues our best wishes for this vital Test.

We also note in the Oldham team tonight that young Leigh lad Martin Murphy takes over at full back from Brian Curry. Martin is a player of great potentiality and wherever he plays he will not let his club down. Former Hunslet and Great Britain tourist Geoff Shelton is also back tonight after injury and no doubt he will make his presence felt. His co-centre, Jimmy McCormick, the former Wigan player, is also back in football after a prolonged illness.

To complete the Oldham three-quarter line Mike Elliot is a very useful winger and it will be interesting to see how Johnny Donovan, the former St. Helens stand-off, performs on the other flank.

Tonight's half backs, Tommy Warburton and Billy Broomhead, have had more than their fair share of severe injuries in their short playing careers. On his day Tommy is as good a number six as anyone in the game, and if the ball runs for him this evening he will set us up quite a few problems, and no doubt he will be taking over Brian Curry's goal kicking role.

The Oldham forward set-up tonight looks a very good one. Tug Wilson, the former English Rugby Union international, appears to have settled his differences at Watersheddings and now he is playing again his presence is sure to be felt in the pack.

Open side prop, Colin Smith, is the former Swinton and Blackpool hooker and he could help Oldham to fill the open side prop position, left open by Charlie Bott's transfer to Salford, for his heart is big enough for the job. Young Kevin Taylor, back again after a troublesome knee injury, is a most promising hooker and is sure to give our Bob Burdell a real tussle for supremacy in the set scrums.

Charlie McCourt, the former Whitehaven second rower, now available after suspension makes his debut for Oldham tonight. Geoff Fletcher is now the Club captain and he is certain to set a great example to all his colleagues with his non-stop style of play. Arthur Hughes is well known to us all at The Willows, and one thing that we can all rest assured about is that Arthur will be "buzzing" and no doubt it would be most interesting to hear his pep talk to his new colleagues before tonight's game.

Vital league points are at stake for both clubs and if all the players on view play up to their established reputations, and the weather is favourable, the crowd could be in for a football treat.

CLUB NOTES

Terry Ogden was discharged from hospital on Wednesday. His ankle is badly sprained with a large amount of swelling, and it looks like quite a few weeks before he will be able to resume playing.

We congratulate Les Bettinson on his further selection for Cumberland to play Yorkshire County next week, also Chris Hesketh on being our first player to win "The Player of the Match" award in the Players No. 6 Competition.

No doubt in tonight's game there will be a lot of keen rivalry on the field of play. Charlie Bott, Pete Smethurst and Stuart Whitehead will all be on their toes against their former colleagues, and there will be great interest shown in the display given by Arthur Hughes, our former captain.

Bob Prosser, our latest signing from St. Helens, has had his first training spin with us, although not match fit he is in pretty good condition. In all probability he will make his Salford debut against Workington "A" here at The Willows on Saturday, October 28th.

We take this opportunity to thank all the people that have complimented the Salford Club and the Chairman on the completion of the extension to our luxurious Social Club. The Australian Touring party were amazed to see such a club in English Rugby League comparable with any that they have in Sydney. They thought that our new Vice-Presidents' Bar was a terrific innovation and they were all staggered by the high quality of furnishing and decor of the whole club.

LES BETTINSON TESTIMONIAL FUND

Would people who still hold Draw Tickets for the three Holiday Prizes please return the counterfoils together with the money as soon as possible. The draw will be made on 11th January, 1968, and we ask all our supporters to make an extra effort to sell these tickets to make this a bumper testimonial. A few books of tickets are still available.

Johnny Goon Tweed returns to the Social Club on Wednesday, 29th November, 1967 in support of the Les Bettinson Testimonial Fund. Tickets will be on sale in the Social Club from 23rd October, 1967. Avoid disappointment—get your ticket early.

DOUG HILL

This evening's photograph personality is yet again one of our recent new signings, Doug Hill.

Doug hails from the Midlands where he played top class Rugby Union at County level. He was well in the running for an England cap, but a bad knee injury looked like putting paid to his rugby career. Doug, after a successful operation to his damaged limb played a series of trials with St. Helens but failed to come to terms with them, and he came to Salford to renew a former partnership with Alan McInnes—founded from their college days at Loughborough.

Doug has soon made himself very popular at The Willows with team mates and fans alike.
