COSSACK VODKA

The Cossack Vodka Trophy which will be presented on the field to the captain of the winning side immediately after the final by the Managing Director of Cossack Vodka, Mr. Derek Hayman.

SEVENS

The Wigan Club's best thanks are due to clubs for allowing their players to take part in this competition, to the players themselves, and to the referees and touch-judges.

Official Programme

Price 6d.

Proceeds in aid of Junior and Schoolboy Rugby League Football

The full results for last year's tournament were:

Final

Halifax	28	Widnes	11
---------	----	--------	----

The major part of the financial contribution made by Cossack Vodka towards today's sponsorship will go towards the development of Junior Rugby League sides in the participating towns.

Our picture shows Mr. Hayman presenting the Cossack Vodka trophy to Halifax Captain Colin Dixon after Halifax beat Widnes 28-11 in last year's final of the Cossack Vodka Sevens at Wigan

This is the second year Cossack are sponsoring this tournament, and besides presenting the Trophy, there will be a cheque for 25 guineas for the 'Man of the Day' and inscribed travel alarm clocks for the winning side. The 'Man of the Day' will be chosen straight after the final by a panel of local and national journalists. Last year Peter Goodchild of Halifax won this title.

FINAL

COMPETITION RULES

Each side consists of seven players, the usual formation being three forwards and four backs. Selection may be made from eight players, and substitutes allowed at any time in any game. When the Hooter is sounded, extra time will not be allowed in which to take a kick at goal, whether conversion or penalty.

Each game is played seven minutes each way (except the final which is played 10 minutes each way). If at the end of the usual period the tie is drawn, ends are changed every seven (or 10) minutes, the first side to score being the winners.
