WIGAN v OLDHAM

Saturday, 9th November, 1968

KICK-OFF 3 p.m.

Our Visitors

This afternoon, in our first Saturday home match for six weeks, we are still in search of the season's opening League double, which has already been denied us in fierce encounters at Hull and Leigh.

The task should not be beyond the team's capabilities if they display the same discipline and opportunism shown in gaining two tough points at Watersheddings on 21st September. Then, an opportunist try by Eric Ashton at just the right psychological moment and three goals from Colin Tyrer were enough to clinch a 9-4 win in appalling conditions.

This well-merited win maintained our sound record of not having lost a League game at Watersheddings for ten years. But, as a glance through their team will show, to gain a double over Oldham is no mean achievement. After all, it is only 20 months since they beat us at Central Park, winning 20-8 in March, 1967.

A look through Oldham's ranks proves them to be a team worthy of every respect. And the fact that their most recent visit to Central Park, which unhappily ended in disaster for them, was in the Lancashire Cup Final only 15 days ago, means that the current Oldham side needs no reintroduction.

No doubt, all "neutrals" in the 17,000 Lancashire Cup crowd experienced a certain amount of sympathy for Oldham, in quest of taking the Lancashire Trophy for the first time for ten years.

But there was to be no repeat of their 12-2 win over St. Helens which, in 1958, completed a hat-trick of Oldham wins.

Long after the finish of this year's final, coach Gerry Helme was still regretting Oldham's abrupt change of fortune. Leading 2-0 at half-time and still on terms after 56 minutes, Oldham were swept aside after unfortunate injuries to props Geoff Fletcher and Tug Wilson. Saints, scoring all their 30 points in 24 minutes, with six tries and six Kel Coslett goals, romped to their seventh Lancashire Cup win in nine years.

Fletcher, who broke a bone in his left hand, is expected to miss today's match. But, happily, Tug Wilson, the 6ft. 2ins., 15st. 7lbs. former Gloucester R.U. scrummager, is likely to be fit again.

Naturally, Oldham are sure to feel the handicap of the loss of the leadership of Fletcher — whose vital statistics are identical to Wilson's — who was a rare £1,500 bargain-buy from Leigh.

But there is no shortage of sterling material in the Oldham pack ... crafty, creative Arthur Hughes, the former Widnes and Salford loose-forward; brilliant Huddersfield product Bob Irving an international at 18 and a forward who once rated a five-figure valuation; rangey Charlie McCourt, still only 23 and one of a host of grand forwards who have started their careers at Whitehaven; and, of course, hooker Kevin Taylor, the 22-year-old local-born international and Lancashire County hooker.

Oldham's backs, possibly among the most underated in the game, include such dependable players as Cardiff winger Mike Elliott, the versatile Derek Whitehead — a really good £4,000 buy from Swinton — and our former centre Jim McCormack, who after four years at Watersheddings, still lives quite close to Central Park.

Another boy with Wigan connections, flame-haired 20-year-old Martin Murphy, is making quite an impression at full-back after an "apprenticeship" on the wing. And Oldham have another shrewd signing at stand-off in Wilf Briggs, who figured in a part-exchange deal with Leigh which took Tommy Warburton to Hilton Park. Wilf is still listed by Oldham at £6,000.

Former Vulcan R.U. discovery Tommy Canning is currently contesting the scrum-half spot with tiny Ged Smith, recently acquired from Barrow.

Among Oldham's most promising young acquisitions are ex-Sale R.U. centre Phil Larder and useful 21-year-old stand-by forward Dennis Maders, while John Donovan and Trevor Buckley are available for either centre position.

So it goes without saying that we will be more than delighted if we can dismiss Oldham as effectively as on their last visit here. On 22nd January, we scored an amazing 39-3 triumph, sweeping in for nine tries in a floodlit game watched by a crowd of 8,782.

Billy Boston — reputedly on his last legs! — scored a fantastic solo effort and our other tries came from Colin Tyrer (2) — he also landed six goals — Frankie Parr (2), Bill Francis, Peter Rowe, Geoff Lyon and Colin Clarke.

Post-war meetings with Oldham arouse a host of great memories of fine matches. Perhaps two of the most significant in recent years from our standpoint came in 1966 and 1958.

At Station Road, Swinton, on 29th October, 1966, after a 16-13 win in a great match — last of the "old-style" finals — we at last broke our Lancashire Cup jinx and brought the trophy back to Central Park for the first time for 15 years. And of course, Eric Ashton and Billy Boston received the Lancashire Cup medals which had eluded them throughout their great careers.

But an equally significant Cup win for us came at Water-sheddings in March, 1958. On our way to a Wembley Final success against Workington Town, we at last laid the Oldham "bogey" by winning a third round tie 8-0.

And the players did not try to hide their jubilation. For at the time, the Oldham team were at their zenith. This, believe it or not, was Wigan's first win over Oldham in 15 matches!

For those who still need convincing, it's a fact that between 1952 and 1958, magnificent Oldham beat Wigan 14-5, 27-13, 18-7, 7-2, 9-5, 5-2, 26-0, 48-23 (AT CENTRAL PARK!), 14-5, 18-16, 25-13, 14-6, 9-6, and 13-8 (in the 1957 Lancs. Cup Final at Swinton).

But is it any wonder! with respect to Griff Jenkins, many Wigan fans still argue that this Oldham side could well have coached themselves.

A sample Oldham line-up of this "unbeatable" era was: Stirrup; Cracknell, Noon, Davies, Etty; Daley, Pitchford; Ogden, Keith, Little, Rogers, Goldswain, Turner.

Not that this team has been named by accident. With Bernard Ganley not even included, this was the Oldham line-up which scored 12 tries and gave us our biggest-ever dusting at Central Park (48-23) in November, 1955.

Supporters Association Notes

Early in September 1967, the Board invited 30 enthusiasts to meet them to discuss the possibility and advisability or otherwise of forming a Supporters' Association as distinct from the Social Club. Only 12 people turned up, but it was decided to make a start.

Since then regular weekly meetings have been held and though very little seems to have been accomplished, not all of it is the fault of the Committee. Many of you helped us by joining the Association, your subscriptions providing a small financial basis on which we hoped to build.

Our primary aim is to harness and increase the enthusiasm for the club and the game by providing opportunities to talk and argue Rugby, and by keeping the "Cherry and White" in evidence as much as possible by any means at all.

The open meeting for members on November 27th 1967 was badly hit by the weather. Only 80 people turned up and most of those were Juniors. A second meeting on December 11th suffered a worse fate due to a sickness epidemic among both members and committee. On February 5th 1968, films of R.L. Tests in Australia were shown and that just had to be the night of the "big snow" when travel was chaotic and at times impossible.

Though our relationship with the Social Club Committee has always been very good, lack of our own accommodation has made communications and sale of articles in club colours very difficult. Some troubles have been overcome, others have still to be met, but there is not the space to go into those here.

You may be disappointed or even disgusted with the seemingly little progress made; you may be hopeful of the future and have good ideas to speed up progress. Whichever it is, come and get it off your chest on Friday, November 22nd in the Social Club from 7-30 to 8-15, after which we hope to allow in Junior members and non-members (2/6) to see films of the 1966 Test series in Australia.

The public are invited, so if you want a ticket, see one of the Association committee or the steward of the Social Club, quickly.

Official Notes

Since our last match at Central Park when we defeated Swinton by 12-7, we have played two matches at Leigh and Rochdale. Our fixture at Leigh was an exciting affair. Leigh came out determined to win at ALL costs, the game was marred by two many unsavoury incidents, eventually culminating in Murphy being involved in a fight with Cliff Hill and both players being dismissed. From this point of the game our boys steadily built up tremendous pressure but the Leigh side tackled magnificently until the closing minutes of the game when Bill Francis went in at the corner, Colin Tyrer levelled the scores with a great goal.

On Tuesday at Rochdale in the second round of the B.B.C. 2 Floodlit Competition the Hornets offered little resistance and we won quite easily by 23-7. The main interest in this match was the form shown by reserve second row forward Keith Mills who had a memorable match, it was also pleasing to see Johnny Jackson return to the side after being absent for five weeks with a head injury, he gave a very sound display at scrum-half.
