Good afternoon Huyton fans and a big welcome to those visitors from Watersheddings, Oldham, who are our opponents today.

Before getting involved in a preview of today's match let me first deal with that fine win at Whitehaven last Saturday. Coming as it did after two off-form performances by the Huyton boys the victory was all the more welcome. My information is that new signing Colin Darwin is already proving just how valuable a buy this man is. His goalkicking last Saturday kept Huyton in touch at a vital stage of the encounter and it was he who finally put the issue beyond reasonable doubt after Kevin Westhead had scored a match-winning try in the second half by adding the goalpoints from a position near the touchline. So it was a happy journey back to Lancashire for our lads with a second League win of the season in their pockets.

It is also worth remembering that not too many teams win at Whitehaven and this victory can only give our boys the confidence they quite often show and yet, of late, seem to have been lacking. Darwin's goalkicking is the one thing above all else which has rich promise for the future. We can play the Rugby expected of us but there is no doubt that this season goal kicks have been our undoing. I am reminded particularly of this whenever I think of that 12-9 defeat at Warrington and the 13-15 and 16-7 defeats at the hands of Halifax and Keighley respectively. Thus, we hope, this important problem has been resolved by the persistence of our club officials in their search for the right man.

With several matches in hand of those clubs above us in the League table, one or two "Whitheaven" like displays in the very near future should ensure our team going on to better things when the Wembley Cup trial gets under way. It was nice to see the Heesom brothers Alec and Albert back in action recently and I am still of the opinion that Alec has all the qualities to become a really fine full-back.

Likewise the performances of winger David Leatherbarrow this season have been most encouraging and coupled with the thrust of forwards like Duggie Davies, Gil Wright and "Big" Bill Payne the team really is settling down. The "back-room boys" are also playing a fine game in the organisation and running of the club and the only real regret in our full second season at Alt Park is that not enough Huyton and district folk are taking the trouble to come along and watch us play. Yet, the position is far from desperate and given a little more time I feel sure we will make ourselves felt in the game of Rugby League.

Today's match against Oldham will be the last one (first team, that is) for the best part of three weeks until we play Batley here on Sunday, November 8th. This is due, in some measure, to the Rugby League World Cup competition involving Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand and France. These matches get underway next Monday. Our "A" team fixtures, however, as far as I know are not affected by World Cup arrangements and this afternoon our second team lads are at Watersheddings.

Next Saturday we entertain Workington "A" in the Lancashire Combination Challenge Shield competition and again the following Saturday we have Wigan "A" as visitors to Alt Park. So loyal fans are not deprived of club Rugby during World Cup time. Talking about our "A" team boys also reminds me that they, too, are enjoying better things these days and I for one wish them every possible success.

Well, to today's clash against Oldham. In recent years Huyton (and Liverpool City before) have done extraordinary well against the Watersheddings men. Albeit, in season 1968-69 we played Oldham home and away and WON both times. Last season we finished up on the wrong side at Oldham but took our toll at Alt Park. So in two seasons we have won three times out of four against our opponents today. We hope that the standard of play will be in keeping with past matches and, although Oldham are a much improved side, we still feel we have the beating of them today. Nevertheless, we wish the team and their fans and officials a pleasant stay at Alt Park and may the better team win. Keep cheering fans. See you.
