ODSAL ITEMS

The game at the "Watersheddings" proved to be a ding-dong thriller from the word go and in a game when beaten convincingly in the set scrums we were only able to gain possession on five occasions to the Oldham twenty-three and after being deprived of the services of Eddie Tees early in the first half for a purely reflex "high tackle" we still led by five points to nil at the interval. Points wise this was a good result, but few will say that we had played well, until a break by Phil Jackson, who drove strongly for the line and when tackled threw out a speculative pass which was latched upon by an avid Stuart Gallacher, who went over far out, for Tees to convert. This left Eddie requiring only one point for his 200, but his summary dismissal has deferred this event, possibly until the return game here at Odsal this Sunday. Then we lost the services of Phil Evans who had tackled heroically with a dislocated finger and things looked grave indeed, but worse was to follow. When the teams came out it was seen that Skipper Watson was not in and Peter Small went to full back and Graham Joyce deputised at centre where both the first team choices were off after injury.

There would be few present who would have given this badly depleted side much chance of survival, but although our football was not of the greatest, the workrate was terrific and was only exceeded by the real determination to win. In spite of the continuous lack of possession the lads ran and tackled remorselessly and after conceding two penalty goals that brought the score to five points to four, two breaks up the left flank by Stuart Gallacher who was having a great game resulted in another good try by the Welshman, which however was not converted. Then a goal from young Graham Joyce appeared to have made the game safe at ten points to six, but a try and a goal by Oldham made the score ten-nine and we prepared for a nail-biting finish, until a break up the right saw Stan Fearnley straighten up smartly for Mike Lamb to score cleverly at the corner for a well earned win.

This performance rates as the best this season for almost everyone in the side had to receive attention from the industrious Ron Barritt. It is very difficult to single out anyone for special mention although Phil Evans can be considered very unfortunate indeed for he had looked the part until the injury which now turns out to be a broken hand, and this will keep him out of the selectors eye for five to six weeks. It is my considered opinion that the policy of playing two forwards as substitute played the major role in obtaining this win!!

ODSAL ITEMS

Our run of victories came to an abrupt end with the defeat inflicted on us by the Featherstone club here at Odsal. It is a game that many of our players will wish to forget for chances too numerous to mention were thrown away with almost prodigal abandon by slipshod and slap-happy methods and poor finishing. The occasion positively screamed for the experience and steadiness of an experienced campaigner and the failure to sign one may well be regretted and cost us dear before the season is out.

The Board have given permission to that old Odsal favourite Tommy Smailes to raffle off one of his England shirts after today's game with Oldham and his players will sell tickets at the gates after the game and in the club rooms, the tea room and patrons' bar also. The proceeds from this generous donation will be devoted to junior rugby where Tommy is now playing and doing a grand job. I would ask all Odsal supporters to give most generously to this worthy cause.

One player who is being badly missed is Dave Stockwell now under light training and expected to be back for the Christmas games after his recovery from the knee injury that has kept him out of the side these last few weeks. He was rapidly regaining the sort of form that made him such a popular player of the year three seasons ago.

Two people well qualified to claim the title of Bradford Northern's longest travelling supporters are John and Pam Boothroyd now residing at Luccombe House, Higher Warberry Road, Torquay, Devon. John was a former member of the Hospital Broadcasting team along with Mr. Eric Parkin who is still doing a fine job in that capacity here at Odsal. Both Eric and his good lady are keen Northern supporters and can be seen at all the away games. I meet them frequently at unofficial headquarters, The King's Head, where they can be found most weekends.

Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd run a small hotel at Torquay and all Bradford Northern fans who visit this popular Devon resort can be sure of a most hearty Yorkshire welcome should they wish to look them up for a friendly natter over a cup of tea. We wish them well in their venture.

For just how long can it be tolerated in the Rugby League that a definite minority can inflict its will on the majority and hold up any progress toward reform. In my opinion any system of voting that allows this is farcical and out-dated and should be rectified at once. Bradford Northern are so convinced of the real need for two divisions that they are prepared to accept a berth in the lower grade. This is what is needed today and clubs should act and have the courage of their convictions! It is just this sort of administration that has brought the decline and discredit to the game.

"A" TEAM NEWS

Friday, Nov. 19th, 1971. Wakefield "A" 8 pts. v. Bradford Northern "A" 8 pts.

Under Floodlights at Belle Vue, Wakefield.

Team: O'Donnell; Turner, Gobey, Thomas, Thompson; Evans (K. Mitchell), Diabira; Butler, Outlaw, McCurley, Long (Williams), Small, Sykes (Capt.). Subs.: 14 Mitchell (K.), 15 Williams.

Scorer: Tries—Gobey 2. Goal—Gobey 1. Brian Outlaw sent off after 65 mins.

In a fast and entertaining match at Belle Vue, Wakefield, Northern "A" put up a good display against a strong Wakefield team. There was good running by both sides and Northern's cover tackling was terrific, O'Donnell being specially effective at full-back. McCurley playing his first game for several weeks after an injury, had a good all-round game, though naturally tired near the end. Peter Small showed several touches of class with some penetrating runs, whilst young Steve Gobey scored all the points. A well earned point.

Saturday, Nov. 27th, 1971. Bradford Northern "A" 12 pts. v. Featherstone "A" 3 pts.

Played at Odsal Stadium.

Team: O'Donnell; Womersley, Gobey (Mitchell), Turner, Parker; Evans, Shutt; McCurley, Outlaw, Cheshire, Williams (Jarvis), Trotter, Sykes (Capt.). Subs.: 14 Mitchell (K.), 15 Jarvis.

Scorers: Tries—Gobey, Evans. Goal—Gobey 3.

Against league leaders Featherstone "A", so far undefeated, Northern's young team faced a hard task, but with a great team effort, in which every man tackled like demons, our front three forwards (McCurley, Outlaw, Cheshire) dominated the game, giving their backs an unlimited supply of the ball, which in the first half was wasted by the ball being turned back inside instead of out to the wings to supply them with running chances. Matters improved in the second half and only resolute Featherstone tackling kept the score down to 12 points. All the forwards played well with McCurley outstanding, whilst Turner was the best of the backs. Young Steve Gobey scored a try and kicked three goals (one a 45 yd. penalty), whilst Evans registered the other try.

OUR VISITORS — OLDHAM R.L.F.C. LTD.

We welcome our friends from the "Watersheddings" once again to Odsal for the return league game today in this stadium. The club is in the process of being transformed into a go-ahead and prosperous successful concern and we wish them well in their efforts to do so.

Success after all is obtained by the ability to win matches by the use of good football and Oldham, like us, have had in the past some very fine sides and almost every honour in the game has come their way. I well recollect the first occasion that I had the privilege of seeing them early in 1913, which was in the challenge cup when they were hot favourites to beat my local team Dewsbury in the final. Oldham were beaten that day to my personal satisfaction, but they were as ever sporting in defeat!!

ODSAL ITEMS

It was heartening to watch Dave Hill turn in a great performance with all out effort in the game at Oldham and to this grafter must go the greater credit for the victory. Dave is now twenty-five and is showing that the experience he has obtained here at Bradford is being put to good use. Remember, it is the prime duty of the blind side prop to scrummage hard, tackle and graft to capacity and run with power and strength.

Thirteen victories and two draws with only three defeats give us a total of twenty-eight points from eighteen games and a place almost at the head of the table. When the season commenced I predicted that we should obtain at least thirty-two points before the new year and it will be most interesting to see if the prediction is fulfilled. The games still to play include Oldham at Odsal, Halifax home and away and finally Castleford at Wheldon Road.

Last Saturday young Barry Womersley found himself in somewhat strange company when he turned out on the wing for the Boulevarders against our "A" team here at Odsal. He gave a good account of himself in the famous colours that have been worn by the greatest centre of all time, the great "Billy" Batten, father of Eric who achieved fame as a winger here at Odsal. Another all-time great to wear those colours was the great Bob Taylor, a mighty forward of the twenties who stood six feet six inches in his stocking feet and renowned for his feats of strength on the field.

All for the Good of the Game!
