OLDHAM 'A' v HUYTON 'A'

NOTES & NEWS

Profound apologies to all our fans who expected to be reading today, the first issue of our Official Club Programme/Newspaper.

Due to a variety of reasons, but mainly because there is a time gap of a month from today's match to our next home fixture, your Committee decided to put off the newspaper launch date until the BIG GAME with ST. HELENS on Saturday, October 7th.

This decision was reached only after much heart-searching and after the Committee had taken the best advice available from printing, editorial and financial experts. It was felt that much of the impetus won by the very first edition would inevitably have been lost in the time-lag of just about a month before number two copy hit the news stands.

So, once again our deepest regrets. But all good things are worth waiting for, and we can promise you a real bundle of rugby reading goodies, plus the finest pictures, for our vital St. Helens fixture.

Today, we extend warm Oldham hospitality to our Yorkshire friends from Hull.

Hull were one of the founder members of the League in 1895, and their string of honours includes six championship finals. These have brought five victories and one defeat — to Oldham before 62,233 people at Odsal in 1956/57.

Nowadays, star of the Hull backs is skipper Clive Sullivan from Cardiff's Tiger Bay. Clive, now 29, joined Hull in December 1961. He has represented Great Britain in this country, Australia and New Zealand.

Although former flying winger Roy Francis has returned from Aussie land to lead the Airlie Birds, this has not been so far a brilliant season for the Boulevard fans. Indeed, the only win recorded so far has been the 43-8 victory over neighbours Hull Kingston Rovers in the opening charity game.

Last time Hull came to Watersheddings was in 1967/68 when Oldham won 31-7. Hull gained revenge in the return fixture at the Boulevard by 29-20.
