OLDHAM OUTLOOK

WHAT a difference a fortnight makes! After a draw and four defeats in the first five matches our boys came back superbly to beat Wigan and then followed up with a fighting 13-11 victory at Wakefield last week-end.

Between then and today's visit of Barrow to Watersheddings came our trip to Whitehaven on Tuesday in the first round of the Floodlit Trophy but these notes had to be written and prepared before that match.

Let us just keep our fingers crossed that we managed a win, against a side still seeking its first win of the season, and that we are now in the second round of the television tournament.

You will have read in the Press by now that Ken Wilson is continuing as coach until the end of the season. We are delighted that he has accepted the appointment during Jim Challinor's absence and wish him well in his work during the remainder of the season.

For many, many years Ken has been a stalwart of the club and it is good to see men of such long-standing service still able and willing to give of their services.

Another stalwart, Mike Elliott, played his 400th game for the club against Wigan. Congratulations to Mike! And we look forward to later in the season when Kevin Taylor will probably chalk up his 450th appearance.

But now to a man who has been with the club virtually consistently for nearly half its life! We all know that Oldham RLFC is now 100 year old. For 50 of those years it has enjoyed the work and active support of Fred Ashworth.

Fred came to Oldham from his native Cumberland in 1926 and did, in fact, play his first game for the club against Barrow. It would seem appropriate, therefore, with Barrow here today that we pay some sort of tribute to the service given to the club by Fred.

He was always a hard forward, having made something of a name for himself as a Cumbrian wrestler! And the dedication and hard work he put into his play later showed through when he served on the committee and, in more recent years, as a leading backroom-boy in the pools team.

Fred is still, after all these years, heart and soul in the club and is well known throughout the town as one who spreads the gospel on his pools missions.

The committee of the club offer him a sincere thank-you for 50 years of sincere association. He probably never dreamed, that day he left the hills of home to move south to Oldham, that he would be forging a link to stand the test of time. It is indeed a true saying ... "... from little acorns grow".

Oldham FC Down the Years

No. 3

by TOM WEBB

THE third season of Oldham FC was remarkable for a run of four draws. As two of the games included disputes about tries, there is a possibility that under present-day conditions these games would not rank as draws.

The season opened with the traditional First XV v the Next Twenty players but this degenerated, owing to late arrivals, into a First Fourteen v the Next Seventeen for a period.

As the First won by five goals and 12 tries, not to mention five minors, it was a complete vindication of the selection committee.

The first game resulted in a great win over Rossendale and this was followed by the run of draws. Dewsbury and Oldham each had a disputed try and I think the Yorkshire side had the best of the disputed draw.

Manchester also had a disputed try which the Oldham umpire refused to give. Manchester also had ten touchdowns to Oldham's one.

The Manchester club was the senior club in Lancashire and in fact until the other clubs in the county revolted it controlled all the Lancashire county fixtures.

Their ground was very short in length in the season under review and the boards behind the try line were so near that the club had to count all minors as touchdowns.

Cheetham Hill were the third team to tie and the fourth game was with Bradford United. This Yorkshire side was a composite club consisting of players from Caledonians, Rifles, Manningham, Albions, Bowling and Brierley and the ground was outside the town which made it difficult for clubs to reach it in reasonable time for the stipulated kick-off time.

Wins over Wakefield Trinity, Broughton, Swinton, Manchester Rangers and Rossendale were offset by a defeat by Manchester Free Wanderers who were about the best team in Lancashire.

Swinton were a power in the land and Oldham's victory over them put the club in the top rank.

Prior to February 8, Oldham had no game for eight weeks on account of frost, a tour arranged for Westmorland, with games at Windermere and Ambleside having to be abandoned.

On the resumption of play Swinton were visited and the lack of match practice resulted in Oldham being soundly defeated. The first goal to be scored against our club was by Swinton in February in this match and it is, in fact, the only one I can trace during the season.

For the third year in succession the club ended the season with a string of victories over Free Wanderers, Dewsbury, Castleton, Birch, Cheetham Hill and the rest of the Oldham clubs.

The game with Birch was remarkable for its ending. The Birch forwards swept the ball over the Oldham line but Fletcher touched down to save the situation. Birch claimed a try but Oldham refused to part with the ball for the kick at goal.

Birch persisted in their claim but Oldham took the ball away so Birch left the field and Oldham claimed victory by one try to nil.

J. B. Rye brought honour to the club by his appearance for Lancashire in the county game with Cheshire. J. E. Jones, one of the founder members of the club, was the leading spirit in the establishment of the Middleton club.

During the close season the club held a floral and art exhibition at the town hall when a great display of paintings attracted considerable attention, especially as the Oldham artists, Potter, Hague, Bottomley and Heywood had many pictures on show.

OUR VISITORS

BY DON YATES

OLDHAM will be hoping to continue their winning sequence this afternoon with the visit of Barrow for a match which throws together the intriguing side attraction of the meeting between rival coaches Ken Wilson and Frank Foster, both former props, both former Oldham skippers and both, incidentally, still retained on the Oldham playing register. It promises to be an interesting tactical exercise between the quiet, hard working Wilson and the fiery, inspiring leadership of Foster whose popularity at Watersheddings has never been in doubt, despite being sent off here against Oldham in 1971!!

Barrow will be seeking their first victory on this ground since January, 1970, when they scraped home 13-12 to complete a double over Oldham whom they had defeated 26-19 at Craven Park the previous October. Since then they have made five unsuccessful trips to Watersheddings although they did force a 13-13 draw here in the opening League match of the 1971-72 season.

That match in August, 1971, was full of incident and good football and was played on a fine, sunny day before a rather disappointing crowd of 1,306. The attendance was probably affected by the results of both clubs in the pre-season Lancashire Cup ties which saw Oldham losing 10-7 at Swinton whilst Barrow were surprisingly beaten 13-5 at home by Rochdale Hornets. Oldham, however, were confident of victory as the sides lined up as follows:

OLDHAM: Martin Murphy; Phil Larder, Joe Collins, Graham Starkey, Ray Clark; Wilf Briggs, Ged Smith; Ken Wilson, Kevin Taylor, Alan Ogden, Bob Irving, Arthur Daley and Jim Reynolds. Substitutes: Tommy Davies (for Starkey) and Gareth Owen (for Ogden).

BARROW: Geoff Nicholls; Brian Foster, Tom Brophy, Alan Watson, Eddie Whitehead; Peter Douglas, Frankie Jones; Mick Murphy, Eddie Thompson, Steve Hogan, Frank Harrison, George Crayston and Frank Foster. Substitutes: Keith Knight and John New (for Harrison).

Barrow, whose team had to be quickly reshuffled because of the late withdrawals of both John Cunningham and Keith Jarrett, suffered an even bigger set back when skipper Frank Foster was sent off early in the game after a touchline scuffle which led to one word too many from Foster to referee Bob Appleyard of Leeds. The dismissal, however, seemed to spur Barrow on and at half time the scores were level at 8-8. After the interval Barrow continued to dominate the game and it was not until the introduction of Gareth Owen that Oldham were able to save the game with a solo try from the young substitute. Barrow's three tries came from Brian Foster, Tom Brophy and Steve Hogan whilst Geoff Nicholls landed two goals. Bob Irving scored the first two Oldham tries and Gareth Owen's face saver and two goals from Phil Larder completed the Oldham scoring. The game ended on a rather sour note with Oldham skipper and coach Graham Starkey falling to a late tackle in front of the main stand with just minutes remaining and as he staggered off the field he was destined not to return for, although he continued to coach the side, that was his last appearance in professional rugby.

At present Barrow lie at the foot of the First Division table having won just one of their five League matches. Their "points for" tally stands at a meagre 46 and is the lowest in the League whilst only Rochdale Hornets have conceded more points. Last week Barrow suffered a humiliating 38-13 home defeat at the hands of a depleted Warrington side but the Barrow management have acted quickly in order to halt the dismal run and last week's match marked the debut of stand-off Mel Mason, a £3,500 recruit from Leeds. Mason, who won the Harry Sunderland Trophy as "man-of-the-match" in the 1975 Premiership Final, should bring the much needed flair to Barrow's back division. He began his career with Featherstone Rovers and appeared at Wembley with them in 1973 and cost Leeds £6,000 when he was transferred to Headingley in January, 1975.

Despite this excursion into the transfer market, Oldham's recent revival and the confidence gained from it should ensure another victory although it will not be easy against a Barrow side equally desperate for match points with which to climb clear of the relegation zone.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

The Supporters' Club are holding their Centenary Rugby Queen Dance in the Social Club on Thursday, 28th November. Various top football and rugby celebrities will be in attendance.

Entry forms for this contest are available from the Secretary, Mr. T. Heywood, 108 Hollinhal Street, Oldham, or in the Social Club. Tickets are available price 50p.

Other events include a Seconds' Party of well known branded goods on Tuesday, 9th November. Tickets price 15p, and a Fashion Show, Tuesday, 23rd November. Tickets price 25p.

At both these events Christmas cards and a selection of toys can be purchased.

Tickets for any of the above events can be obtained from the canteens at today's game.

RADIO MANCHESTER SPORTS QUIZ

The Supporters' Club have entered a team for the above quiz and have been drawn to play Wigan RLFC at their Social Club on Wednesday, 15th November—anyone interested in supporting the team ask for details from any member of the Supporters' Club. A coach will be provided if the demand is sufficient.

All rounds of the quiz are to be recorded so your vocal support would be most welcome.

AWAY TRAVEL

A coach will be departing from the Social Club at 6-00 p.m. next Friday to Castleford. Tickets can be obtained from any canteen or the bar behind the scoreboard during today's match.

UNDER 24 MATCH

After a break of seven years, the Great Britain Under-24 side makes its re-appearance against France at Craven Park, Hull, on Sunday, 14th November, kick-off 3-00 p.m. The eight-man Selection Committee is visiting matches on a zoned basis in preparation for the selection of the side on 27th October. It will be the first International to be staged at Craven Park for forty years.
