TRENDMOST LTD.

Trendmost Ltd., are one of the countries leading readymade Curtain Manufacturing Companies, and have their Headquarters at 49, Mere Lane, Rochdale. Although their commercial interests extend nation wide the firm is proud of its local connections and is happy to sponsor Rochdale Hornets today. At Trendmost the team is avidly supported from shopfloor to boardroom level, and we feel by offering the club this financial assistance we are helping to maintain a local tradition, in the face of ever increasing competition supplied by any number of alternative and often more widely publicised sports.

How much less rich local life would be if all spectator sports were limited to top clubs.

Rochdale Hornets is a club with a great tradition, where the enjoyment comes not only from the sport itself but from the friendliness of the spectators to whom we extend our wishes for an enjoyable match.

M.V. LAND

Managing Director.

Club News

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the Athletic Grounds for our very attractive holiday fixture against neighbours Oldham, a match being sponsored by Mr. Malcolm Land of Trendmost Ltd., curtain manufacturers of Mere Lane, Rochdale, and to whom we are most grateful.

Today's clash is very important for both Rochdale Hornets and Oldham. We, of course, need both points in our bid to take the Second Division championship. We are, at present, in third position, two points behind leaders Barrow and on the same number as Leigh, who have a superior scoring record than us. But we have two games in hand on both those clubs so we must have a great chance. However, we must travel to both Hilton Park and Craven Park so we still have a lot of work to do.

Oldham, on the other hand, are still on the fringe of the promotion race. Their handsome victory over Blackpool Borough on Sunday kept them in fifth place just two points behind Huddersfield, who are in the key fourth place. So, obviously, Oldham cannot afford to lose any more matches if they are to accompany us back into top flight.

If today's clash is anything like the Boxing Day fixture at Watersheddings then we are all in for a treat. That day Oldham were defending a 100 per cent home record and us a 100 per cent away record. In the end we triumphed, thanks to two superb tries from wingman Jimmy Johnson within minutes of each other half way through the second half. It was a great game and we hope for a repeat today.

Today's Man-of-the-Match will receive an award from Trendmost, in the form of a cheque, a little extra for the lads to play for.

There is good news for player-coach Kel Coslett on the injury front. Threequarters David Jenkins and Steve McGiffen, who have been out since January, came through strenuous fitness test in the "A" team last Friday night and are available for selection.

Club captain Alan Hodgkinson, who had to pull out of our home game with Keighley, is also keeping his fingers crossed that he will be fit to face Oldham, while Coslett himself, who has been wearing a neck support this week because of a trapped nerve, is also confident of being fit.

So, with a little bit of luck, we should be able to field a reasonable strong side for this traditional holiday game. Any late changes will be made over the public address system. And, of course, we will be wanting to steer clear of injuries today because on Monday we travel to Leigh for what could be our toughest match of the season. The lads would be grateful of all the support you can give them at Hilton Park. See you there.

Our Visitors

Today we extend a warm welcome to our old friends - and long-standing rivals - from Watersheddings. Under the shrewd coaching of Dave Cox, who once had a spell as a player at the Athletic Grounds, Oldham have always been on the fringe of the promotion race and a victory today could really give them a good chance of a return to the First Division. There are many familiar faces in the Oldham line-up. Expected to be at full-back is long-serving Martin Murphy, the former England international, while centre Phil Larder has bounced back after a series of bad injuries and was among the points against Blackpool on Sunday. Among the forwards who can be expected to give 100 per cent or more are hooker Roger O'Mahoney, Kevin Flanagan, who needs no introduction to Rochdale supporters and Brian Hughes, the hard-working Yorkshire based prop.

("ONWARD, HORNETS, ONWARD!")

Traditionally holiday clashes between Hornets and rivals Oldham are high spots in the season for the clubs respective spectators and today's meeting is no exception. In fact today's game is unusually significant for Hornets are striving to gain promotion as second division champions, whilst the Watersheddings outfit are still in with a chance of clinching fourth place behind Hornets, Barrow and Leigh.

On several past occasions clashes between the two clubs have taken on more of a civil war aspect than a rugby league match, with tensions running high, and so it is to be hoped that this does not occur this afternoon, for both teams are capable of playing open, attractive rugby. Whatever the outcome it is certain that one set of fans will be more than usually disappointed at a lost match.

The Grand National Draw in aid of Norman Brelsforde's benefit will take place next Tuesday evening, 28th March. A small number of tickets are still available so there is still a chance for you to support our efforts in respect of this popular player. They are obtainable from any Hornets official to-day.

Hornets fans who are still souvenir hunting and our visitors from Oldham should pay a visit to the souvenir shop at the rear of the main stand. Geoff Hurst and his wife Christine will be pleased to see you and the shop stocks a considerable range of items. Opening times are before and after the match and at half time.

Open throughout the game are our three tea bars serving a wide range of refreshments. The main tea bar has the widest range with pie and peas and soup as well as tea and coffee. Hot pies are of course available at all the tea bars.

SOUVENIR SHOP

Our Souvenir Shop at the rear of the main stand sells a wide range of items and is well worth a visit. The Shop is run by Geoff Hurst and his wife Christine who open up both BEFORE AND AFTER THE MATCH and AT HALF TIME.
