CLUB NOTES

Good afternoon and welcome to Alt Park.

Today our visitors are Oldham who are challenging strongly for promotion this season. At present they are in third place in the league, having picked up 16 points from 10 games and have only lost one game in that time.

At the start of the season Oldham created something of a stir when they appointed one of the largest coaching staffs the game has seen. Under manager Graham Starkey they appointed our former coach Terry Gorman, Bill Francis, Bob Welling and Brian Gartland to their coaching squad and between them they have created a team which blends experience and youth. We had an early look at this new Oldham line-up when we lost 15-3 at Watersheddings in September. That was Oldham's third consecutive victory over us as they did the double last season, winning 25-13 at Alt Park and 22-5 at Oldham.

Naturally we are hoping to end Oldham's run and if we can reproduce the form we showed in our last home game when we beat Whitehaven 23-10, then we must be in with a good chance. This was probably our best display of the season and for once were able to turn our territorial advantage into points. This match marked the debut of Alan Bailey, who is on loan from Rochdale, and he contributed a most useful performance.

Unfortunately we could not maintain our winning form when we travelled to Keighley last Sunday and a John Tabern penalty was our only reward as we went down by 17-2.

Our next home game is on December 16th when we entertain Halifax in what, incidentally, will be our last home game of the 1970's.
