WATERSHEDDINGS SURVEY

WE face a tough and important November, starting with today's game against Huddersfield in the second round of the Player's Trophy.

Hopefully, we will make a little bit of club history today because we have never appeared in the quarter-final stage of the Player's competition and that is something we are aiming for this afternoon.

Another bit of club history will be created next Sunday when newcomers Carlisle come to Watersheddings in a Second Division game and thus become the first of the three newcomers to Rugby League to play at Watersheddings.

We could attract our best league gate so far for the visit of the Cumbrian new boys, but we will not know who we play the following week until after the result of today's tie and, hopefully, Monday's quarter-final draw.

If we are not involved in the Player's Trophy we will be making our first visit to South Wales to play Cardiff at Ninian Park – and what a cracker that should be!

However, we cherish hopes that we will be playing in the third round of the Player's Trophy and if we get another home draw – to follow those in the Lancashire Cup and the first two rounds of the Player's – we could be at home on four consecutive Sundays during the month of November.

Promotion rivals Halifax are here on the 22nd and if the Carlisle game next week provides us with our best crowd to date, the Halifax game should even better that, judging by the near 5,000 gate that watched the corresponding fixture at Thrum Hall.

The month comes to an end on the 29th with our visit to Hunslet.

We reached the second round of the Player's Trophy thanks to a 21-7 win over Doncaster in which Mick Parrish kicked three goals and tries were scored by Parrish (2), Taylor and Alexander (2).

The "A" team did not play that week-end but the Colts had a pleasing 33-12 victory over Leigh at home in which Alan Platt played a star role with six goals and a try.

The other try scorers for the Colts were Paul Lowndes (2), Les Chadwick, Anthony Callaghan, Steve Dobb and Terry Lees.

Our successful run continued last Sunday when we won 17-12 at Dewsbury in poor conditions with Mick Parrish kicking four goals and tries coming from Alan Platt, Paddy Kirwan and Terry Flanagan.

There was a hard-working display from the front-row with Adrian Alexander helping to create the tries for Platt and Kirwan and Billy Harris sending in Terry Flanagan.

The other results went our way, especially the two defeats for Salford by Cardiff City and Blackpool. Coupled with Halifax's home defeat by Swinton it meant that we established a four-point lead as we prepare for our tough November.

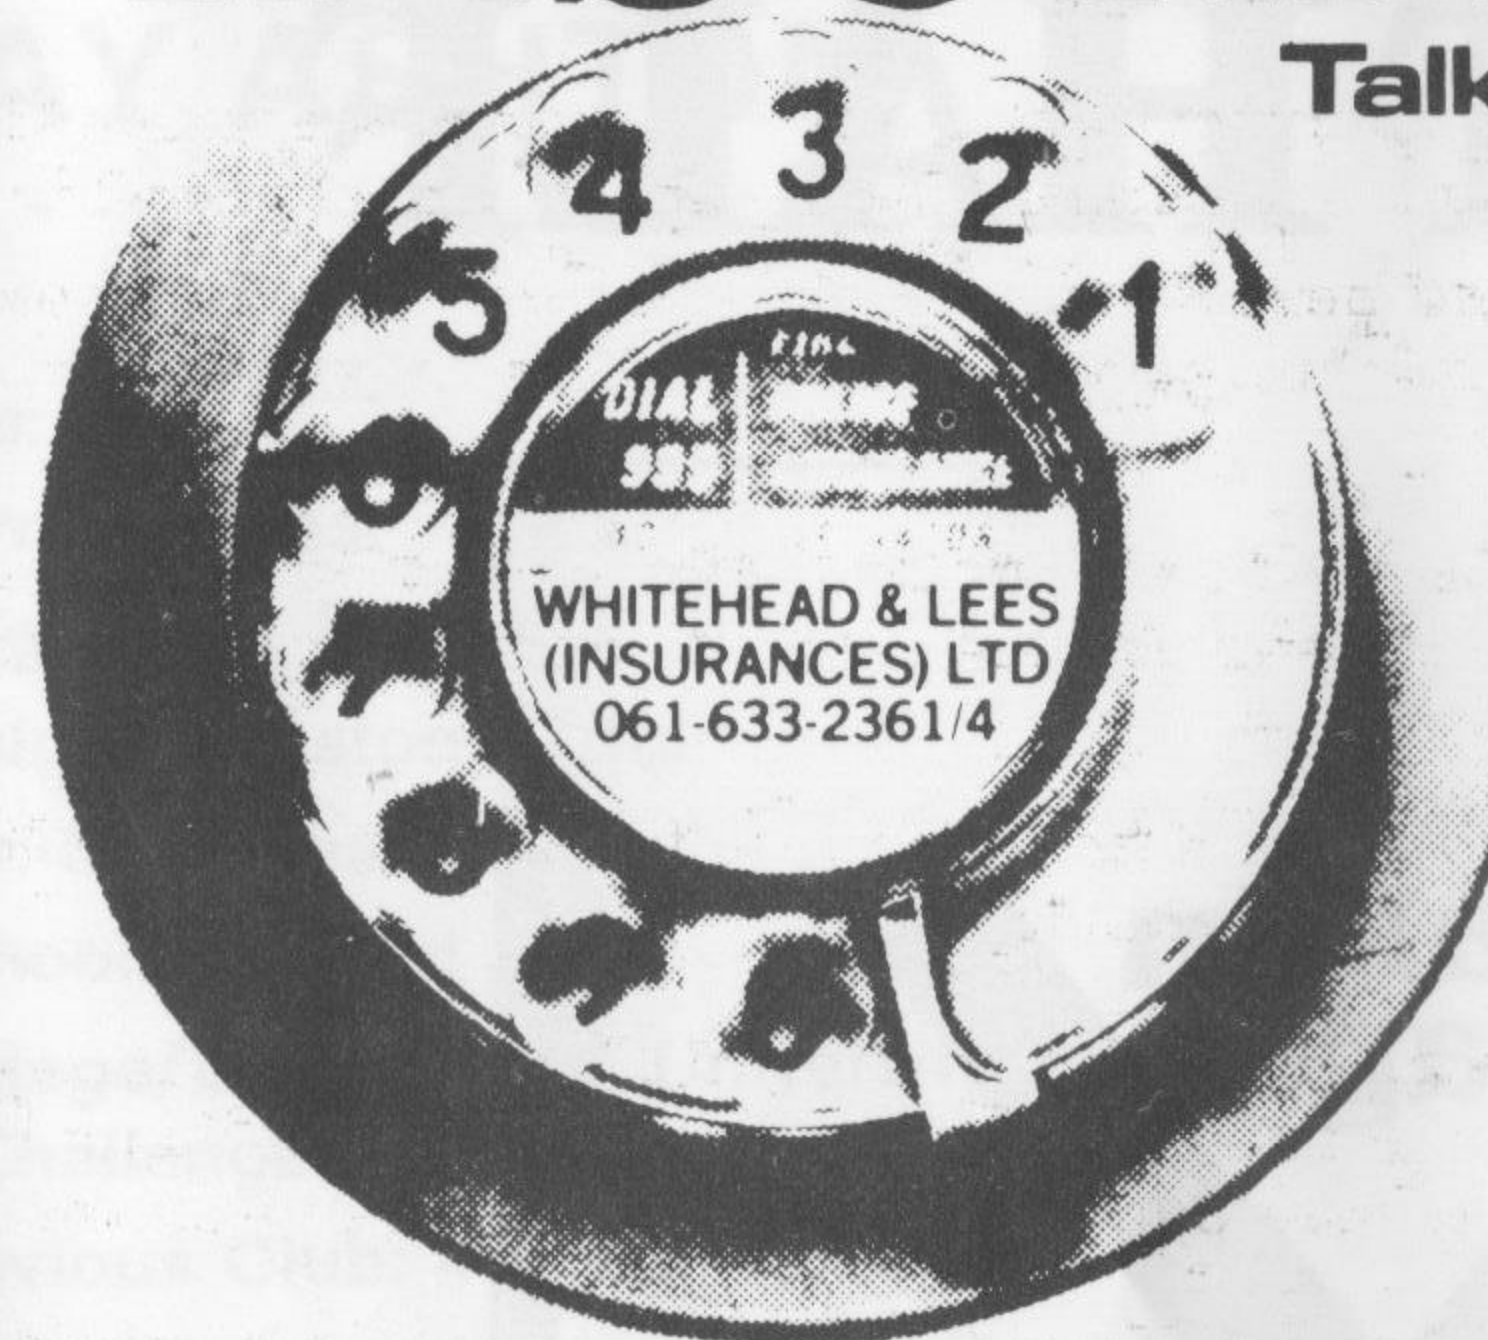

The "A" team went out of the first-round of the Lancashire Shield when beaten 11-5 at Barrow but the Colts enjoyed a splendid 16-7 home win over Hunslet with a side composed entirely of amateurs.

Swain kicked two goals and the tries were scored by a trialist stand-off, Les Chadwick, Paul Roscoe and Stuart Collinge.

To cap a splendid week-end for the Colts came the news that Oldham had five players in the Lancashire side that played Yorkshire at Hull on Wednesday – winger Stephen Dobb, prop Paul Lowndes, second-row Les Chadwick, hooker Jimmy Swain and loose-forward Alan Platt, who was also named as captain.

HUDDERSFIELD come to Watersheddings today in the second round of the Player's Trophy looking to avenge their defeat by Oldham at Fartown in a Second Division game earlier in the season.

Many changes have taken place at Fartown this season, not least the departure of coach Maurice Bamford to Wigan and the appointment of Les Sheard as player-coach.

The assistant coach Eddie Barton, the former Oldham player, who is a PE teacher at Saddleworth School.

Earlier in the season the Fartown committee made considerable efforts to strengthen their side, particularly the pack.

Props Tony Rose and Nigel Murray were recruited from Wakefield Trinity and hooker Gary Hetherington joined the Fartown staff from Leeds.

In more recent weeks, Dave Busfield has moved from Halifax to Fartown on loan and is currently playing at loose-forward.

Steve Cooper was bought from Hunslet to stiffen the second-row and there is every possibility that Jimmy Johnson, who was the sub forward when Oldham won at Fartown, will be at No. 8 today.

Johnson is on the transfer-list at £40,000 – £5,000 more than team mate Tony Johnson, who has played in the centre in the last two games and may appear again in the middle of the back line today.

Glen Knight, the former Oldham players who suffered a serious rib injury in our match at Fartown, is unlikely to play – just one of many injury blows which Huddersfield have had to endure this season.

Several players have had lengthy lay-offs through injury but one of them – winger Peter Cramp, who is listed at £20,000 – could be back soon and might be in the running for a place in the side today.

In our match at Huddersfield a slight-of-build right-winger, down in the programme as A N Other, caught the eye with a terrific turn of pace, especially when he covered across the full width of the pitch to put Phil Ward into touch.

Since then Huddersfield have signed the player, who is Terry Brearley, a player in whom the club have a lot of faith because of his speed off the mark and over distance.

Huddersfield won through to the second-round of the Player's Trophy with a home win against Huyton while we were beating Doncaster here at Watersheddings two weeks ago.

In the Second Division they won four of their first eight matches and their inconsistency is reflected in their results.

They have beaten Keighley home and away, Bramley away and Blackpool away but have lost to Rochdale home and away, Oldham at home, and Swinton at home. Last Sunday they were at Hunslet.

There is a feeling at Fartown that when injuries clear up and the side begins to click somebody is really going to catch a cold.

TRAIN TO CARDIFF

THE club are hoping to book a special train for our game against newcomers Cardiff City R.L.F.C. on Sunday, November 15th. It is important that we know the numbers of supporters who would like to travel with the team and officials for this historic game in the club's history.

As you have no doubt seen in the local Press the club will have to decide within the next few days whether they are running the train to Cardiff. It is therefore most important that any supporter interested in travelling by train gives their name to the Secretary as soon as possible. The cost will be £7.50 for adults and £3.75 for children 12 and under and O.A.Ps.

A SHORT HISTORY OF HUDDERSFIELD

by Tom Webb

It is often claimed that the birthplace of the Northern Union was the George Hotel, Huddersfield, but it is more than likely that an office in Queen Street, Oldham, which was used by Joseph Platt, the first secretary of the Union was the spot where most of the planning was done.

Huddersfield is certainly one of the oldest Rugby League clubs and it was formed a decade before the Oldham club originated. The Huddersfield Cricket and Athletic Club was formed in 1864 and a couple of years later football was played. In those days football could be either the rugby or soccer varieties. The official date of the formation of the football section was 1869 when the football enthusiasts used the grounds of Percy Learoyd one of their number (and their first president) for practice games.

The first game of note was the Liberals v Conservatives which was played at Fieldhouse in 1869 and the return game was played in March 1870. So much interest was aroused that fixtures were arranged with Leeds Grammar School and later with Hull. The club soon became a power in Yorkshire and Harry Beardsell one of their players kicked the first goal recorded by Yorkshire against Lancashire in 1871. Harry Huth was the first member of the club to play for England under Rugby Union rules and in 1875 he and his brothers Fred and Frank appeared in the Yorkshire team which met Cheshire.

The first game to be played at the famous Fartown ground was in 1878 when Manchester Rangers provided the opposition. Four years later the Football Association Challenge Cup semi-final was played there.

In 1890 Huddersfield won the Yorkshire Rugby Union Challenge Cup, (T'Owd Tin Pot) and Robert Field wrote the song "Hurrah for the Claret and Gold" to celebrate the occasion. The song is still sung in the town.

The club joined the Northern Union as a founder member and did nothing of note until November 1909 when the Yorkshire Cup was won. Two years later the club reached the top of the Yorkshire League, the club retaining the championship until the start of World War One. In three of those years the club won the Northern League championship.

Some of the crack players were Major Holland, Albert Aaron Rosenfeld (the scorer of 80 tries in a season), Harold Wagstaff (the Prince of Centres), Gleeson, Grey, Davies, Rogers, Ganley (father of our own Bernard), Longstaff, Clark, Gronow, Lee, Chilcott and Higson. J. W. Higson had played for Hunslet when they won all four cups in one season and he repeated the feat with Huddersfield.

The club has won many honours in the game, Challenge Cup winners, League Champions, Yorkshire Cup and League winners and it has produced many international and county players.

Moving on a few years we can remember other great players, Alec Fiddes, Jeff Bawden, the Pepperell brothers, Hunter, Devery, Dick Cracknell and Roland Barrow (both great Oldham favourites also), Bowden, Curran, Slevin, Rylance, Ramsden, Henderson and Mick Sullivan.

Like ourselves, Huddersfield has not been so successful in recent seasons and the great days are just memories. Still there is the potential with a great active Supporters' Club (the oldest in the game and the first to be founded) led by men of the calibre of Peter Thomas, Mike Rhodes and Cyril Hinchliffe, who carry on the great traditions of F.B. Hoyle and Wilf Stoker.

THE 1981-82 JOHN PLAYER TROPHY COMPETITION

SECOND ROUND

ONCE again it is the John Player Trophy week-end in the Rugby League and we are now at the second round stage of this £50,000 competition which is in its 11th year and is the League's longest running sponsored tournament.

After today's match all interest will turn to the draw for the quarter-finals and once again that will be a breakfast time appointment for Rugby League fans when it is made at the studios of BBC Radio Leeds tomorrow (Monday) morning at 7.50 a.m. It will be broadcast on local radio throughout the North and television during the day.

The draw for the John Player Amateur Sevens Trophy competition – in which matches are played as "curtain raisers" 30 minutes prior to the kick-off in all senior John Player games – will be made later the same day.

Quarter-final matches will be played over the week-end of 14th/15th November. Then the semi-finals and final will be played on neutral grounds on Saturday, 28th November, Saturday, 12 December, and Saturday, 23rd January respectively.

Prizemoney has been increased at all stages of the competition this season and today's losers will go away with £900. For the record five teams who have previously won the Trophy are still involved in this second round of the competition. They are Warrington (three times winner and current holders), Widnes (twice), Bradford Northern (twice), Leeds and Castleford. Only Halifax, the first winners in 1971-72 have been knocked out so far.

JOHN PLAYER AMATEUR TROPHY

Second Round St. Patrick's (Wigan) v West Hull

This curtain raiser will be played before today's game. In the event of bad ground conditions the game will be played immediately after today's game.

Public Relations Officer, Oldham Amateur Rugby League

FOLLOWING last season's successes at youth level, culminating in the town's under-19's side winning the BARLA Inter-League youth shield for the first time, the current campaign is once again being dominated by Oldham-based teams, with three local clubs having been put into the draw for the semi-finals of the BARLA Lancashire-Cumbria under-19's Cup. Waterhead, however, have to replay their quarter-final tie against Egremont following a 7-all draw at Waterhead Park last Sunday, while Saddleworth Rangers and Saint Anne's made sure of their place in the last four with convincing victories away in Cumbria.

In the quarter-finals, Rangers were away to Seaton while the Saints travelled to play Twinames, and with both grounds being less than five miles apart, the two local sides made the journey on the same coach. With Saddleworth gaining an impressive 49-2 success and with Saint Anne's gaining victory by 22 points to 6, the return journey was naturally joyful, especially when it was announced that both Oldham sides had been given home draws in the semi-finals, thus setting up the distinct possibility of an all-Oldham final. Saint Anne's will entertain the eventual winners of the Egremont-Waterhead replay, although a date has yet to be fixed for the tie, while Saddleworth will take on Wigan Saint Patrick's at Greenfield next Sunday (2.30 p.m.).

The Rangers' youngsters will have the confidence of knowing that last weekend their open-age side defeated Saint Patrick's in the quarter-final of the BARLA Forshaw's senior County Cup tournament, although Saddleworth now travel to meet Crossfields (Warrington) next Saturday in the semi-final.

A vast majority of the Saddleworth and Saint Anne's under-19s are in action at Greenfield this afternoon as the Oldham youth town-team begin their defence of that Inter-League Shield they won last term, with Leigh providing their First Round opposition. Yesterday, Leigh and Oldham were also due to meet in the open-age Inter-League competition, with victory for either side giving themselves a place in the quarter-finals of the new-style event. To allow selectors more opportunity to view possible candidates for representative honours the competition has opened with each team playing three games in a qualifying group, and with the winners of the six groups going forward together with the two best runners-up. Having already achieved convincing victories against Rochdale and Manchester, Oldham League officials were confident that should they have suffered a narrow defeat, the team's scoring difference could put them into the last eight.

The draw for the First Round of this season's Oldham Standard Cup has been made and has given holders Waterhead a home tie against Higginshaw. The remaining matches in Round One see Chadderton at home to Saint Anne's; East Ward entertaining Hollinwood; Mayfield having Fitton Hill as visitors; and Langworthy Juniors playing hosts to Abbeyhills. The matches take place on November 21st, while Saddleworth, Salem Hornets and Shaw have received byes.

The curtain raiser to this afternoon's game is one of the top matches in the Second Round of the John Player Amateur Sevens event, with the holders of the tournament, West Hull (green), facing Wigan Saint Patrick's (black). The amateur game will kick-off at 2.30 p.m. — thirty minutes prior to the senior match — with the winners entering the quarter-finals. Should the scores be tied at the end of fifteen minutes play, the first team to then score shall be the winners. Oldham's representatives in the tournament, Saint Anne's, lost 11-5 against Eastmoor (Wakefield) at Watersheddings in Round One.
