WATERSHEDDINGS SURVEY

OUR experiment in playing Batley on Athletic's soccer ground at Boundary Park, and the draw for the first round of the State Express Challenge Cup, have occupied the attention of Rugby League fans in this area over the past fortnight.

We made a little bit of local sporting history when we reached an agreement with the Athletic board of directors to beat the freeze and play Batley on the heated Boundary Park pitch two weeks ago.

Even at that stage we had a backlog of five Second Division matches and it was felt there was a lot to be gained by taking the Batley game to the soccer ground on the other side of town, rather than add to the backlog, have our players inactive again, and face another week-end without rugby for the supporters.

It was very much an experiment but, in the event, it proved a highly successful one with both ourselves and Athletic delighted at the way things went in the first of what could be similar ventures in future if circumstances demand and permit it.

The facilities were good and the crowd of more than 2,700 fully justified the switch, being well up on our average Second Division home crowd this season and roughly 900 fans up on the crowds we attracted for the visit of Doncaster and Huyton.

On top of that we won 17-9 in the only Second Division match of the day to go top of the Second Division and our new forwards Alan McCurrie and Brian Hogan had another game together in which to get used to each other before the start of the Challenge Cup.

The Oldham club wishes to place on record its appreciation of the willingness of Oldham Athletic to co-operate in a venture which further strengthens the good relationships between the clubs.

There are, of course, many factors involved in such a switch and it is not something that can be done at the turn of a knob.

However, if we once again get the sort of long-lasting freeze-up that we have all had to endure recently it is not beyond the realms of possibility that we could again go to Boundary Park.

For the record, Mick Parrish scored four goals against Batley to continue his run of having played and scored in every match this season and tries were recorded by Phil Ward, Terry Flanagan and Adrian Alexander.

Ward's try took his tally for the season to nine, to equal the haul recorded by Paddy Kirwan, while Flanagan's touch down gave him a total of five with which to share the title of leading pack scorers with Dave Nicholson.

Parrish has now kicked 73 goals, has a longer run of consecutive scoring appearances than any other player in the Rugby League, and is one of only three players to have scored in every match this season, the others being Steve Fenwick of Cardiff and Steve Diamond of Fulham.

Steve Ferres of Carlisle was a fourth but he lost his record at Keighley last Sunday when the Cumbrians scored only three tries, through Bardgett (2) and Morgan.

Twenty-four hours before the Boundary Park game there was the televised draw for the Challenge Cup and our "home" luck finally ran out when we were drawn to meet Swinton at Station Road.

After six consecutive home ties in various knock-out competitions our luck had to change some time and, sure enough, the numbers came out in such a way that we have to play Frank Myler's former club, Swinton, on their own Station Road ground next month — a clash of the beaten semi-finalists in the John Player Trophy.

Any cup tie between Swinton and Oldham is bound to attract a lot of spectator interest but even more this time because Frank and his assistant, Peter Smethurst, will be returning to take on their old pals, as will Alan Taylor and Dave Nicholson.

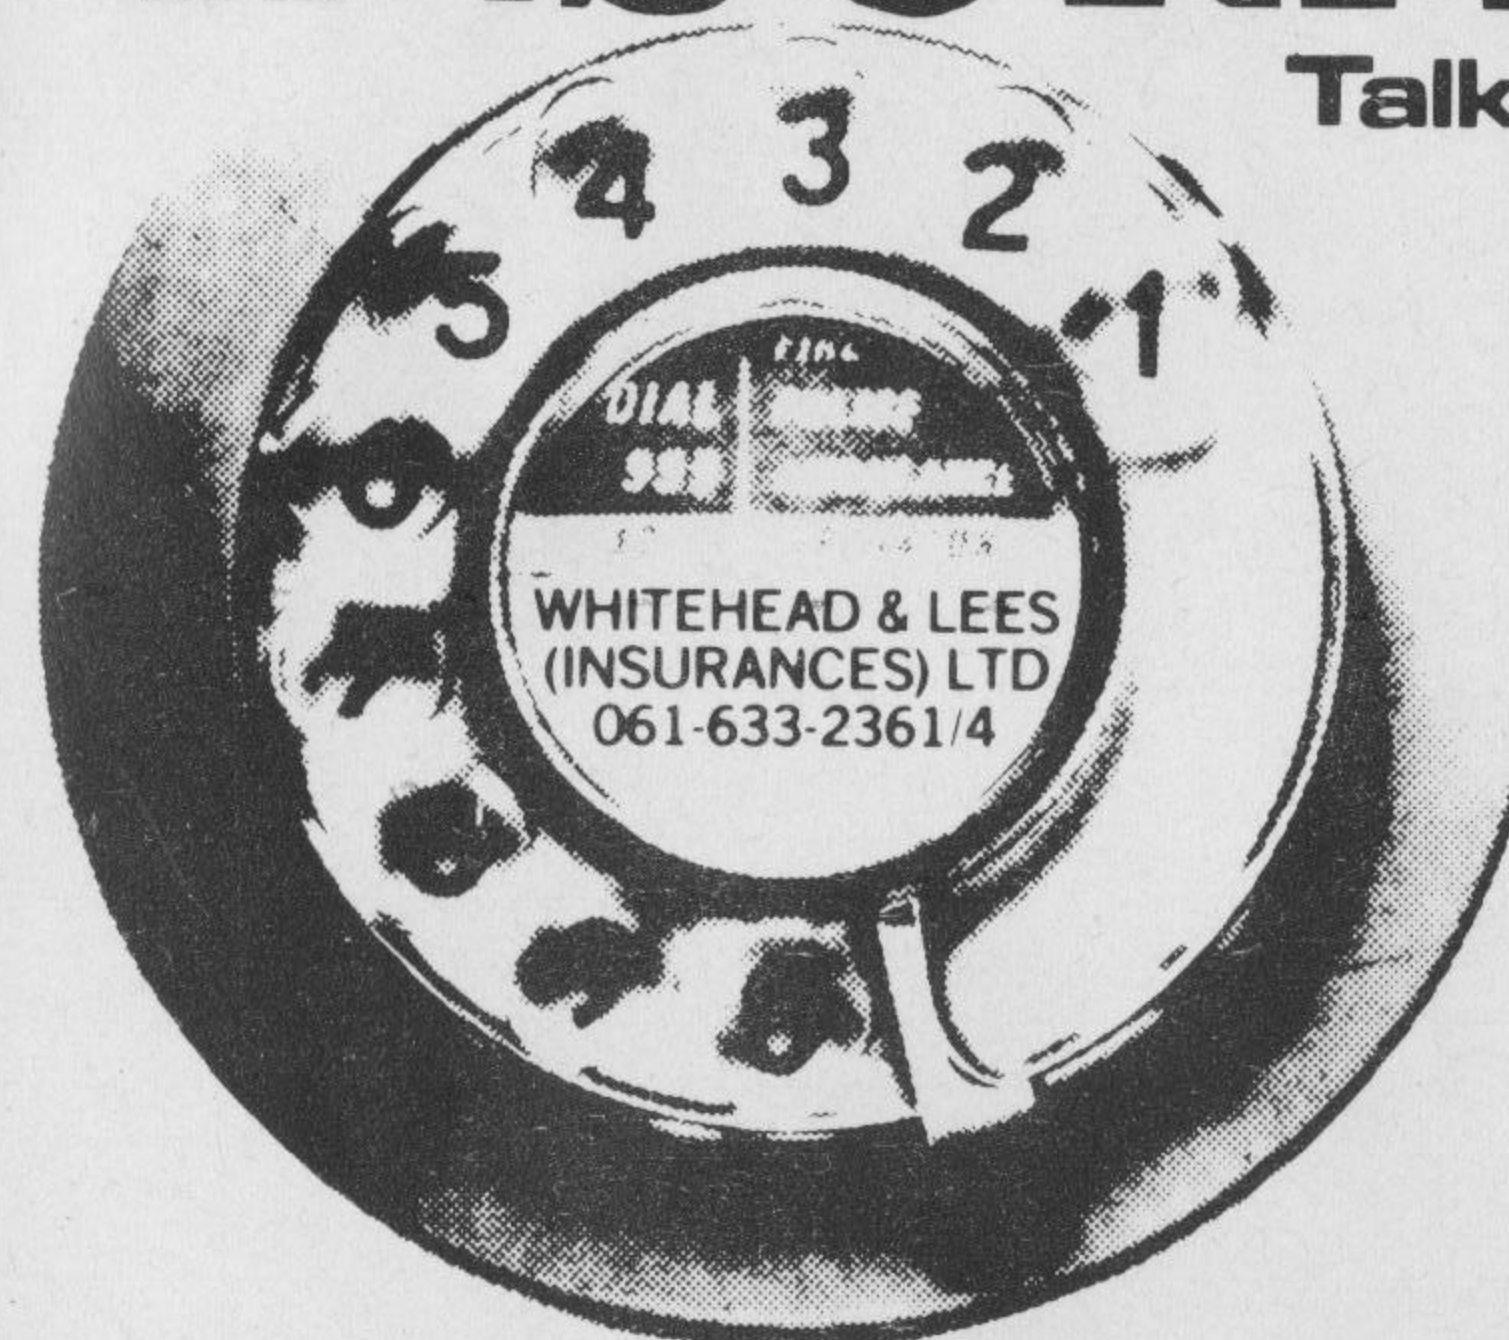

It should be a cracker: watch the press for details of tickets, etc., nearer the time and make sure you don't miss it.

Another former Swinton player in the news is Phil Ward, who has been taken off the transfer list. He was placed on offer just over a year ago but has no wish to leave — a fact that is pleasing to the coaching staff in view of the form he has displayed in running in nine tries so far this season.

Finally, congratulations to Paddy Kirwan and his wife, Debra, who gave birth to their first child — a son — in Oldham and District General Hospital just over a week ago.

TODAY'S VISITORS

WELCOME TO HUDDERSFIELD

HUDDERSFIELD will be hoping that it will be a case of third time lucky when they play at Watersheddings today because they have already been beaten twice by Oldham this season – 37-4 at Fartown in the Second Division fixture on September 20th, and 13-0 at Watersheddings in the second round of the John Player Trophy on November 1st.

In the victory at Fartown in the league, Huddersfield fielded a below-strength side and though they held Oldham at 12-4 at half-time, Frank Myler's men turned it on in the second-half to finish comfortable winners and record the club's highest total on an opponent's ground for several years.

Mick Parrish kicked eight goals and seven tries were scored by Ray Ashton (3), Paddy Kirwan, Phil Ward, Mick Worrall and Alan Taylor.

It was a different story several weeks later when the Fartown men brought a stronger side to Watersheddings in the Player's Trophy, produced some good early football, and gave Oldham a few frights before going down 13-0. Oldham had a half-time lead of only 3-0 and in the end their 13 points came from two goals by Parrish and tries by Brian Caffery, Dave Nicholson and Andrew Goodway.

Things have not gone Huddersfield's way this season, and in the Second Division, they have won only six of their 15 matches, their latest defeat being a heavy reverse at Workington last Sunday when both their props, Tony Rose and Jimmy Johnson, were sent off and player-coach Les Sheard was carried off with a leg injury to make matters even worse.

Injuries have seemed to hit Huddersfield hard this season. Indeed, in our league win at Fartown, former Oldham player Glen Knight damaged his ribs and was out of action for several weeks afterwards.

Sheard took over as boss at the start of the current campaign, despite strong competition for the job from former Oldham player Clive Sullivan, and he has as his assistant another player well known locally and here at Watersheddings – Eddie Barton.

The Huddersfield committee were very active in the transfer market early in the season, especially in rebuilding their pack, and more recently they have been strongly in the hunt for full back Jimmy Birts, the Wigan and former Halifax goal kicker and full back.

It looked at one stage as though Huddersfield were set to pay a club record fee for Yorkshireman Birts, though the deal was still in the air at the time these notes were written.

Our own Oldham side will have changed considerably since the last two outings against the Yorkshiremen this season.

Neither Alan McCurrie nor Brian Hogan were in the pack in those games and the Oldham teams were as follows:

At Fartown – Taylor; Ward, McEwen, Parrish, Caffery; Ashton, Kirwan; Alexander, O'Mahoney, Harris, Herbert, Nicholson, Worrall. Subs: Hunter, Goodway.

At Watersheddings – Murphy; O'Neill, McEwen, Parrish, Caffery; Ashton, Kirwan; Alexander, Cook, Nicholson, Goodway, Worrall, Flanagan. Subs: Taylor, Platt.

Before any matches which may have taken place during the last week – rearranged because of all the postponements during the big freeze – Huddersfield were in a mid-table position on the same number of points, 12, as Rochdale Hornets and Bramley.

They were involved last Sunday in one of only two games to take place in the Second Division, Workington beating the Fartown men at Derwent Park and Keighley going down at home to one of our chief rivals for promotion and the Second Division title – Carlisle.

The Carlisle win put them back to the top on a slightly better scoring difference than Oldham.

Workington's win by more than 30 points not only knocked Huddersfield's defensive record but also gave the Cumbrians a boost in the scoring charts which could come in mighty handy before the promotion race is all over.

It makes it all the more important that Oldham continue to pick up league points in style, but Huddersfield will no doubt be out today to make amends for those two previous defeats this season and for their heavy reverse last Sunday at Derwent Park.

ACTION FROM OUR MATCH AGAINST BATLEY

Photographs by courtesy of Oldham Evening Chronicle

Stop me if you can. Adrian Alexander heads for the line against Batley to score our third try.

Terry Flanagan pushes off a last-ditch tackle to cross for our second try in a 17-9 win over Batley at Boundary Park.

History in the making as the rugby posts go up at Boundary Park for our match against Batley — the first professional R.L. game on the Athletic's ground.

CHALLENGE CUP

by Brian Batty (Daily Mail)

THERE is one thing that the Challenge Cup is guaranteed to produce on the way to Wembley – and that is throw up several ties to capture the imagination every round.

This year's State Express sponsored competition has certainly got off to a great start in that respect.

If the game's most recent newcomers – Carlisle and Cardiff City – had been left to choose their opponents in the first round they could hardly have bettered the draw.

Carlisle, having climbed to the head of the Second Division under Alan Agar's shrewd guidance, take on Yorkshire Cup winners Castleford.

Living almost next door to Wheldon Road, in Featherstone, coach Agar knows almost as much about Mal Reilly's men as he does his own.

And there cannot be much for Cardiff's manager Dave Watkins to learn about Cup holders Widnes before they arrive for the tie at Ninian Park.

Widnes, with their record in the Cup over the last decade and a side crammed with internationals, will surely pull in Union fans for this clash.

Also in the Second Division there is not doubt at Keighley's delight in landing such attractive opposition as Barrow and Bramley's satisfaction at entertaining Wakefield Trinity.

Swinton's clash with Oldham possesses many interesting features but Salford will not relish the trip to Hull as much as the prospect of a big crowd.

But when it comes down to the bone-jarring crunch of derby encounters then Leigh v Warrington and St. Helens v Wigan have everything to offer.

You can point to half a dozen reasons why each of these two ties should produce the thrills and drama for which the Cup is famous.

York have so many links with Headingley that they will be looking forward to the visit of Leeds along with a big attendance.

There is no reason why Halifax and Huddersfield should not pull in the fans as well for their derby clash.

Bradford Northern will have no complaints about having Dewsbury making the short trip to Odsal as they sit back and watch their rivals tackle stiffer ties.

Whitehaven remains one place many teams have learnt to regret visiting and neither Hull KR nor Featherstone Rovers can relish the prospect of travelling there this time.

MORE HISTORICAL NOTES ABOUT HUDDERSFIELD

by Tom Webb

HUDDERSFIELD in the period just before and after World War One were almost invincible. The team contained many great players and developed rugby football to a fine art.

The "Prince of Centres" was the title bestowed upon Harold Wagstaff who had been signed for five guineas as a boy of fifteen. Another local was Moorhouse. Yet another great star was Tom Gleeson from Sydney, Australia, who was a fellow countryman of Albert Aaron Rosenfeld. The latter scored 80 tries in one season and 77 in another.

The great era started in 1909 when three backs, Rosenfeld, Moorhouse and Grey were signed and three forwards, Clark, Higson and Walsh were also introduced to the team.

John Willie Higson and Tommy Grey cost the club £50 each and Jim Davies cost £140 in gold. There were great cries of protest about the club spending its members' money so recklessly. Ben Gronow joined the club in 1910, Tommy Gleeson a year later and Fred Longstaff in 1913. Edgar Wrigley of New Zealand had been signed following the first tour of the New Zealanders in 1907-08. Edgar had played senior Rugby Union football for Masterton at the age of 15 just as "Waggy" did for Huddersfield.

Major Holland, Johnny Rogers, Bert Ganley and Aaron Lee were also signed about this historic period. The whole world of rugby was scoured for players, Australia, New Zealand, Wales and England while the home produced products were as good as any. The whole side had one thought, "Get into condition first or all the moves in the world are no use."

Rosenfeld, "Roszy" whom I knew long after his retirement was a member of the Jewish race but he forsook the faith. He had a secular funeral in Huddersfield some years ago. He said: "It was a freak football side that may never come again. Every man knew the football of the others. There were no real stars. We believed every player was as good as the next".

He thought that Brian Bevan might be the man to break his try scoring record and after Bevan retired he thought that Tom Van Vollenhoven might do so. Neither of them smashed the record and the little man of 5ft. 5¾ins., weighing no more than 12 stones built up a bag of tricks to compensate for his lack of inches. He was timed at 10.5 seconds for the 100 yards.

"Waggy" was superb. He led Britain to victory in the Battle of Spion Kop when the side defeated the Australians in a test down under to win the ashes, although only having ten men on the field at the finish and one of those just stayed on to get in the way of the Australians.

Doug Clark specialised in Cumberland and Westmorland wrestling in which he was a champion. Rogers was the fastest man over 60 yards and his bursts from the scrum won many matches.

Ben Gronow set up the record of 150 goals in a season in 1914-15 and his total of 723 goals in a career was never threatened until Frank "Spanky" Dyson started kicking goals for the Fartown club from the full back position. Gronow, like his sons, Peter and Gwynne, played in the forwards.
