Saints Club News

Once again a new season is with us, Knowsley Road is again spruced up for the start. We are indebted to the Saints Supporters Club for the renovations carried out to the scoreboard which was very much overdue. Contractors M. & M. Builders also deserve our gratitude for the excellent job they have done in having things ready for the season's start.

Our League programme starts off next Sunday with a difficult match against Champions Leigh at Hilton Park. The following Wednesday (25th August) sees the first League match of the season at Knowsley Road when we entertain Bradford Northern.

FORSHAWS LANCASHIRE CUP NEWS

Don't forget the 1st Round Draw will take place on Wednesday, 18th August. Details will be published in the Press the same day.

TEAM NEWS

Saints still appear to be having their problems at front-row with Mel James suffering another set back after the Testimonial game last week. Roger Owen still requires another couple of weeks to reach full match fitness after his close season cartilage operation. This means that the front row positions are very much wide open and gives opportunities for Mick Hope, Brian Gelling and Tony Bolton to stake early claims. No such problems in the back-row where Gary Moorby, Peter Gorley and Harry Pinner are favourites to fill the three positions. In support and contending strongly for places are Gary Bottell and new signing Andy Platt who has looked an excellent prospect in pre-season games. Roy Mathias has also already shown that he means to figure in the first team line-up by his display against Pilkington Recs last week.

In the backs John Butler looked most impressive at full-back and could have earned himself the No. 1 shirt this afternoon. Barrie Ledger heads the contestants for the wing positions with Kevin Meadows and Denis Litherland also likely to come into the reckoning. Centres Chris Arkwright and Roy Haggerty should be almost automatic choices, as will half-backs Holding and Peters who have the potential to become one of the best pair of half-backs in the League.

1. The versatility of glass-fibre is shown in this Boosey and Hawkes clarinet, made in an advanced glass/nylon composite — an alternative to traditional, hard-to-work African blackwood.

2. More than 600 companies world wide are licensed by Pilkington to exploit the versatility of Cemfil AR glass fibre — the first glass fibre capable of reinforcing highly alkaline Portland cement. The Santiago Bernabeu stadium in Madrid, which staged this year's World Cup final, has a completely new facade using almost 20,000 square metres of Glass Reinforced Cement (GRC).

3. At Pilkington, we've been concentrating a lot of our research and development effort on devising products that will enable you to use more of the heat you pay for. Fibreglass Dritherm slabs for cavity wall insulation in new buildings, for instance, and a complete range of insulation products for the rapidly expanding field of timber frame construction.

4. The Fiberlase 100 Medical Laser, made by Barr & Stroud, a member of the Pilkington Group, is now being marketed throughout the world.

Four reasons why we top the table!

Supporters Club Notes

This afternoon we start the new season with the now traditional Charity game against newly promoted Oldham, under the leadership of former Saints player Frank Myler. Oldham ended last season as Second Division Champions playing the type of rugby that befitted their former glories. I am sure they will be looking forward to establishing themselves in the First Division and hopefully will not be branded as a yo-yo club. They have a sprinkling of local talent including Brian Hogan and Dave Nicholson who no doubt will be out today trying to impress their home town club.

I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Supporters' Club to extend to Billy Benyon our new Coach our good wishes and hope that this season is the first of many successful ones at Knowsley Road.

Next Sunday we start our League Campaign against Leigh the First Division Champions on their own ground kick-off 3.30 p.m. We are running our usual coach service to all away games and you can reserve your seat before or after today's game by calling at the Club Shop.

We are also taking bookings for the Hull K.R. game on Sunday, 29th August. SO DON'T DELAY BOOK YOUR SEAT TODAY.

We are currently in the process of compiling a Supporters' Club Team Book 1982/83 which we hope will be available early in September. This book is full of useful information for Saints Supporters' in fact it is a must for All Rugby Fans. We still have some advertising space left and if you are interested in this magazine, please contact the Club shop or ring Ian Cartwright on, Marshall Cross 812865 for further details.

The Club Shop is now well stocked for the coming season with a varied selection of items as well as the old programmes section, and we open on match days and Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings 6.30 p.m.—8.00 p.m.

OUR COACH.

We welcome Billy Benyon back to Knowsley Road, as the new coach and his assistant Peter Gartland, the Directors would like to place on record their appreciation to Bill Boycott for his services to the Club over a very long period and to recognise this they have made Bill a Life Member. It is hoped to see Bill on many occasions and that he will be closely involved in the activities of the Club.

"A" TEAM.

The "A" team start the season with a pre-season friendly at Wigan on Tuesday, 17th August, kick-off 7.30 p.m. followed by the opening League game on Friday, 20th August when they entertain Leigh "A", kick-off 7.30 p.m.

Today's Charity Game

A warm welcome again to our visitors from Oldham for the 5th consecutive Charity Match between the two clubs. Oldham broke the 3 match winning run of Saints last season when defeating them 12 points to 8 at Watersheddings. The pre-season games have usually provided plenty of fast entertaining rugby and today's game should be no exception. Both clubs are likely to field teams showing little material change in their playing line-ups from last season, although one or two outstanding youngsters in both camps are forcing their way into the first team reckoning.

Oldham will again be led by skipper Terry Flanagan who at 21 is entering his 3rd season as skipper. In addition to being a superb leader Flanagan is one of the games outstanding loose forwards being an excellent handler and creator of openings.

Experience is provided in the Oldham pack by Brian Hogan who was signed from Widnes last year and Cumbrian hooker Alan McCurrie who was signed from Wakefield.

Gareth Owen, son of former Leigh and Saints star Stan Owen, will likely make-up the front row. In the second row competition is extremely strong with likely contenders being Union captures Adrian Alexander and Bob Mordell with Alan Platt (an outstanding performer on the recent Gt. Britain tour of Australia) sure to push hard for a place.

At full-back Alan Taylor took over from the long serving Martin Murphy for much of last season, but some doubt exists about who will play today because Taylor is due to return from a trip to Canada shortly before the game.

In the threequarters Brian Caffrey and Mick Parrish will probably start at centre with Jeff Munro and Phil Ward favourites to fill the wing positions.

Mick Parrish last season continued to be a prolific points scorer and amassed 379 points for his club. He again scored in every match and eventually finished with 164 goals and 17 tries.

Two youngsters pushing hard for first team places are Gt. Britain Colts wingman Steve Dobb and probably the outstanding talent at present at Watersheddings Andrew Goodway. This talented back-row forward from the Castleford area has already got several 1st team games under his belt and is highly thought of by all good judges at Oldham.
