WATERSHEDDINGS SURVEY

WE could not wish for a better fixture than Leeds to provide our first evening game of the new season at Watersheddings and when you meet Widnes and Leeds within the space of four days you certainly know that you are in the First Division!

There will, of course, be several Wednesday evening matches here over the course of the next few weeks while the weather is, hopefully, mild and warm.

On Sunday we play Bradford at Odsal (3.30 kick-off) and the following Sunday, September 5th, is reserved for the first round of the Forshaw's Lancashire Cup.

The Wednesday after that, September 8th, will house the second round of the Lancashire Cup in a major change to the early season fixtures arrangement.

In recent years the first and second rounds of the county cup competitions were held at the start of the season, but this was not entirely satisfactory for several reasons.

To start with, there was something in the argument that by playing county cup-ties before the start of the league programme, it tended to de-value the ties and at the same time remove the impact from the opening fixtures in the league programme.

Moreover, a side going out of the county cup at the first hurdle suddenly found itself with a blank Sunday almost as soon as the season had unfolded.

There is every chance that this new fixture planning will be received well throughout the game by officials and spectators alike.

It provides us with the chance of another Wednesday night match in round two at a time when evening rugby is usually well received and then we have two further Wednesday night dates with the visit of the French XIII to Watersheddings on September 22nd and the visit of Featherstone Rovers on the following Wednesday, September 29th.

The French, gearing up for their Tests against the Australians later in the year, will be in this country to play three club sides and we were delighted to accept an invitation to be one of them.

Gate receipts will be split 50-50 between the Oldham club and the French League and, with what will be virtually a Test side in action here, we feel it will be interesting for players and spectators alike.

Indeed, our fixtures this season look very attractive. The top First Division sides will be here regularly but, just as important, on most occasions we will avoid clashes on the same week-end with both Oldham Athletic and Rochdale Hornets.

Last season, you will recall, we were invariably at home on the Sunday when Athletic had played at Boundary Park the previous day.

We believe there are still a fair number of sports fans in the town who watch both clubs, or who perhaps "float" between the two depending on the matches concerned. Equally, it is highly likely in these difficult financial times that many people would think twice about watching professional sport twice on the same weekend.

We informed the Rugby League that we believed we had lost a lot of vital revenue last season by clashing with Athletic and, to our satisfaction, we see that such clashes do not happen this season.

Finally, may we offer congratulations to two of our players Terry Flanagan and Ray Ashton who were included in the Lancashire squad at the end of last season.

Terry played twice for the county against Yorkshire at Leigh and Cumbria at Workington while Ray was a member of the squad that travelled to Derwent Park.

Congrats, too, to hooker Alan McCurrie, who retained his place in the Cumbrian team and had an excellent game against the Red Rose boys.

CLASSY LEEDS ARE HERE

Ask a dozen Rugby League fans to name a handful of clubs who have produced the best football in the last 20 years and it is a banker bet that Leeds would be among them.

The Headingley outfit, this evening's visitors to Watersheddings, have always prided themselves on producing entertaining, crowd-pleasing football and they have never been far from the honours in post-war football.

Last season they finished in sixth place in the First Division with 17 wins from their 30 matches and only four clubs scored more points than coach Robin Dewhurst's men, who romped in for a total of 514 points, conceding 418.

Leeds were, of course beaten here at Watersheddings, in the third round of the John Player Trophy last November, so they will certainly be out for revenge in this our second home game of the new season.

Like most clubs in these difficult times, Leeds have not been particularly active in the transfer-market during the close season and their staff for 1982-83 will be very similar to the last season's.

A notable departure from Headingley was that of former Test winger John Atkinson, a brilliant Leeds player over many seasons, who has gone to Carlisle as assistant player-coach to Mick Morgan.

Former Leeds player and Hunslet coach Drew Broatch has returned to Headingley as 'A' team boss and, under his command, he will have two of the amateur captures made by Leeds in recent weeks Peter Burke, brother of forward Tony, and centre Paul Gill, a highly-rated player from Bradford amateurs Clayton, who starred on last summer's BARLA tour to the South Pacific.

Another recent signing who is expected to really make his mark in the 'A' team at Leeds this season is former England Colts RU player Kevin Squire, a 20-year-old second-row forward, whom Leeds believe has the footballing skill to go right to the top.

Squire hails from the unlikely-sounding background of Barnstaple club RU club but don't let that kid you! Leeds expect that a lot will be heard of the boy over the next two or three years.

He is one of several promising youngsters gathered together at Headingley, among the scrum-half Mark Conway, a star in Leeds recent sevens triumph at Wigan, and half-backs Andy and Ian MacIntosh.

Conway and the MacIntosh boys will be pushing the experienced pair of Kevin Dick and John Holmes as the season unfolds, but such is the influence of Holmes and Dick on the Leeds side that the youngsters will have to produce something special to oust them.

In the back line one can expect former colts player Mark Massa and ex-Halifax RU man Andy Smith to make their mark on the wings with Test man Les Dyl and Dave Heselwood again featuring prominently in the centre positions.

A strong and mobile pack boasts such names as current Test -squad hooker David Ward, the Rayne twins, David Heron at loose-forward, and Tony Burke and Steve Hitchford in the front row.

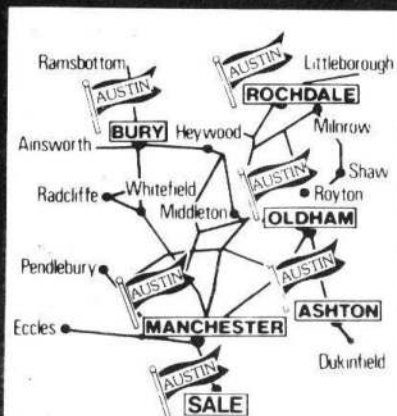

The Leeds side is undoubtedly a neat blend of youth and experience, pace, power and skill and the Headingley men are certainly worthy opponents tonight at what will be the first of several Wednesday evening matches at Watersheddings over the next few weeks.

DRAW AT ST. HELENS

It's a long time since an Oldham side picked up anything from a game against St. Helens at Knowsley Road, but it happened in the pre-season friendly this time when we drew 15-15 ...and would have won but for a try in the last minute by the Saints young forward Andy Platt.

It was an encouraging Oldham display in which Mick Parrish kicked four goals from four shots, Ray Ashton dropped a goal, and Alan McCurrie and Andy Goodway scored tries.

Saints led 5-0 thanks to an interception try by Neil Holding, but they did not score again until 16 minutes from the end, by which time Oldham led 10-5.

They drew level at 10-10 before Andy Goodway scored a terrific try which, goaled by Mick Parrish, gave Oldham a 15-10 lead.

There were only seconds left when Platt scored his second try for Saints to level the scores with a Harry Pinner goal.

The St. Helens people were generally agreed that Oldham were the better footballing side and that we deserved to win.

Considering it was the first match of the season it was certainly an encouraging display for the long, hard season of First Division fare that lies ahead.

'A' TEAM GO DOWN

For the second successive season, our 'A' team was recently beaten by the Oldham Amateur League side. This time we lost 11-8, but there will be no complaints if the 'A' team repond as they did last year when they went on to finish as runners-up in the Lancashire Combination.

The 'A' team did not play well on the night, though they did score two tries on the amateurs' one. Let's hope history repeats itself and we are up there again in the hunt for Combination honours come the end of the season.

COLTS GOOD SHOW

The Oldham colts put up a good show in their opening league match at Wakefield despite losing 27-11. They were very much in the game until the later stages against a Trinity side that contained three players who were in the squad for the first team's pre-season friendly against Leigh.

Considering this was the first match for a new side, our display was an encouraging one and augurs well for the 34-match programme ahead.

However, we face the biggest fixture list ever assembled for the colts' football and extend an invitation to all players who will be under-19 on September 1st to come and join us. Our door is open...do come and join us.

For the record our tries at Wakefield were scored by Johnny Morris, Chris Wilkinson and Keith Atkinson, who also landed a goal.

There is a highly-competitive season ahead for the colts with matches every Saturday, and the odd one or two games in mid-week. There are cup-ties, representative county games and internationals ...a great opportunity, in fact, for any young player who fancies his chances at this level of competition.

LANCASHIRE CUP DRAW

The first draw took place at Haydock Racecourse last Wednesday for the first round of the Forshaw's Lancashire Cup and we were paired to play Blackpool Borough at Borough Park on Sunday, September 5.

The full draw is: Warrington v Huyton, Carlisle v Whitehaven, Blackpool v OLDHAM, Leigh v Rochdale Hornets, Fulham v Swinton, Widnes v St. Helens, Workington v Barrow and Wigan v Salford.

The tournament is worth a record £11,500 with the winners receiving £3,000.

BRIAN BATTY Daily Mail

This is not a cue for a song but it only seems yesterday since we were holding our breath as last season breezed into memorable phase of 'extra time.'

Now, before we can blink, the Australians will be descending on us for those eagerly awaited Dominion Insurance Test encounters with Great Britain.

At the moment though the mind is still occupied with Hull's historic triumph at an electrified Elland Road, Widnes surging to the Premiership Trophy and Leigh taking the League title amid wild scenes on the Cumbrian coast.

There were many stirring chapters in a marathon season and it would have been impossible to have scripted a more dramatic finish to those competitions which provided such compelling television.

Sad to think it will all be forgotten within a few weeks as the battle begins for precious Slalom Lager championship points with hopes for a repeat of those nerve jangling bids for honour.

It seems that almost every season over the last decade has been heralded as the most critical both financially and competitively.

And while the Dominion Insurance Test series is going to dominate the scene until Christmas there is no doubt that survival is the name of the game for a lot more clubs this time.

This could be disputed in that the domestic scene has not apparently suffered since Britain were whitewashed in the 1979 series.

But certainly if the tours are to survive then Britain have to launch a mighty challenge to regain the trophy they last held in 1970.

We saw how powerful the Kiwis emerged on their last tour here and yet attendances for the two Test series in Australia this summer failed to total 30,000.

So what price Britain pulling in any fans Down Under in two years' time if we don't win back our pride and respect in the coming series.

HISTORICAL NOTES ON LEEDS

By Tom Webb

Bill Bowes, the Yorkshire cricketer turned sportswriter, in an article in the Yorkshire Evening News in March 1960 said that 'There is a contention in cricket that when Yorkshire is strong, England is strong. Similarly in the Rugby League code that when Leeds is strong the game prospers in Yorkshire'. We could have said that about Oldham and Lancashire before 1930 and in our great period in the late 1950's.

Bill mentioned some of the Leeds 'greats' which included Dinny Campbell, Eric Harris, Jeff Moore, Frank O'Rourke, Vic Hey and Chimp (Joe) Busch from Australia and Dai Jenkins, Dicky Williams and Lewis Jones from Wales. They represent only a tythe of the great names associated with the Leeds club.

Looking at the administrative side, I remember some wonderful characters who have given so much to the club and game. George Ibbetson, W. H. ('George') Hirst, Alf Rutherford, Ken Dalby, Bill Carter, Harry Jessop, Joe Warham our former star winger and others spring to mind. The club has been well served by its officers.

The Leeds St. John's club formed about 1870 was taken over as the Leeds team when Headingley was first secured, the amber and blues becoming the football section of the Leeds Cricket, Football and Athletic Company in 1890-91. The Saints had played at the nearby Cardigan Fields, and as Headingley was not quite ready for the first game that was actually staged at Cardigan Fields.

Leeds played their first game at Headingley on September 20 1890 when Manningham were the opponents. Playing in terra cotta and green jerseys, Leeds won by one dropped goal and one try to nil.

When the historic meeting to form the Northern Union took place, the Leeds club was represented by Messrs. Sewell and Connell. This meeting was held two days prior to the actual first meeting of the new body in the George Hotel, Huddersfield. Much of the preparatory work had taken place in Joseph Platt's office in Oldham, of course. He was the first secretary of the Northern Union. At Leeds there was some opposition to the move and in October 1895 a meeting was held where a vote of confidence in the club committee was carried by 66 votes to 18.

Highlights over the seasons, chosen at random, reveal many points of interest. A third round Rugby Union cup-tie in April 1892 attracted an attendance of 27,654. Of course in those days men were glad to get out of their homes for a bit of relaxation. There was no home entertainment such as radio or television.

In that season J. H. Potter kicked twelve goals in a match. His feat was subsequently equalled by Ernest Pollard and Bert Cook. The 31 points scored in one game by Lewis Jones in 1956 has stood the test of time.

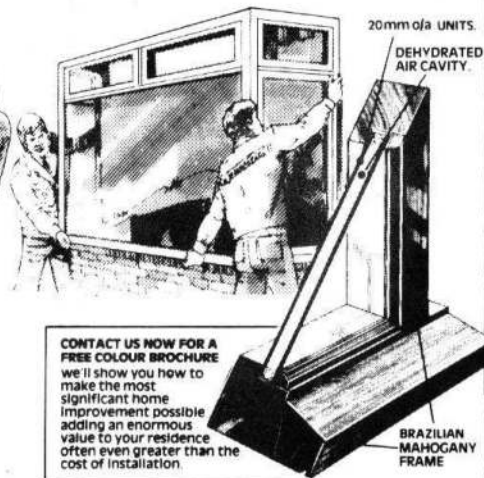

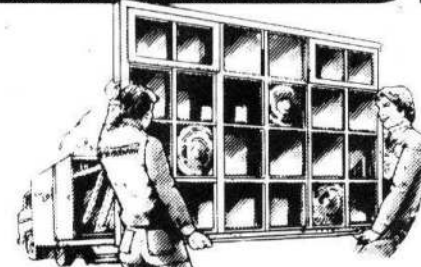

When the John Player League Year Book were published, the largest transfer fee paid by the club was £13,500 to Hunslet for B. Shaw. The highest fee received was for Jeff Stevenson when he moved to York. The same year book gives the ground capacity as 38,000 with a record attendance of 40,175 in 1947. As more seating is introduced ground capacity lowers just as spectator convenience improves.

The club's record score, 102-0 versus Coventry put paid to the career of the Midlands club. Every Leeds player scored in that game. The record defeat was at the hands of Wakefield Trinity in 1945 when the opposition ran up 71 points without reply.

When Huddersfield won all four cups in 1915 they defeated Leeds in the Championship final in which the Loins were making their first appearance. On the only occasion that the Cup final was played in the north since the move to Wembley, Leeds defeated Swinton at Wigan by 11-8.

Eric Harris, the 'Toowoomba Ghost' scored a record 63 tries for the club in 1935-36. One of his contemporaries in the threequarter line was name-sake Fred Harris from Leigh. Their partnership on the right flank was one of the decisive factors which led to Leeds winning the Challenge Cup final at Wembley in 1935-36. On that celebrated occasion the crowd of 51,250 was 10,000 more than at any previous match in this country under the auspices of the Rugby Football League. The receipts, £7,200 were the record takings at any game up to that date.
