OUR VISITORS

A very big welcome today to Oldham, one of the two clubs currently above us in the First Division table, for a match the result of which is certain to have a vital bearing on the eventual outcome of the league positions.

Oldham have been this season's First Division pace makers, after finishing in mid-table for the last two seasons. Apart from a couple of Second Division Championships they have not had a major trophy at the Watersheddings since the glory days of the 'fifties with ex K.R. favourite Derek Turner, and the club harbour hopes that this season will bring some tangible evidence of success.

It is perhaps inevitable that before long they will be dubbed "The 'A' Team" following the outcome of negotiations for a very lucrative sponsorship deal with a local truck company which will see the team turning out with the company's emblem, a big letter 'A', on the front of their jerseys.

Aiming for success the club re-appointed Frank Myler to take charge towards the end of last summer's Australian tour, in the new role of General Manager. Former Great Britain Tour captain Frank had left the club 18 months earlier to take the post of Great Britain coach. More recently he has been given full charge of fund raising and commercial matters in addition to overall control of football. His right hand man is Brian Gartland, who had been coach during the latter stages of last season when he stepped in following the resignations of Peter Smethurst and Frank Barrow. He continues as coach with Myler the supremo as Manager.

The club had five representatives on the Australian tour earlier this year - six if we include Frank Myler - and they have a young side with a lot of players in the early 20's blended with experience in vital positions. They were heading the First Division table when we defeated them comprehensively at the Watersheddings recently before their highest attendance (7,547) at a home league game since the re-introduction of two divisions in 1973, though we must not forget that last season we were fortunate to salvage one point from Oldham's visit to Craven Park.

Alan Taylor: Full back. Captain of the side, a thorough professional and a big influence on the other players. He had been signed from Swinton at the start of the 1981-82 season, one of Frank Myler's first signings for the club. Now back at Watersheddings after taking a teaching appointment in the Bahamas, he damaged knee ligaments in a recent game whilst turing out at loose forward during a pack crisis.

Brian Caffrey: Full back. Signed as a full back from Waterhead Juniors, he has been looked upon as a utility back with Oldham, but resumed his original role following the injury to Taylor.

Green Vigo: Right wing. South African born former Wigan player signed from Swinton in August, 1982. He was absent for a time last season and listed at a nominal £2,000, a fee quickly revalued at £12,000 in mid-October in recognition of his recent powerful form on the wing.

Mick Parrish: Right centre. One of the biggest of English inside backs at 6' 4" and 15st. 8lbs. An £18,500 signing from Hunslet four years ago, he played and scored in every one of Oldham's matches during the 1981-82 season, the only player to acheive the record with two clubs, having also accomplished it with Hunslet in 1978-79. At present he is the holder of the current longest scoring run of 31 matches, which began on 5th February last season and has brought the centre a total of 261 points from 114 goals including three drop goals and 9 tries. This season has kicked 61 goals.

Des Foy: Left centre. Oldham born former England schoolboy who started his professional career with Widnes, then moved to his home town side in 1982. The brother of Wigan player Martin, he was one of the club's representatives on Tour earlier this year, and is equally at home wearing the No. 6 jersey.

Mike Taylor: Left wing. A discovery two years ago from Huddersfield amateur football who quickly established himself in the side with his strong running.

Paul Taylor: Off half. 24 year old capture from top Sydney Club Parramatta who has appeared in their Grand Final side for four seasons. Tipped as a future Test Full back, this is his first visit to these shores, and Oldham recognise his versatility by playing him at off half. Began life as a loose forward, and for Parramatta he often interchanges positions with Peter Sterling during a match.

Ray Ashton: Scrum half. Product of Widnes Junior football who followed up his Amateur international youth, Great Britain Colts and Under 24 honours when he went on tour to Australasia last summer. He returned home with a back injury and only recently was able to resume playing, though he is not finding it easy to get back into the side.

Paddy Kirwan: Scrum half. The player who has been keeping tourist Ashton out of the side. A former Lancashire and international Colt who had a spell on loan to Leigh but is now back at the Watersheddings.

Gareth Owen: Prop forward. Son of Stan Owen the former Welsh international forward, he turned professional from Tyldesley R.U.F.C. in January 1971. Since then he suffered so many injuries he played only 77 first team games in 13 seasons at Watersheddings. A knee injury meant he missed the whole of last season, he returned in the reserve team this season but in his second game suffered further injury to the same knee, and subsequently announced his retirement.

Mick Morgan: Prop forward. Former Wakefield, York and Featherstone international forward signed by Oldham for £4,000 in February 1983 when he surrendered the role of player-coach at Carlisle. One of Rugby League's most popular characters, both on and off the field, he is the lively auctioneer of the R.L. Road Show.

Alan McCurrie: Hooker. Former Whitehaven player, capped many times for Cumbria, signed from Wakefield in October 1981 in an exchange deal. Several hat tricks of tries testify to his lively play in the loose.

Wally Jones: Prop forward. Product of Latchford Albion, who after a term on loan to Blackpool by whom he was not retained, was signed for a bargain basement £2,000 from Rochdale in October 1982. A former Great Britain Under 24 player, he was Oldham's "Player of the Year" last season.

Chris Phelan: Prop or Second Row. 26 year old Australian forward who whilst with Brisbane Souths in 1981 won the Rothman's Medal as Queensland Player of the Year. Later he moved to Sydney and joined Paramatta, touring England with the Queensland State side last year. Former Oldham coach Dave Cox, living in New South Wales, was a key factor in negotiations to bring Phelan to Oldham, but after only three games in England he has undergone an exploratory operation on a damaged knee and may face a month's absence.

Andy Goodway: second row. Castleford born player signed in 1979 who via Great Britain Under 24's quickly progressed to full international status. He proved to be Great Britain's outstanding player on last summer's tour "Down Under".

Mick Worrall: Second row. Local player signed in August 1979, a former Great Britain Colt and Under 24 player. His tremendous work rate and tackle count helped him earn Tour selection but he was injured in Australia and underwent a cartilage operation in Sydney. He recently came back to action for the first time since the Second Test v Australia at Brisbane last June. Also a reliable goalkicker.

Mick Coombes: Second row. Product of Oldham Colts and a 15 stone six footer, broke a knee cap early this season and faces a lengthy lay-off.

Tom Naidole: Second row. One of the most enthusiastic players in the game, he had a brief spell with Wigan and is the son of a former Huddersfield Fijian player.

Alan Platt: Loose forward. hails from the Leigh district, a 22 year old powerful kicker who was listed at £45,000 after being unable to command a regular first team place. The fee was recently reduced to £35,000.

Terry Flanagan: loose forward. Son of Bill Flanagan the former Belle Vue Rangers hooker, and brother of Kevin, former Oldham and Rochdale player. A product of Saddleworth Juniors, a former captain of Great Britain Under 24's, he gained Test honours and went on last summer's Tour. He returned with an ankle injury, whilst his work on North Sea rigs also caused him to miss early games this season.

OUR GUESTS TODAY
FERENS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL UNDER 13's.

MASTER IN CHARGE: MIKE GREEN.

Ferens Junior High School is somewhat unusual, in that they do not have a school Soccer team, so that it is to Rugby league that the lads turn for their outdoor sports at this time of the year. Rugby League at Ferens began in 1977, with two teams, coached by Mike Green and by the former Hull F.C. player Alan Sinclair, who also coached the Hull Schools representative side with distinction.

Since their formation, seven years ago, Ferens have had to work hard for their successes, 1979-80 being their most productive when they won the Second Division Championship and were also awarded the Alf Foyston Trophy as the most improved team of the year. 1981-82 saw them win the Second Division Championship once again; since then their enjoyment of the game represents the real success story. Rugby League at Ferens has suffered two major blows with the retirement of Alan Sinclair in 1980, and the large fall in pupil numbers at the school, which means that only one team now represents the school. Nevertheless, the game survives, and ex-pupils keep on with the sport once they have left, which must be the greatest tribute to the way Rugby League is coached at Ferens. Some have progressed to play for Hull Schools at Under 16 level, and two of them, Terry Smirk and Ian Walker are currently playing for Rovers Colts.

The award for the two best secrets of the year must go to Mike Green, who recently produced the one and only Mark Broadhurst to take charge of training! The effect on the lads was tremendous, as Mark coached them in the basics of the game, and demonstrated that, with correct technique, even 12 year olds are capable of tackling a good natured international prop forward.

Since Alan Sinclair's retirement, the running of the team has fallen to Mike Green, who with responsibilities as Head of Maths and Computer studies and also Community Service has little of one precious commodity - Time. Through this article, Mike would like to pay tribute to all those who have helped when the going got really tough. These include Captain of the side Derek Wilson, to all the parents who have always helped in so many ways, and to Mark Broadhurst and Hull Kingston Rovers who put the icing on the cake (and are now revealed as the second of Mike's surprises) when they invited Ferens Junior High School to be guests of the day. To all these and more, Mike would like to say THANK YOU, and hopes that a successful and enjoyable afternoon is enjoyed by all.

ROBBY THE ROBIN

A couple of big events are coming up for the Ian Robinson Testimonial Fund. Look out for a Rugby League Personality Evening at Peppermint Park (Tiffans), Ferensway, on Tuesday, 15th January. The Show is hosted by Viking Radio Editor Dave Gibbons and Bradford Northern's outspoken coach Peter Fox.

This will be followed by a Dinner on Friday, 25th January, when the Chief Speaker will be the greatly sought-after Derek Dougan. Tickets will soon be on sale from members of the Testimonial Committee.

PROGRESS IN PLAYER TROPHY AND LEAGUE

We made our expected progress through the second round of the John Player Special Trophy Competition at the expense of Rochdale, but it was not a totally satisfactory performance. Rovers always looked to have the extra flair and very especially the extra speed to win this game comfortably, but met spirited resistance.

To their credit, Hornets a team with everything to gain and nothing to lose, kept going right to the end. For during the midweek before the game they were declaring that, as far as they were concerned, this was "their Wembley" and they would be satisfied if they could hold their heads high at the end. The sheer joy on the faces of their players when awarded a try following a mistake by a Rovers player when the score was already 22-nil against them just summed up the situation perfectly. Indeed, both their scores came directly as a result of errors on our part rather than anything creative by Hornets.

For the visitors, Tony Dean used his considerable experience to bring all his gamesmanship to bear, and seemed to get away with it, whilst all his colleague stuck gamely to the task. But what happened to the law about defending players standing still whilst a place kick at goal is being taken?

Rovers though always looked capable of stepping up a gear, and immediately responded to the visitors' two scores with tries of our own. All our six tries scored were quite spectacular affairs, usually the result of skilful passing moves and strong and pacy running.

Mark Broadhurst with a typically solid display of tackling and driving on attack, adding a try for good measure, edged in front to take the man-of-the-match honours, and Gary Prohm showed his power and pace with two more tries.

Unfortunately the competition has not yet proved a money spinner for the club. Only 4,527 spectators watched our first round win over Leigh, and this second round tie drew only a couple of hundred more.

Mark Broadhurst was also in tremendous form at Leigh, whilst Paul Harkin, keen to prove we were right not to pursue an interest in Gary Stephens who was making his debut for Leigh, nipped in for a couple of tries, one profiting from a typical Broadhurst thrust. George Fairbairn was in splendid form too and landed five valuable goals. Rovers had just about all the first half play, and the score mounted steadily. Minutes after the interval we led 22-0, but after that were we guilty of resting on our laurels? Certainly Leigh came back strongly with plenty of spirit to make a real contest of it, though we were always able to keep just that bit ahead in a thrilling and entertaining encounter.

Gary Prohm was desperately unlucky to have a confident claim for a try over-ruled, but we always looked as though we were going to win this one, despite Leigh's second half challenge.

RESERVES' REPORT

Two more league wins, both at home, in which our 'A' team amassed an aggregate of 110 points, keep us well in contention for the league leadership, and really a problem for coach Ged Dunn is to motivate his side when they are leading so comprehensively by the interval.

64 of our points came against a youthful Keighley outfit who included quite a number of trialists, but found that enthusiasm could not entirely compensate for lack of skill and experience. Rovers fielded a pack bristling with experience, supported by a back division which Steve Hartley apart, was brimful of youth. A back division however which had far too much pace and skill for our opponents.

Our forwards, all skilled with plenty of first team football, looked capable of bursting through almost at will, whilst Steve Hartley seemed unstoppable at off half and scorched through for five tries, including three in a row. Had we been able to find a consistent goalkicker the score would have been much greater and we had five tries on the board before we were able to put the ball between the uprights, courtesy of Tracy Lazenby, who went on to convert six of our thirteen tries. A trialist from West Yorkshire made a pleasing debut at left centre.

Another 26 points went up before halftime when Batley 'A' were our visitors, but all too often we were not showing the combination we might have done against more formidable opposition our players all too often going it alone. As a result the spirited Batley side made up a bit of the leeway, before in the closing stages we at last put it together and ran in four more tries.

Once again the front row of our pack, the experienced trio of Roy Holdstock, Chris Rudd and Len Casey proved far too powerful for the opposition, whilst at the other end of the scale the youthful Mike Fletcher from the Colts at full back impressed with some try saving tackles.

RUGBY LEAGUE COLLECTOR CLUB

The Rugby Football League has approved the formation of a new association for collectors of Rugby League programmes and memorabilia. The Rugby League Collector Club is a non-profit making body, designed to ease the exchange of Rugby League programmes, badges, autographs, books, etc.

Membership of the Collector Club is only £2.50p per year and the new service will include four quarterly Newsletters and a Club Directory of Members.

Details of the Collector Club can be obtained from the Secretary:- Mike Atkins, 44 Ferriby Road, Hessle, North Humberside HU13 0HT.

COLTS' COLUMN

Double success for our Colts side over the last two weeks with victories against highly rated Hunslet and Bradford at East Park. Against Hunslet the side got quickly into top gear revealing perhaps their best form of the season and the 24-6 victory in no way flattered the Young Robins who were masters in every phase of the game. Try scorers were David Hunt, Rob Wray, Andy Kamis, Neil Hall and Rob Noble, who also added a goal to the one scored by Neil Jowsey.

Last week's win over Bradford made it four in succession for the Rovers when they convincingly overcome a robust Odsal side by 25-4.

Once more slick team work and restraint were the deciding factors and the heavier West Riding side were left chasing the shadows for much of the afternoon. Try scorers were Ian Walker, Rob Noble, Mike Fletcher and David Hunt with goals coming from Rob Noble (2), Mick Fletcher and Spencer Kirman, plus a Paul Speckman drop goal.

OBITUARY

We record with the deepest regret the sudden loss of Arthur Shaw, for very many years a stalwart of the local amateur game in Hull and a life long supporter of the club. Arthur's playing days started just after World War 1, and he appeared with several clubs before joining his firm's team the old B.O.C.M. side. He also played a number of games for Rovers 'A' as an amateur between the Wars, but his interest in B.O.C.M. continued well beyond World War 11. with the demise of B.O.C.M. he became an official with the old Works Sports R.L. Association, later the Humberside Amateur R.L. and has served on many of its committees. He rarely missed the chance of a visit to Craven Park and typically he was watching an amateur game last weekend, between Rovers' Supporters Club and Crooked Billet on the Stonebridge Avenue ground, when he collapsed.

The editor has sat with Arthur in the past on some of the amateur Committees, and knows him to be widely regarded as one of the most respected servants of amateur rugby. We extend our deepest sympathies to his widow and family.

PLAYERS' AND CLUB NEWS

Congratulations to Mike Smith who has won the Frigidaire/Daily Express "Player of the Month" Award. Presentations of £200 and a silver salver are expected to be made before our cup tie with Widnes next Sunday.

An approach was made by Leigh last weekend for the services of Len Casey on loan, but this month has been rejected by us. We consider there is still a future for Len at Craven Park.

Similar a transfer request from young hooker Chris Rudd as also been turned down. Chris is considered too valuable an asset to lose and past experience has shown that at least two hookers are a necessity for clubs intent on honours.

David Hall has advised the Club that he has retired in order that he may concentrate on his business of running his public house, The Kingston Arms in Thomas Street. Whilst we must respect his decision it was heard with regret and we hope that he may reconsider in the near future.

Ian Robinson damaged a cartilage in his nose at Leigh last week. It was not broken and he could have returned to the field of play had it proved necessary. Meanwhile Billy Marchant is making good progress after his shoulder injury.

Ian Parker has been given permission to play for Mansfield Marksmen on loan. Souvenir ties commemorating our Championship and Premiership "double" together with our centenary emblem are now on sale in the Gift shop and make an ideal Christmas present at £3.95p each.

If Rovers are successful against Widnes next Sunday and are subsequently drawn in the first semi-final when the draw is made on 24th December, then our visit to Hunslet on Boxing Day would be postponed. The first John Player semi-final tie will be played on Saturday, 29th December on neutral ground.

A local Corporation transport bus operating on service routes and featuring sponsorship of the club was launched last Friday.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

Today we welcome to Craven Park one of the high fliers in the league at this time, Oldham. With so much talent at their disposal the Lancashire side are proving to be one of the top cultured teams in the League and no doubt today's encounter will be one of the highlights for our season. We look forward to this meeting and hope for a really classy game. To all the fans from the Watersheddings we offer the hospitality of our Clubhouse on the car park before today's match and hope they will return this compliment on our future visits to Oldham.

We spent an interesting and entertaining hour in South Wales after a club v Australia Rugby Union game. One of the more famous names from Rugby League's past joined us and we had a wonderful stroll down memory lane. Our friend was ex-Bradford and Great Britain star Terry Price, goal kicker supreme. Everyone who saw Terry play has a story of some prodigious kick or superb goal. Talk about the man with the golden boot, this guy certainly had one! After swapping Rugby League yarns with us, he went on to give us the low down on the American Football scene, where he starred after a stint in rugby League, his main complaint about the U.S. game being that although the game could easily last three hours, as the kicker his share was usually about three minutes, and as he put it "bored the pants off me". Now firmly settled back in his native South Wales he still has happy memories of his spell in the North, and asked us to pass on Christmas greetings to his old pals Flash Flanagan and Roger Millward. How is it everybody you meet in this game has a "Flash" story? Sorry but we certainly cannot repeat this one. Our thanks to him for a pleasant evening and we hope for a speedy repeat in the near future.

Increase in the family for Rovers' fans Ian and Rita Walford with the arrival of a 7lb. 13oz. prop Gary Christopher recently. After all our pep talks to the playing staff recently, here we have a couple of normal fans producing a future star with no fuss at all. Well done you to. To the rest as Polly might say "That's the way to do it".

Emily, the widow of the late John Bell, former secretary of the Supporters' Club is ill. All her many friends at Craven Park wish her a speedy recovery.

Last week's game at Leigh almost had a funny ending, well, it almost didn't have a start! Before the game a super efficient official succeeded in not only preventing members of the Rovers Board from gaining admittance but also succeeded in banning the referee from the ground. Luckily Rovers do have a brilliant diplomat in their midst. Our thanks to him, sanity prevailed and entry was achieved. "No comment". Good job it wasn't broadcast live.

Get in step for the festive season with these dates for your diary.

Friday, 21st December - Christmas Disco with the Robins in the Stadium Club with tickets strictly limited.

Saturday, 22nd December - in the Supporters' Club is our amateur team's Celebration Disco and they offer a welcome to all.

Sunday, 23rd December - Sounds from the Sixties to the Eighties with "Bebop".

Christmas Eve is the big night at "The Rovers" with guest artist Peter Reeves and, of course, our own resident sound.

But first, tonight on stage from Doncaster the fabulous Paul Carr. Always a great night, so come on in.

See You,
Fred Ward.
