Today At Wheldon Road Oldham

Oldham arrive at Wheldon Road this afternoon hopeful of a better result than on their last visit to West Yorkshire when they went down at Headingley to the much improved Leeds side just prior to Christmas. A repeat of their emphatic home victory over ourselves would no doubt bring a smile to Coach Frank Myler's face. Under his guidance, Oldham have steadily improved and this season have been playing some of the best football seen around the first division.

The introduction of Aussie full back David Liddiard brought instant rewards, for up to his recent sad injury, David had added a new exciting dimension to Oldham's attacking play with his direct running. Should David be still out of action today, then his fellow countryman Gary Warneke could fill the position. Gary is a play-anywhere man, equally at home in the backs as he is in the back row forward position.

In the threequarter line Oldham have some fine speed merchants including former Fulham and Warrington european Hussein M'Barki who looks to have settled in at the Watersheddings after a disappointing time at the Wilderspool. Centre Mick Parrish joined the Roughyeds from Hunslet and immediately made his mark in the side thanks to his strong running and excellent goalkicking. Mick was quite a thorn in Cas's side in the last encounter landing seven goals. His partner this afternoon will probably be former Great Britain international Des Foy. Des is a fine all round player and was an Australasian tourist back in 1984. Mike Taylor has made the left wing spot his own after having to wait in the wings for a while before being given the opportunity of a regular first team place by Coach Myler. However, Mike is a 100% trier and deadly finisher.

To the surprise of many, Frank Myler stepped in at the end of last season to snap up former Wakefield and Hull stand off half David Topliss. Following his benefit season at Belle Vue, David moved on to join the Airlie Birds and enjoy many successes with them. However, it was obvious that Hull were looking to youth and David had no doubt about moving when approached. Already he has formed a fine half back partnership with Ray Ashton who like team mate Des Foy was a 1984 Tourist. Ray has had to fight for a regular first team spot and for a while he alternated with Paddy Kirwan in the scrum half berth.

If Oldham have talented backs, then perhaps their forwards are even more impressive. Brilliantly lead by the ever popular Mick Morgan, who has just completed his Benefit period and for his services to Rugby League Mick picked up a well deserved cheque of over £20,000. Despite his lack of speed, his tremendous ball handling skills were instrumental in Yorkshire's War of the Roses victory earlier this season. Hooker Ian Sanderson has come through the ranks at the Watersheddings and finally displaced former Oldham favourite Alan McCurrie earlier this season. Ian possessed the sufficient skills to keep his place with the result that McCurrie finally left the Club for pastures new. Ian is one of the youngsters for whom the future looks bright. Former Featherstone prop or second row David Hobbs should be in action this afternoon thanks to his successful appeal to a four match ban which was reduced to one by the league's Management Committee last week. David is a former Great Britain international who cost Oldham £40,000 from Featherstone Rovers. Another exciting prop or second row forward is Wally Jones. Wally has been a regular in the Oldham starting line-up for a couple of seasons and has been unfortunate in that his consistently good performances have been overlooked by the International selectors. Another Australian arrival at Oldham this season is Mal Graham. The blockbusting second row forward was the target for several clubs following his decision not to rejoin Hunslet for a second period. However, Mal decided to join Oldham, feeling that they were a go-ahead club with a good chance of finishing amongst the honours. Although Dave Topliss doesn't think that Oldham will ultimately finish as champions, he believes they will be in with a chance of both Cup and Premiership, so Mal will be hopeful of winning a medal of sorts before his return Down Under. Terry Flanagan rounds off the Oldham side at loose forward. Terry began his professional career in fine style, captaining his country at Under 24 level. However, he then suffered a few injuries which put paid to any immediate future honours. However, lately he appears to have had a return to his early devastating form which made him such a favourite at the Watersheddings.

What a difference. After losing their first four consecutive games Wigan have gone on from strength to strength. Already holding two trophies they successfully maintained their bid to win all this seasons trophies by beating Hull KR at Elland Road in the John Player Final. Currently fourth in the league with the best home scoring points and away record with teams only managing to score 156 points against them they look a good bet for the championship.

Halifax are currently riding high at the top of the league with todays opponents Oldham in second place. Both having good wins last weekend. Bradford Northern boosted their fight against relegation with an 18-8 victory over trouble hit Hull. Hull took an early 8-4 lead, but Northern hit back with two tries in four minutes just before half-time from Keith Godfrey & Ash Lumbey.

Australian Centre Tony Currie scored one try and created another in a blistering spell to steer Leeds into a 20-18 win at Featherstone thus plunging our near neighbours to the next to the bottom spot in the league. Fellow strugglers Swinton improved their survival chances by beating us in the last ten minutes of a hard match which saw our young full back Gary Lord stretchered off with a leg injury requiring 20 stitches. Warrington although down to 11 men gave St. Helens coach Alex Murphy further problems as they beat his team 26-16.

In the second division Leigh look a sure bet to gain promotion as they now have a four point cushion over chasing teams. They have already amassed 612 points from only 17 games. The other 2 promotion places are far from being so certain with 4 clubs separated by just 2 points.

The draw for the Rugby League Challenge Cup took place last week with some intriguing ties in prospect. A repeat of last seasons John Player Final as H.K.R. look likely to entertain near neighbours Hull in the tie of the round. However, Hull have to first dispose of non league opposition. Another Amateur team Kells travel to Hunslet in the preliminary round. The winner being host to ourselves. Wigan have been favourites to win the cup again, making it a third successive appearance at Wembley.

Congratulations are in order to Castleford's centre Tony Marchant and ex-Cas player Neil James who have both been included in Maurice Bamfords squad to face the French.

Although it is unlikely that he will appear on the field this afternoon, a mention for David Finch. David was a great favourite amongst the majority of Castleford supporters and his departure from the Club although inevitable was nevertheless a sad day for many. However, we wish David all the best with his new Club and hope that he is able to shrug off the nagging injuries which have hampered his career.

CAS FOR T'CUP

Part 10 — 1969 Challenge Cup Final
Castleford 11 Salford 6 at Wembley Stadium.

After a period of 34 years, Cas finally battled through to a Challenge Cup Final place, and 'battled' is probably the correct phrase. In three of the four rounds the side had had to come from behind against teams of the calibre of Wigan, Leeds and Wakefield.

Castleford became a ghost town on Saturday May 17th as over 20,000 supporters invaded the Capital to witness the Final against Salford in what was to be a tense struggle. In the opening minutes, tackling was hard and referee Dickie Brown had to be on his mettle. Salford got off to an ideal start as the former Cas player Ron Hill landed a third minute penalty after Johnny Ward had been caught 'stealing'. However, further penalty attempts at both ends by Hill and Mick Redfearn were to fail as the ferocity of the tackling increased.

Keith Hepworth managed to shrug off an early injury which occurred in a heavy Salford tackle but Cas were finding it hard to break down the Lancastrians solid defence. This all changed in the 32nd minute however, as Mal Reilly broke from a scrum mid way in Salford's half and the supporting Alan Hardisty evaded the attempted tackle by David Watkins before feeding Keith Howe who scored despite being ankle tapped by Chris Hesketh. Despite Redfearn's conversion failing narrowly, Cas must have been delighted to take the lead, but the lead was short lived as Ron Hill again banged over a penalty and as half time approached Salford were beginning to take control. Hesketh was unfortunate to have what looked a good try ruled out for a double movement, but Salford went in at half time with a slender 4-3 lead.

Although Salford opened the brighter of the sides in the second half they had nothing to show for their efforts and Cas regained the lead thanks to another Reilly burst which was supported by the ever aware Alan Hardisty who scored beneath the posts, Redfearn adding the simplest of conversions for an 8-5 lead. Play then swung from end to end with both sets of defences being severely tested; with only a quarter of an hour left, Ron Hill added his third penalty to bring the Red Devils to within a point of Cas and set the scene for a barnstorming finish to the game.

Castleford played some delightful football in those 15 minutes and should have extended their lead, however, Brian Lockwood was held just short and both a Redfearn penalty and a Hardisty drop goal were off target. However, their efforts were fully rewarded as Johnny Ward fooled not only the entire Salford defence but almost 100,000 spectators with an outrageous 'dummy' before parting to Keith Hepworth who scored from close in to guarantee a Castleford victory. Mick Redfearn again missed the conversion but Cas were worthy winners. Malcolm Reilly earned the Lance Todd Trophy Award for his all round effort, but there were 13 heroes on the field that afternoon.

The homecoming celebrations began in Pontefract, where a sizeable crowd had gathered, however many thousands more lined the streets between Airedale and Castleford culminating in an estimated 10,000 gathering outside the Boys Modern off Pontefract Road. A celebration meal was held in the School with Civic dignitaries including Cr. Pennington, the Mayor of Castleford.
