

WE'VE GOT THE TOUGHEST TEAM IN EUROPE

They make 'em tough in Oldham.

Trucks that tackle the opposition head on and beat them hollow on our home ground.

Because they're specifically designed for British conditions: the mud and the slush, the hills and the motorways, the rules and the regulations.

That's why you'll see the Big A out in front in all sorts of tricky situations.

Seddon Atkinson. Born SEDDON ATKINSON in Oldham. Bred for Britain. NOBODY CAN BEAT US ON OUR HOME GROUND.

WATERSHEDDINGS SURVEY

AFTER the home defeats by St Helens, Featherstone and Bradford Northern, it was pleasing to see our team record that 15-14 home victory over Hull in bad conditions last Wednesday night.

It was a triumph which enabled us to grab hold of a top-eight lifeline although matches since then — we played at Hull K.R. on Friday and St Helens on Sunday — could have made a significant difference.

It really is a drain on resources to have to fulfil a fixture list like that in the closing days of the season and it is little compensation to know that other clubs are in the same boat.

Today, of course, provides us with our final First Division match of the season and it would be remiss if we did not thank all those people who have helped the club during 1985-6 — the spectators, members, sponsors, backers and anyone else who has helped us during the season. There are, of course, too many to name individually.

The highlights of the season were undoubtedly our great run of 11 matches without defeat from the end of September up to Christmas which, at one spell, had us on top of the First Division, and our passage to the semi-final of the Silk Cut Challenge Cup for the first time in 22 years.

Sadly, our challenge for Slalom Lager championship honours tended to fade just after Christmas when we had a pile up of injuries, and suffered the cruel blow of losing David Topliss with injuries received in a road accident.

Happily, David was only in hospital for two or three days, but he was unable to play again during the season and we all know that he was a key figure, not only with his own experience and football ability but with his ability to organise the side on the park.

We had developed a pattern of play around David and his absence was a blow which could never really be repaired.

Despite this massive handicap we have battled through to the last four of the cup with wins over Carlisle, Warrington and Bradford — three games in which there were major contributions from the Liddiard lads.

David scored four tries against Carlisle, and who will ever forget the moment when Glen put his brother through for the late and winning try against Bradford in round three?

On to the semi-final against Castleford at Wigan and again it was the Liddiard act that gave our great following of fans their greatest moment.

Glen got the ball wide on the Castleford 25 just before half-time and David's break enabled him to chip forward for Glen to come through on the inside and go over.

This gave us a 7-6 interval lead and the score stayed like that until 18 minutes from the end when Bob Beardmore scored a controversial try which finally sunk our Wembley dreams.

Nevertheless, it has been a good season in many ways and we can fairly claim that we have not had our share of the luck. Early in the season, when we were doing well and bringing in crowds, most of our matches were away from home which meant we did not capitalise financially on all the enterprise we had put in.

Then we lost David Liddiard with a broken jaw at a crucial time, and, of course, we lost by one point in the John Player at Hull KR after Liddiard's first-half dismissal. Ultimately, he was found not guilty by the judiciary!

We can, therefore, claim that in many ways things have gone against us. Let us hope we can work hard and effectively during the close season so that we can again provide a side that will provide us with entertainment and pleasure in 1986-7. See you then!

Two young Oldham fans David Taylor aged 11 years and Adele Bradbury aged 9 years, are doing their bit for the club on a sponsored walk from Mumps to Greenfield and back on April 27th. The walk is organised by the Oldham Transport Social Club and the two youngsters hope to raise as much money as they can for our new stand fund. Sponsorship forms and further info from Phil Bradbury on 652 3831.

WELCOME TO WIGAN

MIGHTY Wigan come to Watersheddings tonight in the final league match of this '85-'86 season. Due to the massive backlog of fixtures being played in the last few days, it was not known at the time of going to press exactly how the Central Park outfit stood as regards their bid to land the Slalom Lager championship crown. It has to be said Halifax looked in pole position as the Wigan fans rued their team's disastrous Easter programme which included defeats against St Helens and Oldham plus a Central Park draw against Warrington. For much of the season Wigan have been many people's favourites to land the title as one part of the coveted Grand Slam of trophies they were seeking. The season began well for them with a spectacular Lancashire Cup triumph against Warrington followed by a fine victory over Hull KR in the John Player Trophy final the Grand Slam seemed to be on the cards. However, a shock Challenge Cup defeat at the hands of our own Cup conquerers Castleford — and at Central Park as well — ended the five trophy dream and since then Wigan's championship hopes have plummeted too.

This is in no small reason due to the enforced return to Australia of dynamic stand-off Steve Ella and mighty prop Greg 'The Wall' Dowling. Both players played significant roles in Wigan's excellent early-season form and the side have not really looked the same since they left.

The Central Park board captured the imagination of their fans with the big-money signing last year of superstar Ellery Hanley from Bradford. Hanley has operated in the centre for most of the season and has developed an exciting and colourful left-flank partnership with another ex-Bradford man — the enigmatic Henderson Gill. However, Hanley may be at stand-off tonight possibly partnering Oldham lad Mike Ford at half-back. Centre David Stephenson was also an expensive signing when he arrived from Salford a few years ago but he has repaid the faith shown in his ability with excellent and consistent form for Wigan in recent times. Full-back Steve Hampson arrived from local Rugby Union and made his mark in the side despite a broken leg and has featured in Maurice Bamford's international squads this season. Youngster Sean Edwards can operate anywhere in the back division, as can £100,000 signing from Widnes Joe Lydon, a former Lance Todd trophy winner, who destroyed Wigan with his two tries at Wembley in 1984. Another Oldhamer, Richard Russell, has been "blooded" in the centre in the last few matches, a player who could well have a big future in the game. Ray Mordt, a South African springbok signed along with compatriot Rob Luow earlier this season may make an appearance while virtual unknown Phil Stott could come into the reckoning on the wing.

A warm Oldham reception will be awaiting our ex-forward Andy Goodway who makes his first return to Watersheddings tonight after his move to Central Park last summer. A popular player with the majority of Oldham supporters, Andy is clearly going to be keen to make an impression tonight against his old mates. Wigan are well served up front with Great Britain test man Ian Potter at loose-forward, a player with magnificent defensive qualities who played strongly for Britain in the Test Series against New Zealand last autumn. Local lad Nicky Kiss will probably be at hooker, the ex-Saddleworth Rangers player having made the No. 9 shirt his own in recent times.

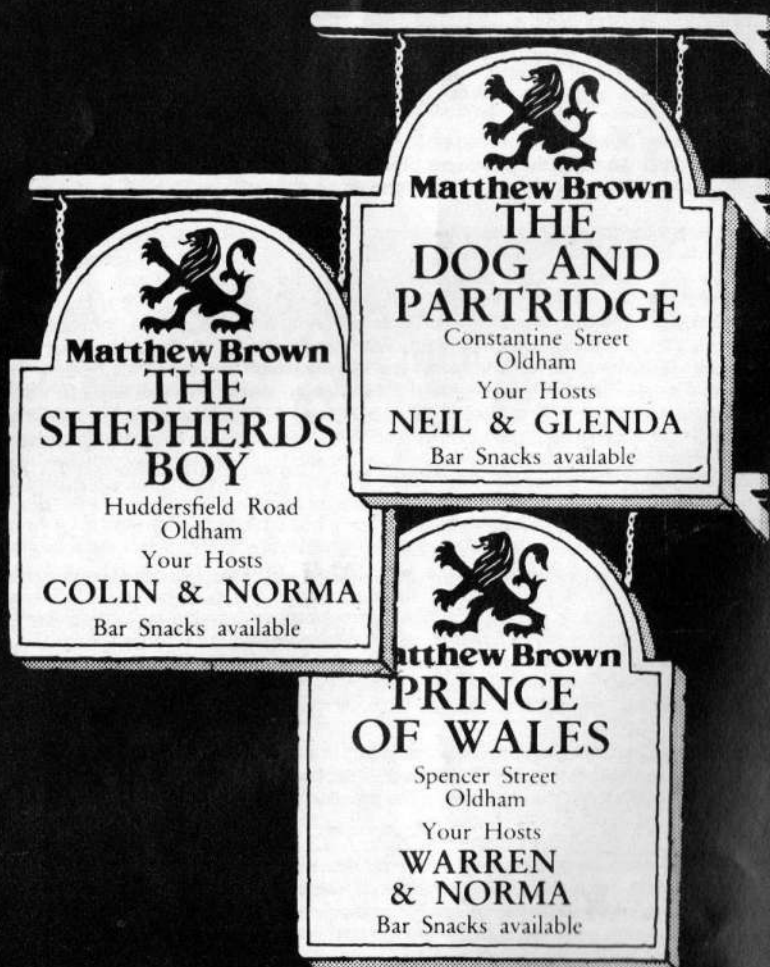

Sean Wane and Brian Case will probably begin at prop, both having international appearances to their credit. Wane has developed this season into a player with class and played for Britain in France this season, creating a try for Wigan team-mate Hanley in the process. Case was a member of Frank Myler's touring squad in 1984.

Kiwi skipper Graeme West, one of the tallest and most respected forwards in the game today, may appear in the second row while South African Nick du Toit, a fearsome sight when in full flight is another fine forward whom coaches Alan McInnes and Colin Clarke can call upon.

Whatever team the Wigan coaching duo decide on, it is clear Oldham will have it all to do tonight to complete the league double over the men from Central Park.

BRIAN BATTY Daily Mail

Rugby League's future has taken many important steps over the past few weeks in the right direction.

The move by the bigger clubs to establish that they have twice as much voting power as those in the Second Division was perhaps an inevitable step.

This new system will swing into action next season and avoid the threat of a breakaway league being formed by the top twelve clubs.

There is no doubt that there is general relief at the outcome of this action to avoid a major split which could have done untold and long term damage to the game.

This solution comes after the Management Committee had acted on a document produced by Les Bettinson and his coaching committee.

Bettinson's Study Group pointed out that differential voting will bring a shift of power to top clubs.

But the League are quick to emphasise that this new situation must not be regarded as a negative step for clubs in the Second Division.

It was, I feel, inevitable especially in view of what is happening in Soccer where the top clubs are set to gain greater control.

The need for those clubs putting such heavy investments into team building and improving their grounds, to have a bigger say on matters is understandable and in keeping with present day thinking.

Like any other sport the game of Rugby League long since failed to exist just for the pure entertainments value and has had to become big business to survive.

Fortunately the new set up has been achieved without any serious battling and any blood being spilt.

The game needs to progress and keep pace with the growing demands for new enterprise every season and the balance of power before was sadly wrong.

But those clubs who are promoted each season can have their say and so no one can claim it is a closed shop.
