Naughton Park News

NAUGHTON PARK NEWS

This evening if the weather permits, we entertain our friends from Oldham to Naughton Park for a game which was scheduled for Sunday last but had to be postponed because of the condition of the ground.

All will be keen to see how Oldham's new full back Mick Burke performs against his old team mates, having signed just hours before the Challenge Cup deadline.

Of course the Widnes connection does not stop there, for Oldham coach Frank Myler, still resides in Widnes and played many games with distinction for the club. Indeed Frank still holds the club record for tries scored in a season with 34 touchdowns.

Oldham began the season well, and reached the final of the Grunhalls Lancashire Cup only to be beaten by Wigan. However just before Christmas they hit a bad spell and lost half a dozen games in a row before their recovery began. Widnes have to date suffered twice at the hands of Oldham this season, both at Watershedding. We were narrowly beaten 14-16 in the Lancashire Cup semi-final and then just four days later lost a league encounter 16-22. Oldham now hold a spot in mid table, and like ourselves will be determined to climb the league ladder in the weeks ahead.

HARD LUCK

Even the most ardent Wigan supporter would not begrudge Widnes a share of the spoils in our epic encounter on January 4th, when an interception by new Gt. Britain captain Ellery Hanley won the game for Wigan with just 27 seconds remaining. The players who performed in those New Year games against Wigan and St. Helens did the club proud, and all can hold their head up high, knowing they battled all the way for the town of Widnes.

POPULAR SIDE APOLOGY

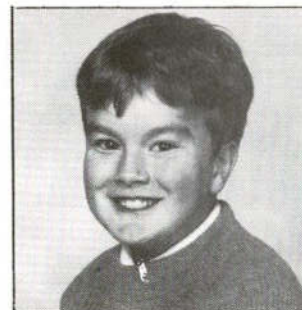

Several complaints were made from the Popular side fans, following the game against Wigan, for the obstruction caused by the scaffolding erected on the terrace to facilitate Video recording of the game. This was not anticipated, as during the game against Australia, Channell 10 T.V. erected a similar platform, and not one complaint was voiced. However on the day of the Wigan match, the rain was such that the Video crew felt it necessary to erect a tarpaulin which did cause a severe obstruction. I can only state that this will not be allowed to happen for any future games.

TONIGHTS MASCOT

BIRTHDAY BOY

Tonights Widnes mascot is DAVID JOHN FITZSIMON, who was 9 years old last Sunday, the date the match should have been played. He attends Ditton County Primary School, and attends all the home matches with his Grandad.

LES RETURNS HOME

Last Tuesday, Les Cleal decided to 'call it a day' and return home to his native Australia. The injury to his knee proved more severe than first thought and it could have been six weeks before he was fit to play again. We all wish Les a speedy recovery and wish him well on his return to Australian football.

OUT IN THE COLD

No Widnes players were included in the Gt. Britain squad to face France on Saturday when new supremo Mal Reilly chose his team last week. John Basnett particularly must feel a little unlucky after performing so well in the 3rd test at Wigan against Australia.

However, one must accept Reilly's principle, that all players must have been playing club rugby for the last month or so before he will consider them, though it remains to be seen if this policy will continue as the months go on.

DEBUTANT

This evening should see the Widnes debut of Rick Thackray, who was signed from Warrington just ten days ago. He is 25 years old and has scored some spectacular tries for the 'Wires.' Now fully recovered after injury, it is to be hoped that he will serve Widnes well in the years ahead, and I am sure all will agree, that the club is currently desperately short of specialised wingmen.

CUP NEWS

The State Express Challenge Cup has now begun, with clubs currently being involved in preliminary ties, which we at Widnes fortunately avoided. Our first round tie against cup holders Castleford is on Saturday Week, January 31st, kick off 2.15 p.m., and is scheduled to be shown on B.B.C T.V.

Our Alliance side are at home to York in the first round of the Alliance Challenge Cup and this game will now be played on Friday, February 6th, with a 7.45 Kick Off, having been moved from the original date of Saturday at York's request.

TESTIMONIAL COLLECTION

Stuart Wright, now in his testimonial season, wishes to thank all who contributed to his match day collection on January 4th when Wigan were in opposition. The amount raised was £282.

COMING AND GOING

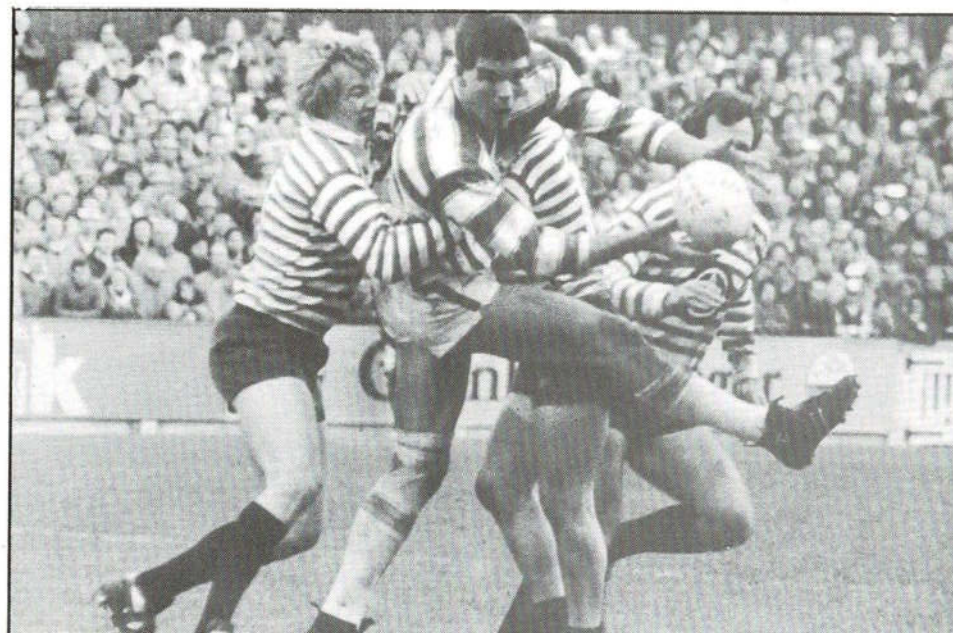

(By Mike Flynn)

As these notes were being prepared, the weather outlook was grim to say the least and the Prospect of any Rugby being played during the week very bleak, but hopefully the big freeze will have improved for tonight's fixtures to go ahead.

The comings and goings before the cup deadline raised a few eyebrows with Wigan finally digging down and raising the extra cash to pay out a world record £130,000 fee to Warrington for Andy Gregory. If they had not won the John Player at the weekend, Andy could have been turning out for St. Helens, that prize money came at the right time. Mick Burke could be making a quick return to Naughton Park this evening, in Oldham's colours with the Chemics new capture from Warrington, winger Rick Thackray making his debut for the homeside. Another move that did not go unnoticed was Widnes lad Ray Ashton's departure from Oldham to Leeds.

Frank Myler's lads arrive at the Park looking to complete the hat trick over the Chemics. They ended Widnes hopes of reaching another County Cup Final, beating them at Watersheddings in the 'semi' 16-14, in October and four days later again on their home ground, took the two league points, 22-16, then, the chemics only second defeat of the season in the league. So the homeside have some face saving to do tonight. If they can produce the form which they showed against St. Helens and Wigan. The points could be theirs, but let us not forget the visitors will be having a big say in the proceedings.

Oldham's Aussie centre Garry Bridge and company stop Wigan's Aussie second rower Ian Roberts in his tracks, but he still got the ball away, during the Lancashire Cup Final.

The Chemics are due to take on Leeds at Headingley on Sunday, a good sound victory before the challenge cup tie, would be a nice tonic for the teams confidence against the cup holders, Castleford. Mal Reilly will have his sights fixed on taking Castleford back to Wembley, before taking up the full time job of planning Great Britain's attack against the Aussies next year down under, and we wish him every success in his task.

On a final note, here is something to set Widnes supporters thinking about. Len Hunt, the former Widnes Touch Judge and Referee, raised a query some time ago (take note Mr. Les Woodhead), of how many sets of brothers have played for Widnes R.L.C. over the years. Len's list tops over the thirty mark, it set me looking through my little black book to the early days of the club and the brothers that played for the club, my own list to date is over the forty mark, going back to 1873, we could have a record for the Guinness Book, give it some thought over the next few weeks, before I let you in on the list of brothers. At one stage in the clubs history they had four brothers that played, there were two brothers in the early pioneer days of the club, and there has been four sets of three brothers, two brothers have also been club secretary at Widnes. So put your thinking cap on and see how many sets of brothers you can come up with, who have played in the first or "A" teams over the years from 1873 to the present five sets. 'Oh Brother', we could have a Rugby League record going.
