OFFICIAL PROGRAMME No. 8

13th December, 1987

STONE'S BITTER RUGBY LEAGUE — DIVISION II

BARROW v OLDHAM

40p.

A warm welcome to our visitors from the Watersheddings, Oldham. Along with ourselves the Lancashire club were the shock one of the four clubs relegated last season.

However, they have soon stamped their authority in division two by leading the table from day one. They have suffered only one defeat a narrow one at that at Doncaster 22 - 20.

However, their top position was temporarily halted two weeks ago by Barrow who took over number one spot as the Oldham club were involved in the John Player Trophy.

They have reached the semi-finals by playing fast open and attractive rugby, seeing off the challenge of first division outfits Bradford Northern & Warrington, along with second division Batley.

No doubt they will be making a quick return to the top flight and its all down to the hard work of their new four man Board of Directors who took control in June of this year.

The coaching staff changed with the new chief being former player Eric Fitzsimmons, assisted by Ian McCorquodale and Mal Graham.

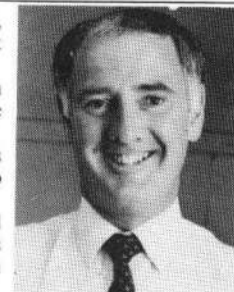

These three have passed on their vast experience to the players who have responded with some fine rugby, which has made the rest of the second division sit up and take notice.

We wish Oldham all the very best in next weeks tie with Saint Helens but hopefully today we will be registering our seventh successive home win of the season.

The game with Whitehaven two weeks ago nearly saw us lose the record as the team went to sleep in the closing minutes, let us hope a lesson has been learnt.

Our two next games are away at Bramley and Carlisle where maximum points should be picked up, with the next home game against Workington on January 3rd.

As this is the last programme before the festive holiday's the Chairman, Director's, Players and Staff extend Season's Greetings and Thanks to all the many Club Supporters.

"Frank Interviews"

This week Frank McKeever talked to Russ Walker.

RUSS STARTED OUT when he was 12 at Craven Park, when the Furness Coaching Association first started under Tommy Dawes, Harry Dawson and several players including ex pro. Kenny Wilson.

Russ played for the under 13 mini rugby side and reached the final only to find that he was sub. which to this day he does not relish and would rather start out right from the kick off. He played for a team of 13 year olds playing against a team of under 18's and beat them, so much to the amazement of the Barrow Island chairman, Terry Barker, that he invited the whole team to sign on for Barrow Island under 18's. He remembers only too well playing at Millom and Askam and getting well hammered and also of the players he played against who have since signed for Barrow. However, Russ enjoyed playing against these more experienced players. Even though he was only 13 he learnt quickly. When he was 16 he moved into Barrow Islands first team starting out on the wing and then moving into the centre. (Russ did a bit of goal kicking at that time) and eventually was picked for Cumbria under 19's partnering Dave Richardson in the second row. Dave as you all know is currently playing for Barrow. When Russ returned to play for Barrow Island the following week he was picked in the centre. Believing he was more suited to the second row he approached his coach Paul Kavanagh (who was a brilliant second row on his day playing for Barrow) asking if he could stay in that position. Paul, whom Russ has a great regard for, agreed that if he got stuck in he had the potential to go places provided he was dedicated enough to do it (which I am sure he is doing).

His first game for Barrow Island in the second row was against that good Millom team of the Jacksons, Ceddy & Joey, plus J. Bawden, quite a baptism for young Russ. It stood him in good stead and he was chosen for the Great Britain squad but never made the team, (hard luck for Russ) because of injury.

Barrow approached Russ at 18 and he played trial games against Warrington, Swinton and St. Helens, in which he scored. He remarked what a fine game Mick James had at stand off against Swinton.

He returned to Barrow Island winning several trophies including a nail biter against Walney and a trip to France. Russ remembers vividly breaking his ankle in a match with Holker Pioneers. He was tackled fairly by Tony Kay and unfortunately fell badly in the tackle, no blame on Tony.

After the Walney Central game he signed for Barrow and has given 100% in all his games and his favourite drink is grapefruit. His wife is a great supporter travelling to away games sometimes on her own. He tragically lost his father recently and is determined to make good in Roy's memory. At 6ft. and 14st. 8lbs. Russ is one for the future and as he remarked he enjoys playing for Barrow especially in one match when Barrow beat Leeds 5 - 2 in the John Player, he enjoyed his grapefruit after that game! His ambition is to play for Barrow at Wembley.

Eric Fitzsimmons — Oldham Coach.

The man behind Oldham's battle to go straight back up into division one is 38 year old Eric Fitzsimmons.

Along with Ian McCuordale and Mal Graham the former Oldham player has made a marvellous start to his coaching career with his own home town club.

Last season he did extremely well as boss of Rochdale Hornets, and did not hesitate when offered the role by the new Board of Directors at the Watersheddings.

He has got the spirit back into the camp which deserted them towards the end of last season.

ERIC FITZSIMMONS

Fitzsimmons played Rugby League as a schoolboy but it was his love for soccer that saw him leave the game and his football flourished in the Army.

By chance he was doing some build up work following injury at a running track in Oldham when Phil Larder and Fred Hall persuaded him to come back to the game.

Following many years at Oldham he had a long spell with Hunslet being one of the games most consistent goal kickers.

In 1985 he was well on target to become the top marksman of the season, however, after kicking 132 goals and with twelve games still remaining, he broke a leg.

Always a deep thinker of the game Eric was destined to go onto the coaching side of the game once his playing days were over, and as a player had the greatest respect for then Oldham Boss Graham Starkey, who at the time developed many stars from the Colts side.

With people like Fitzsimmons controlling the Coaching side of the game it all augers well for the future of Rugby League.

MABEL DENT 1924 - 1987

BARROW RUGBY LEAGUE CLUB lost one of its greatest supporters and workers following the recent death of Mabel Dent.

A Rugby league fanatic Mabel could always be seen in her favourite standing place next to the trainers dug out shouting support to the team, and giving stick to the opposition.

She followed the team to many Cup ties away in her time and when Barrow players were selected for International games Mabel would be there to lend her support.

Mabel has always been an RL lover and served on many benefit committee for players in the Willie Horne era a good singer in her day Mabel would give a song or two at Social evenings for the players.

Her wonderful voice saw her involved in the local Drama front.

Over 27 years ago Mabel was a founder member of the Progressive Branch and was involved until it ceased last year. She put in many hours and was a tremendous worker along with her best friend Ollie Dickinson, both Pillars of the Branch. Both were made life members of the Barrow club for their efforts over the years.

Mabel was a character in her own right, and will be sadly missed at Craven Park. To husband Tom we send our deepest sympathy.

Two of Oldhams classy & experienced players

TERRY FLANNAGAN. Terry is a great professional and though he is one of the finest modern day loose forwards, he is just as happy in the number nine jersey.

On many occasions when Oldham have been troubled by having no recognised hooker Terry has quite happily stepped into the role with quite considerable success.

It is a family tradition the hooking role for brother Kevin played many years for Rochdale, while his father Billy wore the number nine shirt in the Lancashire Cup Final forty years ago for the now defunct Bell Vue Rangers.

A former Amateur with Saddleworth Terry gained the major honour of his career when he toured down under in 1984 but it is still his aim to tread the Wembley turf with Oldham.

MAL GRAHAM. Australian Mal has been a big hit with three English clubs in four seasons, firstly at Hunslet, then Oldham, Bradford Northern and now back at Oldham.

He started as a winger playing in the Sydney grand final, and soon became a star in the forwards. He has a brilliant eye for the line and topped the try scoring list for each club he has played for in the forwards.

When Bradford scooped his signature for last season, Coach Barry Seabourne said bringing Mal to Odsal was one of the best things I have ever done in the game. He has the respect of the players and is very helpful to the younger ones.

The Ladies Committee who keep the supporters warm on these cold Sunday afternoons with hot pies and cups of tea would like to Wish their customers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Down Memory Lane

54 years ago

On March 4th 1933 at Craven Park in a top four clash, fourth placed Barrow met second in the table Swinton and won 7 - 0, the main attraction of the day not only being Swinton but Barrow's great centre Charlie Carr who was having his benefit game, and the crowds turned out in their thousands to appreciate eleven fantastic seasons Charlie had served them with.

15,137 (including 2,620 unemployed) gave Carr a thunderous welcome as he led the teams on the field, and late in the game the same ovation was given to Charlie as he coolly dropped a goal.

There was no score at half time, and Swinton showed their appreciation to a great player by giving a helping hand going round the ground for Charlie's collection.

The only try of the game fell to Parker who outstripped the cover rounded the full back Scott with a glorious dummy to score, Burgess converted.

Barrow : Bennett, Scott, Carr, Parker, Johnson, Little, Irving, McKeating, Burgess, Yarr, Jenkins, Troup, Thornber.

Swinton : Scott, Jones, Whitaker, H. Evans, Kenny, Rees, D. Evans, Wright, Armitt, Solloway, W. Shaw, Beswick, Butter.

On Easter Saturday April 8th 1938, two trains left Barrow for the Watersheddings and the supporters came away a happy bunch with Barrow defeating Oldham 5 - 2. Barrows Greenhalgh had missed the train and arrived just in time for the kick off.

The game was played in a cup tie atmosphere with Francis scoring the only try of the match sending the Barrow supporters wild with delight. He pounced on a loose ball forty yards out, tricked Stott, and beat several defenders in a thrilling dash to the line, Troup added the goal.

Oldham : Thomas, Hodkinson, Rhyddergh, Downey, Turner, Stott, Smith, Reed, Brooks, Moore, Ambler, Pugh, Elson.

Barrow : Johnson, Cumberbatch, Higgin, Barton, Francis, Bowker, Little, Hattersley, McKeating, Troup, Ayres, Greenhalgh, Marklew.

On Good Friday April 8th 1944 Barrow registered their highest score of the season in defeating Oldham 49 - 0 at Craven Park, in the War Emergency League.

Included in the Oldham side were three Barrow juniors Troth, Gabriel and Evans while playing at centre for Barrow on leave was George Woods.

Tries for Barrow came from Kerr (3), Bowyer (3), Horne (2), Knowlden (2) and Petcher with Horne kicking seven goals.

The attendance was 6,256.
