ON THE BARROW BEAT

by Oldham coach
TONY BARROW

I don't think anybody at Watersheddings will be sorry to see the back of November. It was always going to be a difficult month for us with games against Wigan, Bradford, Castleford and Widnes but, to make matters worse, we spent most of the month without injured forwards such as Derek Pyke, John Fieldhouse, Austin Donegan and Keith Atkinson while Charlie McAlister also missed the first two games of the month against Wigan and Bradford, and Duncan Platt was suspended for the matches against Bradford and Castleford.

Our injuries continued when Tommy Martyn took a nasty blow to the head at Castleford and he is unlikely to be playing until next week at the soonest.

In the 'A' team at Castleford the other night, my own son Tony received a double fracture of the cheekbone so he, too, will be out for a few weeks.

Our form over the month has been erratic. We played well at Wigan, despite losing Duncan Platt for an alleged trip on Ellery Hanley, but we threw away two points against Bradford, we played badly at Castleford, and then we produced a vastly-improved show against Widnes last Sunday only to go down 24-18.

The result was a disappointment, of course, but all the lads gave everything they had and wasn't it nice to see Norman Francis making those two stunning first-half breaks that produced tries for Brett Clark and Duncan Platt.

Two areas of the game in which we must improve are tackling close to the rucks and our control of the ball.

We started off all right against Widnes, but later in the game we were giving the Widnes forwards far too much latitude, not moving up quickly enough, and consequently they became twice as hard to tackle.

We must attack in defence. That means we must take the initiative to get up among the opposing forwards before they hit the advantage line, rather than staying back to wait for them coming at us.

The other thing we have to improve on is our control of the ball at vital times. Too often we are giving the ball away on the first or second tackle because we get excited if somebody makes a break or a half-break.

We have to be prepared to play the percentages and prepared to stick to the ball and build on what we have achieved, rather than throw out risky, chancy passes that enable the defence to take off our pressure.

REGAL TROPHY — OLDHAM-SALFORD REPLAY

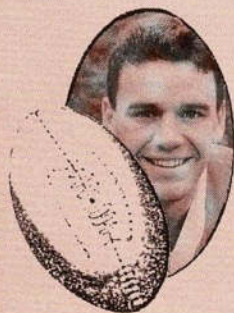

In the event of a draw the replay will be Wednesday, 5th December, 7.30pm kick-off

A black and white advertisement for Boddingtons Bitter. On the left, a beer tap with a wooden handle and a metal body is shown. The tap has a label that reads "BODDINGTONS 1778 BITTER" and "ESTD BODDINGTONS 1778". To the right of the tap is a tall glass filled with beer and a thick head of foam. The background is dark. The text "DISCOVER THE PERFECT PINT" is written in large, bold, white letters across the top right. At the bottom, the text "IF YOU DON'T GET BODDIES, YOU'LL JUST GET BITTER." is written in bold, white letters. A small Boddingtons logo is in the bottom right corner.

SKIPPER'S SPOT

Oldham Captain
Mike Ford

LAST Sunday's match proved you can never afford to relax against top class opposition like Widnes who can score from anywhere as they showed a packed Watersheddings.

However, I was disappointed we didn't take at least a point from the game. Only a superb tackle from Jonathan Davies prevented Richard Irving from crashing over under the goal posts.

Our performance was a vast improvement from recent games. I was especially pleased for Norman Francis, who will be a firm favourite with the Watersheddings faithful after those two stunning runs.

Today we turn our attention away from the League and focus on Cup football. Who can forget our epic cup battles from last year when we contested the Lancashire Cup final and reached the semi and quarter finals respectively of the Silk Cut Challenge Cup and Regal Trophy.

We'll be looking to emulate our success from last season, kicking off with today's Regal Trophy tie against Second Division leaders Salford.

We don't need any reminding that they beat us in the Lancashire Cup earlier in the season so we'll be looking to avenge that defeat and get back to winning ways against our local rivals.

Your continued support — which was very much appreciated against Widnes — will of course help our cause.

ROGER'S FOCUS

Oldham Evening Chronicle Rugby League writer,
Roger Halstead,
looks at today's visitors

SALFORD, hot favourites to make an immediate return to the First Division, further strengthened their squad last week when they signed the Sheffield forward Francis Leota in a straight swop for the Australian, Peter Tonks.

The news of Leota's capture, coupled with the return to action of long-standing injury victims Peter Williams and Mike Worrall, will enhance Salford's prospects of doing well in the cup competitions this season, as Oldham did last year when they were sitting pretty towards the top of the Second Division.

Under the coaching of Kevin Tamati, the Reds have already reached the final of the Lancashire Cup, knocking out Oldham en route, so a tremendous match is in prospect today in round one of the Regal Trophy.

Ian Sherratt, the former Oldham prop, will be keen to do well at Watersheddings on a personal note and it will be interesting to see whether another ex-Oldham man, Mick Worrall, has been able to force his way into the squad after playing his first game of the season in the 'A' team last weekend.

Salford owe much to their posse of recruits from the Union code such as centre Peter Williams, Welsh wing Adrian Hadley, and half-backs David Fell and Steve Kerry.

Fell had an outstanding game when Salford beat Oldham at the Willows in the county cup at the start of the season and Oldham will have to show good form to make home advantage count if they are to avenge that disappointment when Salford scored the winning try late in the game.

Striding Aussie full back Steve Gibson is a dangerous and speedy attacker when joining the line or clearing his lines and there is plenty of pace and power in a back division of Tex Evans, Williams, Hadley and former Wigan man John Gilfillan, a more recent recruit by the club.

The forwards are strong and mobile and, as a Second Division outfit, Salford are in the habit of winning... so Oldham will have to be on their mettle.

TODAY'S

VISITORS

Salford . . .

Steve Gibson: Fullback. The popular Australian fullback, formerly with Brisbane Souths, is now in his fourth season at the Willows. To date he has scored 43 tries in his 99 appearances for Salford.

Tex Evans: Winger. Signed from neighbours Swinton in a £40,000 move, he has scored 23 tries in 51 appearances since his move at the beginning of the 1988-89 season.

Martin Birkett: Centre. Joined Salford on a three year contract in December 1989 after representing English Schools and Colleges before being selected for the BARLA G.B. side prior to turning professional.

Peter Williams: Centre. A sensational capture from the Orrell RU club in March 1988, after representing both Lancashire RU and England RU, gaining four caps in all at the International level. Peter has already played for GB and Lancashire in the professional code.

Adrian Hadley: Winger. Turned professional in September 1988, becoming Salford's costliest signing at £100,000 in a four year deal. The former Welsh RU International and Cardiff club player has now settled in well at the Willows after a niggling injury halted his progress.

Frank Cassidy: Stand off. Another former Swinton player who joined Salford for £35,000 in November 1989. A clever footballer and accurate touch finder who originally played for Rose Bridge ARL.

David Fell: Stand off. Joined Salford from Orrell RU club on a five year contract in October 1989. Made his debut against Leeds last season.

Steve Kerry: Scrum half. Signed in December 1988 from the Preston Grasshoppers RU club. Prolific scorer who is improving all the time. After spells at stand off and on the wing he is now being given a run at scrum half. Top try scorer last season and the number one choice goal kicker at the Willows.

Shaun Brown: Scrum half. Forced his way into the first team last season after some dazzling Alliance team performances. Former BARLA G.B. International who toured Down Under in 1989. Played for Leigh East ARL as an amateur.

Ian Sherratt: Prop. Powerhouse front row forward signed in August 1989 from Oldham. Also had a spell with Bradford Northern where he began his professional career. A leg injury forced him to miss a large part of last season but he is now back to full fitness.

Mark Lee: Hooker. Bargain £15,000 signing from St. Helens in January. Went straight into the first team and has missed one match since then.

Shane Hansen: Second row. New Zealander with bags of experience having played for top Auckland side Northcote Tigers. Tremendous tackler who adds steel to the Salford pack.

Chris Whitley: Prop. Joined Salford from Wigan St. Patricks ARL club in August 1986 and was voted Alliance's Player of the Year in his first season at the club.

Arthur Bradshaw: Second row. Signed from Thatto Heath ARLC in August 1989 after representing BARLA at County level. Broke his leg in his first team debut match against Warrington but has now made a full recovery.

Ian Blease: Second row. Former Folly Lane ARL player who signed professional for Salford in March 1985. Developed well at the Willows and can play anywhere in the pack. Installed as captain of the side at the beginning of the season.

Andrew Burgess: Loose forward. Signed professional on his 17th birthday after several games with the Alliance side as an amateur. Previously played for Irlam Hornets ARLC.

*General Manager
Ray Hill
reports on the Watersheddings scene*

CONGRATULATIONS to pretty Amanda Norris, a worthy winner of this year's Boddingtons Bitter Miss Oldham Rugby Beauty Contest. She has been a fan of the club for over a decade and is looking forward to working with us.

I'd also like to thank all the other girls who entered to make the competition such a great success. And, of course, I'd like to thank our own Karen Scott who worked tremendously hard behind the scenes to make the night one to remember.

Another night to remember takes place this Wednesday at the Periquito Hotel when we host our Sportsmen Dinner. We've lined up a fabulous night's entertainment. There are few better ways of getting in the mood for Christmas so if you're interested catch me today or telephone me on 061-620 4870 to see if there are any tickets left!

Talking of Christmas, there's no better place to start your shopping than our Souvenir Shop, which is packed full of great gifts, many of them new ranges available for the first time. We've printed a complete list on page 9 so you can have a look at what's available at your leisure.

The shop is open 9.00-5.00 Monday to Friday, 9.30 to 11.30 Saturdays, and 1.00-5.00 for Sunday home games and 6.00-9.00 for Friday evening A Team games.

In the run up to Xmas, the shop will be open late on Thursday evenings from 6.00 to 8.30 from next Wednesday.

Finally, the Supporters Club are holding their annual Christmas Eve family night at the Sheddings on 24th December 1990. Tickets are £2.50 (adults) and £1.40 (children). Contact 061-665 1832 for further details.

This could be my last column before Christmas so on behalf of everyone at the club I'd like to wish all our loyal fans the very best for the festive season.

AMANDA'S NUMBER ONE

AMANDA NORRIS, 18, is the new Miss Oldham Rugby. Here she is seen receiving her sash from the retiring Miss Oldham Rugby Angela Knox (left). Amanda won an eight week modelling course, £150 and a silver salver in the Boddingtons Bitter sponsored competition. Says Amanda: "It is like a dream come true! I have supported Oldham Rugby for a number of years and I am over the moon to get the opportunity to represent them!"

PAUL ROUND DOUBLE ACT

Oldham forward Paul Round has won the Boddingtons Bitter sponsored November player of the month award for the second consecutive month.

Oldham Evening Chronicle Rugby League writer and award judge Roger Halstead said: "During a difficult month where the side has lost all four matches Paul Round has consistently performed well, both at prop and at second row. His attacking flair has never been in doubt. In addition, his tackling and workrate, particularly against Widnes, have been exemplary.

Paul will receive a £100 cheque, inscribed silver tankard and a case of Boddingtons to before today's match.

A-TEAM ROUND-UP

The Coach's View

OUR away game at Castleford saw us lose a match which I think, overall, we should have won.

Our downfall in the end was our first-half performance. As the first team had done the week before, we lost countless ball on first or second tackle and when we did hold the ball we tended to go sideways.

Losing young Tony Barrow early in the half with his broken cheekbone obviously did not help, especially as Neil Flanagan was fighting to keep going after picking up a knee injury, which eventually forced him to retire shortly after half-time.

My half-time talk was to simply tell the players to start to control the ball, to support the ball carrier, and to go forward. The result was a much improved performance. We scored two lovely tries and kicked a goal to put us 10-4 up with 15 minutes to go, but we just couldn't get over again despite a lot of pressure in their 25.

Castleford came back to score two late tries which resulted really more from luck than creative play.

The effort from the players was very good which, as coach, is all you can ask. With just a little more concentration we could have had the right result.

As far as our away-game performances go, we have definitely started to move in the right direction and can I just finish by wishing young Tony Barrow a very speedy recovery.

Word Cup Placings

Last Saturday's Australian victory in the third and final test at Elland Road was World Cup-rated and left the Aussies top of the five nations group with Great Britain in third place.

The current tournament, with points awarded for the final match in a series on a home and away basis, is due to finish with a World Cup final in the Autumn of 1992. The current positions are Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain, Papua New Guinea and France.

Record Breaker Part One

Ellery Hanley equalled a Great Britain record for the number of appearances as Captain when he led the team for a 17th time at Elland Road last Saturday. The record is also held by Alan Prescott. Their success record is similar with 11 wins apiece. However, defeat against the Aussies, who retained the Ashes, meant Hanley was unable to equal Jim Sullivan's record of 12 wins as captain which was set between 1927 and 1933.

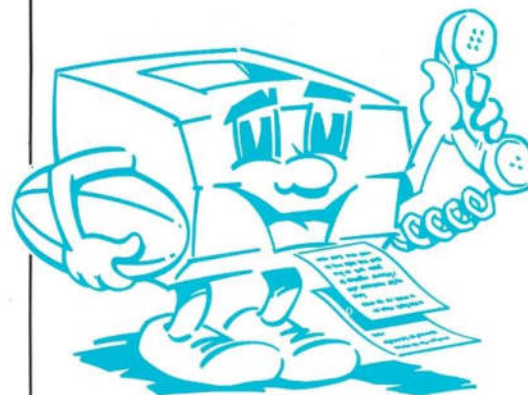

Record Breaker Part Two

The three tests between Great Britain and Australia produced a record aggregate of 130,889 beating the old record of 114,883 set in 1948 when Great Britain won all three tests.

Record Breaker Part 3

Victorious Aussie captain Mel Meninga became the second Aussie to score in all three test when he touched down in the third test last Saturday.

around Oldham*

LAST Saturday the inter-school Oldham-Leigh fixtures produced two major shocks.

An Under 16 unbeaten Leigh met an Oldham side, depleted by injury, still seeking its first win of the season and despite being 12-8 down at half-time Oldham stormed back to win 20-12. Captain Martin Halkyard was at his inspirational best scoring two fine tries as well as being involved in the others by forwards George Slicker and Jonathan Eastwood.

At Under 13 level Oldham squandered an early 10 point lead and an awful second half performance saw Leigh take the initiative and run out 11-10 winners.

On Sunday I had the pleasure of watching over schoolboy signing Paul Barrow, Captain of Lincs Under 16 Rugby Union against Warwickshire at Waterloo and there's no doubt that an England spot is available if Paul continues his excellent form of this season. He scored a try, made two more and kicked three goals. The real reason for my presence to run the rule over a couple of likely prospects but signings are not imminent I'm afraid. One is taken to training in his father's helicopter and the other is going back to live in Nigeria at Christmas!

- ★ The Imperial Tobacco Limited sponsorship of the Rugby League started in the 1967-68 season with the John Player "Player of the Match" and "Player of the Season" awards which ran until the 1971-72 season.
- ★ In 1970-71 a goal kicking competition was introduced for one season only.
- ★ From 1971-72 to 1979-80 the winner and runner-up of the BARLA National Cup entered the competition. In 1980-81 the winner only entered and then there was a lapse of two seasons before the winner and runner-up were again invited to enter from 1983-84.
- ★ From 1970 to 1982 the John Player BARLA Sevens competition played as a "curtain raiser" to the main Trophy matches. Prize money was £3,500, £4,500 and £5,500, and the winners were Waterhead, West Hull and Pilkington Recs.
- ★ From the 1989-90 season the main John Player Special Trophy was re-titled "The Regal Trophy" to coincide with the signing of a new sponsorship of Rugby League to its Silver Jubilee of 25 consecutive years in the 1991-92 season.
