Tunks' Talkback

Oldham's Coach
gives you his views

BATLEY'S surprise victory over First Division-bound Leigh has given us a welcome home advantage in the semi-final of the Premierships against our old friends from the South, London Crusaders. This is the fourth time they have played here this season, so it is almost a home fixture for them, too!

Our five previous encounters have all been close affairs and I expect today's game to be no different. London are very difficult to break down, as we have found out to our cost earlier this season. However, I think I can safely say that Oldham finished the strongest out of all the Second Division sides so we should expect to be favourites to reach the finals at Old Trafford next weekend.

Certainly a grand finale in front of a packed Old Trafford crowd is what you deserve for all your loyal support during what has been an extremely difficult and testing season. Many players have departed from the club, with new blood coming through, and I must say that I feel we have a better, stronger, more consistent side at the end of the season than we did at the start.

I would like to thank personally all the players who have pulled on an Oldham jersey this season and thank the loyal supporters, too.

Skipper's Spot

Oldham Captain
Neil Flanagan
looks at today's game

RUGBY LEAGUE can be a funny game. One minute Leigh are celebrating promotion at our expense. Next minute Batley are knocking them out of the Premiership, giving us an unexpected home game against — surprise, surprise — London Crusaders. Today's game is the sixth time we will have come face to face with London Crusaders, with each of the previous five matches being extremely close encounters. I'd expect this game to be no exception, especially as both teams are now extremely familiar with each other.

Naturally we'll be going all out to make the Premiership finals to give our loyal fans a grand finale at the traditional end of season party at Old Trafford.

In the few months that this current side has been together, I feel we have grown together as a team, with several young players building justifiable reputations as outstanding and exciting attackers.

Old Trafford would be a fitting stage for us all to display our talents to show the First Division what they will be missing next season. What's more, it will give Oldham's loyal supporters the chances to enjoy a superb day out at a packed ground to sample all the thrills and spills of cup final Rugby League. Many of you will obviously remember the dramatic fightback against Hull KR two years ago when Oldham recovered from a 20-point deficit to win 30-29.

If we beat London Crusaders today we will be looking to keep your blood pressures respectable by not leaving it until the last minute to score the winning points. Give us your backing today and cheer us on to another Premiership. Who knows, we could be collecting our third Premiership trophy in less than six years.

A Watersheddings welcome to . . . London Crusaders

Colin Atkinson: Signed from Halifax, this very fast centre/wing has extensive experience of the game. Previously with Keighley and Bramley. Former student international. Will frighten a few defenders this season.

Ben Beevers: Signed from Halifax to be in contention for a first-team place today. Highly experienced, hard-tackling front rower.

Shane Buckley: Recruited by Struddy from Valleys, Brisbane. A current Queensland representative side member. Extremely capable full-back/centre whose pace and positional skills will enthral Crusaders supporters.

Lachlan Churchill: Came into the side last season after the departure of Craig Grauf, and looked the part of a tricky, play-making half-back. Sparkled at Barrow last season when given added responsibility, and should develop under Struddy even more this year. One to watch.

Nick Halafihi: Fast-moving second-row forward with an eye for scoring tries. Started his career with Hull Colts, achieved international honours at student level as well as playing for Sheffield Eagles. Had an impressive debut for the London Crusaders, scoring a try and earning the man of the match award.

Ben Olsen: Crusaders' Great Dane. A convert by the London side from Queensland RU. Set to play an important role in the second row. Has excellent ball-handling skills, and should provide some of the penetration lacking from the side last year.

Darryl Pitt: Well known to Cumbrian RL followers from his Carlisle days, Darryl was Crusaders' top try-scorer last season. Has formed a strong centre partnership with Mick Taylor. Interception tries a speciality, and always quick to spot an opening.

Steve Robdlen: Originally with Bundaberg and then Brisbane Norths for three years. He spent his last two years with North Sydney playing in the grand final reserve grade winning side. A new and exciting second-row/loose forward looking forward to a successful career with London Crusaders.

Dave Rotherham: Very consistent performer during 1990-91, at hooker. Has come through the ranks as a student international, and continues to be a reliable and valuable team member. May well convert to prop this season, but will in any event provide quality in the forwards.

Chris Smith: Former RU full-back who Struddy is converting into a second-row forward. London-based, Chris originates from Northampton. Fast and mobile, definitely one to watch this season.

Mick Taylor: Highly-rated centre, who followed Struddy south from Halifax, having gained considerable experience at Thrum Hall and at Oldham, where he began his professional career. Reliable and consistent, Mick is a firm favourite with Crusaders fans.

Bernie Wilkinson: Played extremely well for the club during 1990-91, and was another Struddy recruit from former club Halifax. What has been Halifax's loss has certainly been Crusaders' gain, and much more is expected from him this season.

Jason Wing: Resigned from the Great Britain Olympic bobsleigh squad to join Crusaders. A nationally ranked sprinter (100m) and long jumper. Appropriately earmarked for the left-wing slot, and set to become a crowd-pleaser if potential fulfilled.

Glen Workman: Coached the Alliance Side for part of last season, but decided that he could still make a valuable contribution to the first team. Never stops running; a strong motivating hooker who is set to make Crusaders tick at the play-the-ball.

Hill's Highlights

Commercial Manager Ray Hill reports on the Watersheddings Scene

BY the time you read today's notes, I will already have left Watersheddings for pastures new at Swinton as Commercial Manager. Although I am naturally looking forward to a new and exciting challenge with Swinton, I will be saying goodbye to the Watersheddings with a heavy heart as I have enjoyed immensely my five truly memorable years with the club.

On the field, I've experienced ups and downs as the club has been promoted and relegated twice, at the same time as embarking upon some really dramatic cup runs. I'll never forget our two Silk Cut Challenge semi-finals or that nail-biting Premiership victory against Hull KR. Off the field, I feel it has been one continual success story as the club's finances have been boosted by the commercial activities managed by myself. I can leave the club happy in the knowledge that the club's commercial activities have never been healthier.

Whoever takes over my job will inherit a superb team, who have not only made my job a lot easier but also made it a lot more enjoyable, too. I'd like to go on record to thank them for their help and friendship. The players and coaching staff have all played their part, too, in making my period at the club a time to treasure. Rugby League attracts sportsmen of a calibre that few sports can ever hope to match and I'd like to thank all of them, too, for their invaluable friendship and great humour.

Likewise, the directors past and present have played their part. A big thank you amongst others to Jim Knox, Harvey Ashworth, Greg Pache, Dave Gardener, Tom Patterson, Jim Quinn and John Chadwick.

But the real people who made my time here one to remember are you, the fans. I've made hundreds of friends in Oldham since joining the club and I'll miss the comradeship and spirit of the Oldham supporters that makes this club so special.

Finally, I'd like to thank everyone at last Saturday's farewell party at the club, especially the nurse who took my blood pressure!

Beautiful memories.

Good luck for the future.

THE 'ALTERNATIVE' AWARDS

TIM STREET was a worthy Castlemaine XXXX player of the year as he has been in outstanding form this season. However, Tim isn't the only Oldham player to be honoured this season, as here we present our light hearted 'alternative' Roughyed awards.

If at first you don't succeed award for perseverance award... Mike Ford, the former Oldham scrum-half, who appeared in the last three Silk Cut Challenge Cup semi-finals before booking a Wembley appearance with Castleford. Sadly, Cas and Mike failed to beat Wigan last Saturday.

Accidents will happen but this is getting beyond a joke award... Keith Atkinson, who once again this season suffered a couple of horrendous injuries. On the bright side, Keith has been awarded a testimonial next season and is looking forward to your support.

Devotion beyond the call of duty award... Ian Bates, who cut short his honeymoon to play for Oldham R.L.F.C.

More players on trial than the Old Bailey award... to every trialist who pulled on an A Team jersey (you know who you are) during a season of transition for Oldham's reserve side. A special merit award to the spectator who went to watch and ended up playing!

One step ahead of the competition award (number 1)... Peter Tunks, who signed Kiwi Logan Edwards at Manchester Airport.

We'll meet again and again and again award... to London Crusaders, who Oldham have played six times this season (including today's game).

If you're good enough, you're old enough award... Neil Flanagan, who followed in Uncle Terry's footsteps, who became Oldham's skipper at the tender age of 21.

Green, green grass of home award... big hearted Ian Sherratt, who returned to the club after a couple of seasons with Salford to add his weight and sheer determination to the Oldham pack.

Loyalty award... Pat Kemp from High Crompton, who is the Supporter of the Year after 45 years following the club. She wins two season tickets and a replica kit.

One step ahead of the competition award (number 2)... Peter Tunks (again), who surprised the Rugby League world with his audacious signing of the outstanding Iva Ropati from Sheffield.

Gratitude starts here award... to the Lifeline member who won loadsamoney and promptly left the society.

Let's do it different award... Ray Hill and Bukta, who came up with Rugby League's definitive 'designer kit' which certainly caught the eye this season.

A big thanks cos you're simply the best award... to everyone who watched Oldham this year. We appreciate your support.

SPOTLIGHT ON STEVE WARBURTON

STEVE WARBURTON, a professional for only 12 months, discovered the harsh realities of the pro game when he was knocked cold for 24 hours in a match against Carlisle. That injury kept him in hospital for several days and out of the game for a month but didn't put him off a dramatic comeback to score two tries against Leigh in Oldham's final league game of the season.

Since turning professional with Oldham from amateur club Woolston, Steve has embarked upon a Rugby League education, although he knows there is still a long way to go. "I have been disappointed in some of the aspects of my game — mainly defence — but I know what I have to do in the close season and I will be giving it everything I have."

Steve, still only 23, is looking to emulate his role model, Wigan's record medal winner, Shaun Edwards. "When I am as strong and as fit as him I'll be satisfied. His support play is phenomenal and although much of it is instinctive he couldn't do it unless he was super-tuned," commented Steve, who was planning to play in Australia in the summer but rejected the idea in favour of getting ready for next season. "I've got over my first season as a pro and next year will be crucial — not just for me but for a lot of the lads who have come through this year. The summer will be crucial. It is vital that we prepare well and I am determined to start next season fitter, faster and stronger."

Steve, who has already represented Lancashire's open-age amateur side, is looking to emulate Shaun Edwards on the international front, too. "Players should set goals and mine is to play for Great Britain. I might not achieve it but I have to go for it in order to get as far as I can." For now, however, Steve, like the rest of his team-mates, will be happy with a win today to set up a grand finale at Old Trafford.

CASTLEMAINE

TOP AWARDS FROM XXXX

CASTLEMAINE XXXX chose the Easter Bank Holiday match against Leigh to make an important presentation — the XXXX Player of the Year award.

Tim Street, already holder of three Player of the Month awards, was voted the winner by Oldham fans for his sterling work for the club during an often difficult season.

He is pictured here (right) receiving the trophy along with a cheque for £250 and, of course, a supply of Castlemaine XXXX from (centre) Mark Geraghty, Tetley Walker's free trade sales representative. With them is Neil Flanagan, March's Player of the Month.

One very special presentation has yet to be made. Pat Kemp, from High Crompton, Shaw, is a long-standing Oldham fan — in fact, she's supported the club for about 45 years! Now her devotion has been rewarded and she has been named XXXX Supporter of the Year. Unassuming Pat, who was stunned to hear she had even been nominated for the award, wins two season tickets and a replica kit.
