FROM THE BOARDROOM

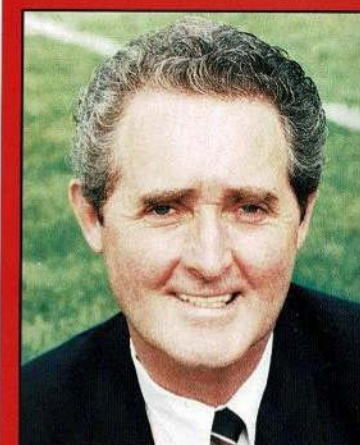

BY CHAIRMAN JIM QUINN

In welcoming Bradford Northern to Watersheddings for tonight's Stones Bitter Championship game I hope the weather is decent because Chris Caisley and I are sure to exchange a few words about the benefits of summer rugby. Chris, the Bradford chairman and very much his own man, chaired the summer rugby sub-committee commissioned by the Rugby League, which also included Sheffield's Gary Hetherington and myself. Our findings and recommendations have been given a serious platform for debate and I, for one, believe that the work, time and energy we put in on this very important project were worthy and deserving of more recognition.

I remain convinced that a season running from around mid-March to October, cutting out the months of December, January and February, is the way forward for our game and I am equally certain that other winter sports will start to look at that option before too long. Anyway, enough of that for now. Welcome Bradford, to Chris Caisley and his board, and all the players and supporters from Odsal, not forgetting (as if we could) a coaching staff headed by Peter Fox. It is interesting to note that Peter has been offered a new, four-year contract, as surely befits a senior and high-ranking "member" of the English sector among our coaches.

Now to a subject that is close to my heart and which I feel ever so strongly about - good manners and etiquette in our rugby league grounds on match days. In recent weeks there have been letters of complaint in the press about the behaviour of a small section of fans on certain grounds. It came home to me at Old Trafford when a section of British supporters howled and hooted at the Australian team as the players left the tunnel and walked to the middle, continuing their boos and whistles during the playing of the Australian national anthem. To be honest, I was disgusted. Whether it be Oldham, Bradford Northern or Great Britain we all want to support our own boys and give them all the backing we can, but surely we should have some respect for values and at least treat our visiting players and supporters as we would want them to treat us. I shudder to think what the travelling Australian supporters thought about it all. Most of them are middle-aged and many are probably making their first trip to this country. I do hope that incidents we saw at Old Trafford are not the norm at our matches throughout their trip.

I think the Press can play a vital role in drawing attention to these matters and politely reminding the small minority who need reminding that most of us want to enjoy rugby for the spectacle it is and enjoy standing on our grounds and supporting the players.

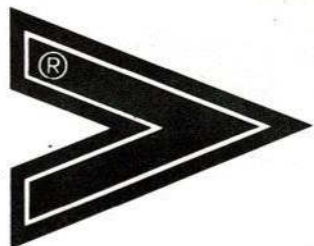

We do not enjoy having to put up with rank bad manners. More importantly, this sort of behaviour gives the game a bad image, discourages newcomers from turning up again and gives the knockers ammunition to fire at all and sundry.

Our great game is worthy of more than that. Its future depends on each and every one of us.

GOODWAY & McCURRIE

Welcome to Watersheddings for what is our first home game for some weeks.

The coaching staff are looking forward to the next three league games with some relish as it will give us a fair indication as to how we are progressing.

Bradford, tonight's opponents being followed by Wigan away and Warrington at home, these clubs will all be there or there about in the final reckoning and we have already played these all in the first month of the season.
Having lost all these games we shall be looking for a big improvement from our players.
Jason Temu appears to be settling in nicely and together with Joe Fiamalo going well we are very pleased with our new overseas players.

Wilson Marsh our third Kiwi
signing will hopefully soon recover from a lingering knee problem and perform up to the standard of his fellow countrymen.

The players continue to work hard and improve in training and we feel they should be ready to compete with the Bradford's and Warrington's of the First Division.

So let's look forward to a couple
of good home wins.

GRASS ROOTS ROUGHYEDS

A LOOK AT THE LOCAL AMATEUR RUGBY SCENE

Next Sunday our leading amateur clubs and in particular the National Conference giants, will be able to gauge themselves against professional opposition when 14 amateur sides travel to meet Second Division opposition in the first round of the Regal Trophy.

Local club Saddleworth Rangers will be making their fourth appearance against the professionals in this competition when they travel to Gigg Lane to take on Swinton. It is a repeat of last seasons first round tie which was won by Swinton 24-13. The return to Saddleworth of Sean Whitehead is a tremendous boost to Rangers hopes but a home win is likely although Saddleworth will certainly provide a test for the professionals.

Another amateur side capable of causing an upset are National Conference Champions Woolston Rovers who had hoped to be playing in the Second Division this season. For that reason alone Rovers have a point to prove on Sunday against Rochdale Hornets. It should be an intriguing contest.

Two amateur sides who have beaten professional opposition in the Regal Trophy are again involved this weekend.

Mysons, who beat Batley 8-2 in 1986 meet Bramley and West Hull, who as Cawoods beat Halifax 9-8 in 1977, travel to Ryedale York, those exploits will spur on the amateurs although all will start as underdogs.

No matter who won last Saturdays semi-final ties, Oldham will be represented in the final of the Burtonwood Brewery Lancashire Cup. In that final either Higginshaw or St. Annes will meet holders and favourites Woolston Rovers or Wigan St. Judes who won at Saddleworth in the quarter-finals. The date and venue of the final was not known as these notes went into print so watch out in the local press for details and be sure to support the local boys in this big final.

St. Annes involvement in the Lancashire Cup has caused them to fall a little behind in their league programme. Saints now face two tricky way games in their quest to gain promotion into the Premier Division. This Saturday they visit Leigh East and seven days later travel to Wakefield where they meet Oulton.

Saddleworth Rangers face an important match on Saturday, 3rd December when Askam visit Shaw Hall Bank Road. Rangers lie in the lower regions of the Premier Division after a difficult start to the campaign. Askam are bottom of the table without a win so a Rangers victory is essential if they are to begin a climb up the table.

STONES

THE MAJOR SPONSOR OF RUGBY LEAGUE.

Sponsorship & Hospitality Packages 1994/95

During the year we hold many fund-raising and promotional events for companies.

Why not sponsor the whole event? This includes all publicity material carrying your company message or logo, photograph in the local press and matchday programme. Also the opportunity to discuss your product or service with a 'captive' audience.

This Years Events Include:-

GOLF TOURNAMENT

A day out for guests or colleagues at a local golfing venue. Enjoy the chance of winning a new car for a hole-in-one at a designated hole. This together with a meal after your round and a prize giving ceremony with a comedian or speaker makes the whole day one to remember.

SPORTSMANS EVENINGS

After the success of our last two dinners tickets are in great demand. Again supported by local media and businesses gives you and your company the opportunity of entertaining guests for a full evening of quality. Quality food, quality wine, quality speakers.

LUNCHEON CLUB

This year for those who feel unable to attend the Sportsmans Dinners in the evenings, they will have the opportunity to 'socialise' with clients or colleagues over a lunch which also has a celebrity speaker. The ideal way to mix business and pleasure, combining the highest quality cuisine, celebrity speaker and an afternoons entertainment.

PROMOTE YOUR COMPANY

This is a unique concept to Rugby League and one we feel will be very successful. The idea comes from America and it is quite simple.

At each home game a company 'Gives' away merchandise (agreed between ourselves) this could be:

Umbrellas • Baseball Caps • Pens • Radios (Quantities to be agreed)

The list is endless

Each gift will have the name of your company on it and also something connecting it with Oldham R.L.F.C.

These items and games are advertised in advance and this will encourage children, adults and families to attend in the hope of getting a 'gift'.

The choice of gifts are endless these can range from pin badges or T-shirts to shaving kits or umbrellas.

TICKETS

During the season we accept that every game is not going to be a 'sell out'. So we have decided to sell these tickets to companies at greatly reduced prices. The tickets are only for standing areas and cannot be exchanged for seats.

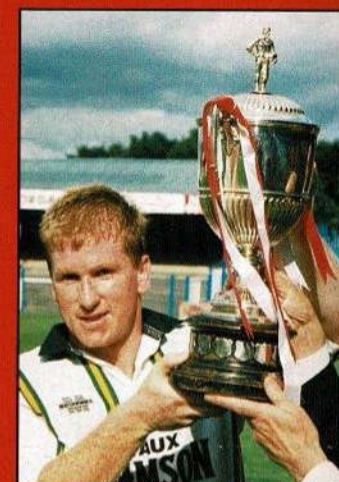

The regular ticket prices are – Adult £6.00 – Child/OAP £3.00

These tickets can be used as prizes, or simply public relation exercises.

The tickets will be available for the following games:

Doncaster • Workington T. • Wakefield T. • Sheffield E. • Hull

The tickets are available in 100's

THE GROWING GAME

Development News Supported by P.Casey and Co and Sportsmatch

Welcome to another night game. I hope it proves as successful for Oldham as the previous night game against Widnes. I'll bring you up to date with a few recent activities. The collection at the Featherstone game raised £303.00 for the Town Teams to go towards kitting the Under 11's and Under 13's. Thanks to all contributors. The Town Teams themselves seem to be responding as this last weekend they have played Warrington in the Lancashire Plate Final. Also on Saturday morning 3 girls teams went over to Wigan to play against teams from Wigan and Trafford in the first of what we hope will become a Greater Manchester Girls League. The schools held their third Mini League Festival of the season with twelve schools competing. The total number of Junior schools to play in Mini League Festivals since September is now nineteen of which four are new this season. Mike Kuiti has just completed a short course in 5 Mossley Junior Schools. This culminated in a Festival for about 75 young players in Mossley two weeks ago. Jason and Joe came along to referee the games which were a great success and will hopefully lead on to further games. Our guest schools tonight are Micklehurst (Mossley), South Failsworth, St. Annes, Lydgate and Leesfield. Welcome to those and enjoy your evening. We also welcome the visitors from the other Mossley Schools who are watching tonight. Next week we hope to set about forming a Junior Club in Failsworth so anyone who wishes to be involved in that initiative would be very welcome and should contact me at Hathershaw Pool on 627 4497.

TRUE
LIVES
ON ...

In these days of alleged corruption, possible widespread drug taking and transfers with more noughts in them than a Norwegian entry for the European Song Contest it's nice to know that at least in one respect the true spirit of sport lives on. I'm talking about the Great Britain Press versus the Australian Press Rugby League series which is now two thirds of the way completed. The first game played at the Sir Alfred McAlpine Stadium in Huddersfield saw the Lions snatch victory with a dramatic last minute try from Clubcalls Jack Dearden, Jack by the way suffered a broken finger doing his patriotic duty. The second game was a vastly different story with the Aussies levelling the series with a 16 points to 8 victory at the Willows. The Brits led by manager Paul Harrison of the Sun put up a defiant defence before succumbing to the tourists who possessed basic qualities the Brits lacked, fitness, skill etc etc. Ray French had to leave the field with a serious leg injury and there's doubt whether he will have recovered for the final game which is due to take place in Sydney Australia in 1996. David Burke scored one of the two home tries proving that the experience he gained whilst at Rochdale Hornets really did prepare him for this his finest hour, and special mention must also go to the likes of Dave Hadfield and Martin Hamer who despite being the only two people I know of that are actually slower than me still performed heroics before gratefully acknowledging defeat and the final whistle. Final word I believe should rest with the manager, who in thanking the referee for both games John Holdsworth of Kippax refused to offer any excuses for his sides dismal showing, other than that is to say that Holdsworth was outstanding in the first match and pathetic in the second. Harrison also said that one major factor in the defeat at the Willows was because they played in the Salford kit. Tickets are expected to be at a premium for the decider in 1996 and people are advised to place their orders early.

Unfortunately our last outing resulted in a defeat by Wigan at Central Park in the Lancs Shield Final last Saturday. Despite dominating the game for 65mins., scoring three tries (two of which were disallowed) and failing to put the finishing touch to at least four other clear-cut chances, we fell asleep, lost concentration and, with the score at Wigan Opts Oldham 10pts, let Wigan in for four converted tries. Gary Burns scored a try and a drop-goal, Steve Gartland a drop-goal and Craig Booth kicked two goals. Gary Burns won the Man of the Match award which was small consolation for losing a game we could and should have won. Wigan didn't win it, we gave it to them. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the regular Alliance Team supporters who gave a tremendous lift to the players with their vociferous encouragement. Sorry we couldn't bring the Shield back for you, now we'll concentrate on the League. At the time of writing, we are riding high at the top of the 1st Division having played 9, won 7 and lost 2; no mean feat having achieved promotion from the 2nd Division at the end of last season. Warrington beat us early in the season and we recently went short-handed to Featherstone and came a cropper. Having said that, the three Academy players used in that game did everything expected of them and by no means let the side down. A number of Alliance players have been given a First Team chance and I am sure that they have impressed Andy by the way they have fitted in. The presence of players pushing for a First Team place keeps everyone on their toes. This after all is the raison d'être of the Alliance Squad and Andy has shown that he is willing to ring the changes, thus giving a boost to all players in the Alliance. Our next home fixture is Wigan at home on Friday 25th November at 7.30pm. Come along and give us your support, you won't be disappointed.

The Academy got their first win in the new league at home to York on Monday night by 16 points to 2. They had to be at their best after their bad result against Halifax in their opening match when two of our players were involved in a car crash resulting in our team being short of players. Going back to the York victory, sound tackling and scrambling defence were the key points in this win, as York being a physical side were always close to staging a comeback until Wayne Riding's try seven minutes from the end killed them off. Chris McKinney scored two excellent tries in the first half both goaled by Richard Badby who constantly drove York back with long touch-finding kicks. Billy Tindall, Mike Prescott and Darren Morgan also played well for Oldham in a hard fought match.

RUFF E. HEAD

THE MAN IN THE KNOW

“ Martin Offiah's options for his choice as Sky TV's try of the month might even feature a couple of our efforts, I suspect. Ranson's (vs Widnes) and Abrams (vs Halifax) were both classics of their types - and much enjoyed on the terraces, I know. It's good to see, after 11 games, six teams below us in the "points for" list. Although we only occasionally manage to show it consistently throughout a game, at least we have shown ourselves capable of playing some top quality rugby at times this season. ”

“ Andy Goodway's comments after the Halifax game set me thinking a bit. "It's a mental weakness", was his view. "I'm sure some players have switched off because we played Halifax today, and we are due to meet Bradford, Wigan and Warrington in the next three games. It's that early season problem all over again." How often is mental toughness the crucial difference between winning and losing sides? For example, Wigan were by no means anywhere near top form in their latest Sky Friday night games. Both Hull and Sheffield could argue that they ought to have won - but they didn't. When it mattered, they made crucial mistakes, whereas the Pie-eaters simply showed the inner confidence to hold on and then take their chances when they came. And, of course, it is not just confined to RL. How many of Jim Laker's 19 wickets at Old Trafford in 1956 were virtually given to him? How many of Shane Warne's victims, or Ian Botham's for that matter, have been "psyched" out before they even faced a ball? The coach, though, has the problem of how to eradicate the negative mentality, and generate the positive. Andy Goodway certainly had what it takes as a player, but it is far too soon to know whether he has it as a manager/coach. Perhaps he should study the methods of Brian Clough and Bill Shankly for his bed-time reading! ”

“ What a strange-looking Division 1 table already exists! There is no doubt that the "Super-League" is already here except in name. The top 7 seems to be decided already, with every chance that they will also take all the cups, and also fill the top 7 slots in the attendances chart at the end of the season. On the other hand, the relegation dog-fight is already in the minds of the other 9. A win tonight would put us in 8th place; a loss, though, puts us within 2 points of the relegation places. ”

“ With the prospect of a move of ground lying ahead, it is interesting to look at other clubs who have experienced such a change in recent years. In the current 1st Division, there are no recent ground changers, except the infant club at Sheffield; but in the 2nd Division, there are no less than 10 of the 16. Perhaps there is a lesson there? What have we got to do to get it right? I suspect the crucial factor will be to involve the regular spectators as much as possible in the move. Move, fall in attendances, fall in income, less quality players, relegation looks like a potentially disastrous vicious cycle, which can only be avoided by taking every possible step to retain support from the outset. Perhaps a survey of current supporters, together with some research into the views of those at such clubs as Hull KR, Ryedale York and Rochdale might be a sensible starting point? ”

RECORD BREAKING SPONSORSHIP KICKS OFF 1994-95 REGAL TROPHY FIRST ROUND DRAW DETAILS

The 1994-95 Regal Trophy kicks off its 28th consecutive year of Imperial Tobacco sponsorship, this season worth a record breaking £410,000, when the draw for the first round takes place next Wednesday, 26th October.

The draw will be broadcast live at 11.30am on BBC Radio Leeds and networked to all local and national Radio and television stations in the Rugby League playing areas throughout the day.

This will be the second successive year that the Competitions first round brings together leading teams from the British amateur game alongside the two most successful French clubs as opponents of the 16 Second Division professional clubs, once again the Rugby Football League's 16 First Division clubs are seeded through to the second round.

Into the first round draw will go the 16 professional Second Division clubs and they will all play at home. Their visitors will be the three former professional clubs, Blackpool Gladiators, Chorley Borough and Nottingham City, plus the six leading national Conference League teams headed by Champions, Walsley and followed by Hemel Hempstead, Dudley Hill, Leigh Miners, Saddleworth and West Hull. Also included are the five BARLA regional league champions, Hensingham (Cumberland), Mysons (Humbly Grove), Overden (Pannine), Queens (Yorkshire) and Thatch Heath (North West Counties) and the two French teams. The Regal Trophy first round matches have to be played by Sunday, 27th November 1994.

This season the Regal Trophy is worth £410,000, made up of prize money totalling £246,000 with increases in every round and the highest ever first prize of £36,000 awaiting the eventual winner. Once again the prize money is backed up by a contribution to the League's all-important Capital Development fund, this time a record £164,000.
