CHAIRMAN'S COMMENTS

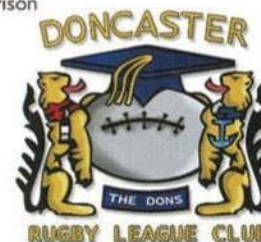

Firstly I would like to welcome Oldham and all their travelling supporters. Last time we met Oldham were more than gracious hosts so I hope we can return the favour.

As most are aware we have suffered two back to back defeats in the league and form is slipping of late. The away defeat at Rochdale was probably one of the worst displays of rugby I have seen and it was no surprise that the score line read 50-8 at full time. Then in the weekend travelling away to Keighley is no fun for any team, but to have the game all but won and then gift it to the opposition in the dying minutes was heart wrenching for me and I can guarantee that many a travelling supporter would have felt the same.

Oldham have also come off the back of a loss so our lads will really have to put their bodies on the line today and show some true character to reverse form and get back to the brilliant style of winning rugby we know the boys can play, as we have all seen it at one time or another this year.

I know it might seem tough right now but the true resilience of a team (fans included) is when they still manage to stay strong even through testing times. Every team suffers a reverse in form you just have to look at World Champion Leeds Rhinos, so today will be the start of the Dons resurgence back on to the winning track, I can just feel it.

Come on you Dons

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S COMMENTS

The Dons wish to send out a special message to Gavin from Rossington who is a close personal friend of Kevin Needham, a long term supporter of the Dons. We hope you have a speedy recovery from all the Squad and coaches.

Congratulations to the Moorends Marauders for winning the Lancashire & South Yorkshire Regional final in the weekend with Dons Captain Pete Green proving he has a knack for successful coaching as well.

CAMRA PUB OF THE SEASON
Season 2007

Hatfield Lane, Armthorpe
Tel: 01302 831208

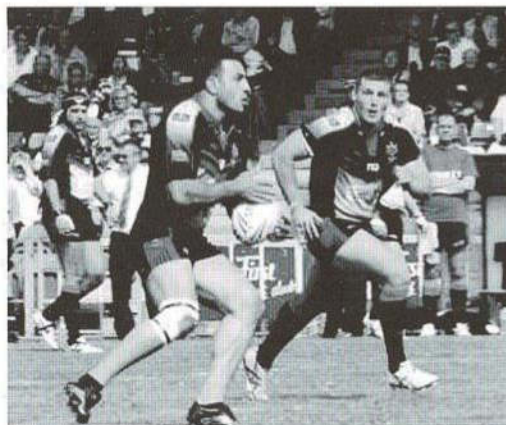

IN TOWN TODAY OLDHAM ROUGHYEDS

Roughyed' is a nickname for a person from Oldham, it is derived from the rough felt used in the hatting industry which once employed many people in Oldham. Oldham are steeped in history and is also one of the original twenty-two rugby clubs that formed the Northern Rugby Football Union in 1895, making them one of the world's first rugby league teams.

In 2007, a few games into the new season, the excavation and demolition firm, The William Quinn Group, acquired 75% stake of the club. Bill Quinn became the club's new chairman, with previous owners Chris Hamilton and Sean Whitehead remaining as directors. In May 2007, Oldham took part in the first ever National League 2 match broadcast live on British television, on Sky Sports. The match was considered a warm-up for the Millennium Magic weekend in Cardiff the following day and, due to fans of Super League teams attending, attracted NL2's highest ever attendance of 3,441.

That NL2 attendance record was broken in the return fixture in August 2007 between Oldham and Celtic Crusaders, again in front of the Sky Sports cameras, when 4,327 fans turned up at Boundary Park beating the old record by 886. It was also Oldham's largest attendance since the early 90s. The event also raised around £8,000 for local charities and the rugby league players' benevolent fund. Oldham are currently sitting fourth on the table having lost only four games. The last time these two teams met an enthusiastic Oldham side outplayed the Dons 36-16 in front of a crowd of 2806 and Sky sport cameras. With losses in the weekend both teams will be desperate for the win to reverse form. The Dons have extra motivation to exact revenge, reverse form of late and begin their climb back up the NL2 table.

COACH COMMENTS

I would like to welcome everyone that has made the trip from Oldham today I hope you all had a pleasant and safe journey to the Keepmoat Stadium.

We have a very gruelling run towards the end of the season but the way we get through it is a matter of two things. One the way the boys bodies hold up and secondly how mentally strong the boys are to really push towards promotion. It shall be a real test for us. I know tonights game will be a tough one with Oldham pushing for that automatic promotion spot.

I can guarantee there will be maximum effort from the whole squad till the end of the league campaign and everything thereafter. We will give everything for the cause so stay with us loyal supporters and push us on.

Enjoy the game.

PLAYER PROFILE: KYLE WOOD

How long have you played Rugby League and who was your junior club?
I have played since I was six years old. My junior club was Locklane in Castleford. That's where my talent showcase began!

What got you interested in playing?
It was my family that got me into playing. Mainly my dad, who really got behind me and really pushed me.

How have you enjoyed your time at the Dons?
I have had a really good time. I get along with the boys they are always clowning around and that. I also like the crowd who seem to get behind us all the time even when the team are going through tough times. I'm really enjoying my football at the moment as well.

When you first left the Dons Ellery "saved your spot" did you know you would be coming back?
Yeah I talked to El before I left and I told him that when I finished training with Wakefield for that period that I would like to come back. He said "Topman!"

Ellery also commented that he believes you have what it takes to go to the next level, what do you think?
It's a great compliment to receive from someone like El. I would definitely like to play Super League especially for a top team like Leeds, Saints or even Wakey.

Rumours are a strife that Mark Castle is your body guard and you pay him in bottles of whisky?
Haha! I do tend to grow another foot when Cas is around...

You have been said to look a lot like the missing member of a boy band, which boy band would you be missing from and what would be your boy band name?

The Quick Fire IQ test

1. If it takes 3 minutes to boil 1 egg, how long will it take to boil 2 eggs?
Woody's Answer: Still 3 minutes (correct)

2. You are running in a street marathon and you overtake the person in second place, what position are you now in?
Woody's Answer: Still second (correct)

3. How many anagrams of the word TREAD can you find?
Woody's Answer: Trade, Rated, Deart? (Wrong) Trade, Rated, Tared

4. Woody lives in a large tower block, 10 floors high. He goes to training each day using the lift from the 10th floor to the ground floor. However, when he returns in the evening, he uses the lift to get to the 5th floor and then uses the stairs for the remaining 5 floors. Why?
Woody's Answer: Broken Elevator (Wrong) Cos he can't reach the 10th floor button Floor 5 is the highest he can reach

5. What is so fragile that when you say its name, you break it?
Woody's Answer: silence (correct)

KITMAN'S CORNER

Hi all,

Ladies Night was a great success last home game and I'm sure that all that attended were not disappointed especially when Jason Hart wore his heart on his sleeve so to speak and got off his clothes for charity all the way down to a red thong that was a hit with all the Ladies! Also Scott Jones fronted up to take of his gear a well. Well done Karen Bailey and Lisa Morton for the success of such an event. You could tell by the smiles on the faces of ladies leaving at the end of the night that there were alot of satisfied women.

The Dons have let Rachid Ahlalou return to France after coming on loan to the Dons for two weeks. Ahlalou has returned because of an injured finger and will be returning to his UTC club for pre season. We wish him all the best and understand that he will be starting pre season training with Catalan Dragons in November. His James Brown dance moves and constant renditions of classic Michael Jackson songs will be missed around the changing rooms.

Everybody remembers how painstakingly awful Westlife were and how the music they made a decade ago could churn stomachs. But at a recent concert in Sheffield a former associate of the club was seen hurling his lunch all down the side of his limousine after enduring 2 hours of their music. It was either the music or the 3 bottles of 'fermented grape juice' he downed during the event.

A certain back in the team has been labelled a real "Mummy's Boy" after team mates discovered he gets his mum to pack his lunch for the long away bus trips. He was quite excited the other day when he discovered his mother had packed his favourite sweets for him in his little lunch pack, but quite upset when senior players ate most of them.

It has also been discovered that the same player often loves to sing while driving. The only problem being they are often various top 40 RnB love singles by artists Chris Brown, Ne-Yo and Jordin Sparks and often sung to his passenger Mark Castle on their way to trainings.

A WORD FROM CARL HALL

ENJOY THE GAME
 CARL "THE POSTMAN" HALL
 "COME ON YOU DON'S"

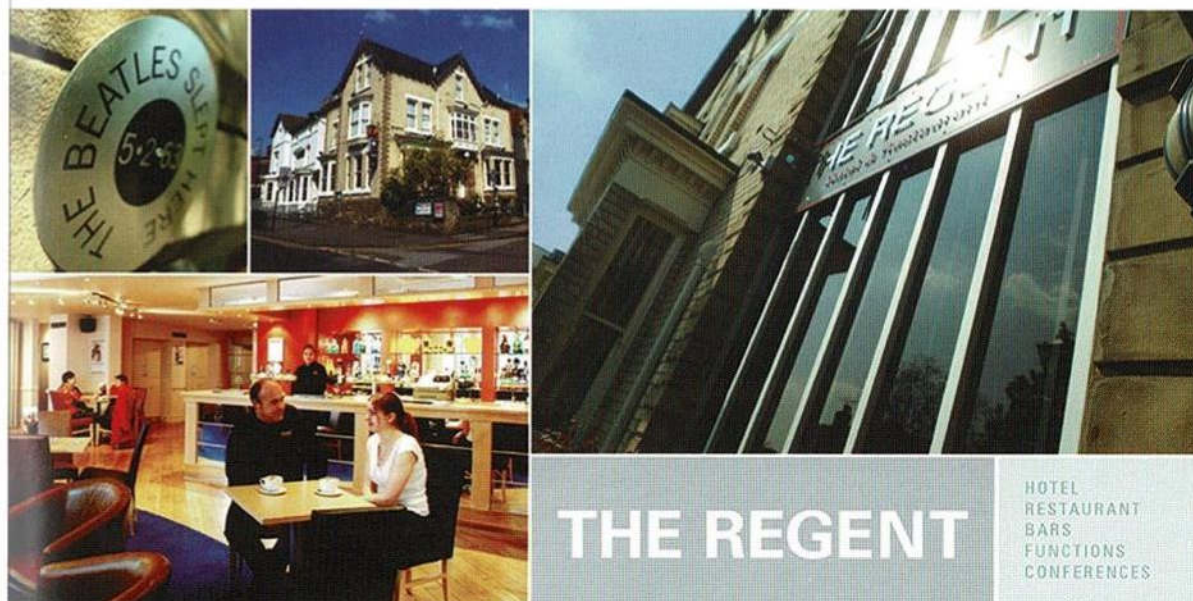

Would like to welcome everyone from Oldham to the Keepmoat today for what should be an interesting game with both of us coming off the back of defeats on the weekend.

Thought our players got stuck in at Keighley after all the stick they received from the Rochdale game and should have won the game. But like Ellery told them before and after the game that games are won over the 80 minutes which Keighley proved by scoring on the hooter which was gutting.

Would like to welcome Nathan Freer to the club whom I felt had a solid debut for us as well as Matty Bower both from Hull FC. All the best lads.

We are having a fan's forum tomorrow night at the Keepmoat in the restaurant. Everyone welcome please get there for 6pm.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Doncaster Rugby League Receives Community Boost

Rugby League in Doncaster has received a big boost with a £40,000 investment. Local property developer and ex-Doncaster Rugby League Chief Executive Shane Miller has donated £20,000 from his company Custom Property Developments to the club's charity to the Dons Lakeside Community Foundation which has been match funded through Sport England's Sportsmatch Programme.

The money is being used to continue the development of rugby league in local primary schools and junior rugby in amateur clubs. The aim of the project is to create sustained increases in young people participating in sport and physical activity helping them be healthy, stay safe, achieve and have fun.

Doncaster Rugby League Captain and Community worker Pete Green said, "This is a massive boost to the club and the community. It's enabling us to make a real difference and get the kids of Doncaster playing rugby league."

Pictured are juniors from Moorends ARLFC outside Custom Property Development site in Thorne. These are just a handful of youngsters who've benefited from the project. After completing their first season last year the teams just started its training in preparation for next season and is on the lookout for new players. Anyone interested in joining the team should call their coach Bri Hodgekinson on 07514740978.

Shane Miller who's provided the investment behind the project has a long association with rugby league in Doncaster, playing junior rugby for Toll Bar and progressing through the ranks to make a handful of appearances for Doncaster Rugby League. Now playing amateur rugby league for Bentley, Shane was part of a partnership that bought the Dons a year ago along with Craig Harrison saving the club from extinction. Now concentrating on his property development company, Custom Property Developments currently building starter homes in Thorne, Shane is delighted to be able to help out the development of junior rugby league in Doncaster, he said, "I am passionate about rugby league and keen to help out where ever I can. This is a fantastic opportunity for us to develop the game in Doncaster. Through this I'm also able to market my company to the local community and I've seen an increase in interest in my company since we started the project."

The club is now looking to keep the development work going and looking for new partners to work with the charity to develop grassroots sport in our local area. Any companies or individuals interested in supporting this work should call Dave Marshall at Doncaster RLFC on 01302 765 888

This weekend is shaping up to be the most important yet for many clubs in National League One and Two. A series of crunch fixtures should ensure that we are some way closer to discovering the fortunes of several teams by Sunday evening.

By the time you read this, the biggest match of the weekend will already have been played, with NLI's top two Salford and Halifax clashing at the Shay on Thursday night. But plenty more is to come after that.

Celtic Crusaders continue to chase that leading duo, despite a run of three consecutive defeats including Sunday's setback at Batley. They know they have to beat Sheffield Eagles, whose play-off place remains under threat, in Bridgend on Saturday.

Then on Sunday four teams chasing top six spots meet each other, as Featherstone entertain Batley and Widnes travel to Leigh. The second of those games takes on another dimension with both clubs having missed out on Super League licences, and their respective official responses being almost as contrasting as you can get. Clashes between the Centurions and Vikings have been fascinating, often fiery affairs in recent years, and Sunday's promises to be a cracker.

At the Chris Moyle Stadium, Featherstone will look to bounce back from their heart-breaking defeat to Sheffield when then take on Batley. A win for the Bulldogs would condemn their local rivals Dewsbury to relegation, regardless of the Rams' result at home to in-form Whitehaven, who find themselves fourth after outstanding wins over Sheffield, Celtic and Halifax in the last month.

It's no less interesting in Co-operative National League Two, where the top six clubs all face each other. The pick of the games takes place on Saturday evening, when second placed Barrow Raiders host leaders Gateshead in a match that could ultimately decide the NL2 title race. A win for Thunder would see them at least five points clear of the Raiders, who would still have a game in hand.

The other team currently in the race for the two automatic promotion spots, Oldham, face a tough trip to in-form York City Knights, who have moved into fifth place in recent weeks. Then at Cougar Park, Keighley take on Doncaster, whose fixture backlog is now really kicking in – they had to play at Rochdale in midweek.

Then the bottom six clubs all meet, and with the play-off places now going right down to eighth under the new format, everybody still has plenty to play for. Rochdale Hornets will be looking to follow up their stunning win over Barrow with some rare consistency at Blackpool; the two teams fought out a thrilling draw at Spotland earlier this year.

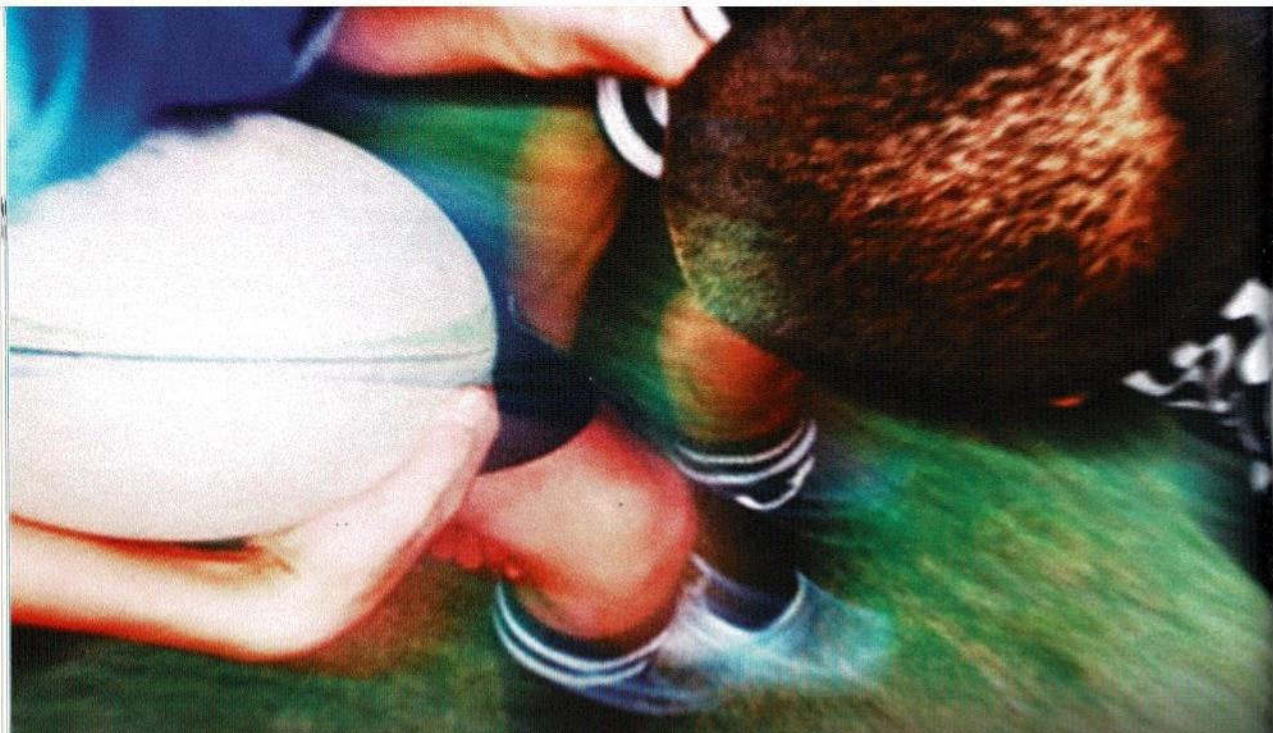

Workington Town currently occupy eighth position, and know that with a tough run-in, their home game against improving London Skolars is crucial to their campaign. And finally two teams struggling for form at present, Swinton Lions and Hunslet Hawks, meet at Park Lane hoping to kick-start their campaigns ahead of the final weekends.

All of which should provide a tremendous weekend of Rugby League action.

Competition

Guess this player from the description below and win a signed team ball including the signature of Ellery Hanley.

This player attended South Hunsley Highschool where his favourite subject was P.E and where he hated Maths class. He believes that he is always right which is probably why he wants to be a coach or teacher after rugby league. His all time sporting hero was Eric the Eel and if he could be anyone for a day it would be Ron Jeremy because he can grow hair on his chest. The song he loves to sing in Karaoke is "It's raining men" but the song he loves listening to is My Hero- Foo Fighters. The cartoon character he associates himself with is Desperate Dan because they both have big chins. His favourite food is chicken and he loves watching Family Guy. He likes wearing Sex Panther aftershave and lists his greatest achievement as being England Students Players Player of the Tour. His dream car would be an Aston Martin and his dream woman is . He loves Hull F.C but doesn't like Shaun Leaf's breath and would hate to be stuck in a lift with him and his dragon breath. Before a match he loves to stay quiet and just listen to his ipod. He was born in May and if he was an adult star his acting name would be Kim York (name of first pet combined with his first street)
