NOBBY'S NOTES
O X --- O X

Hello, welcome to today's game against Rochdale Hornets at the Whitebank Stadium.

It's the third time we have faced our local rivals in seven games, which is a strange start to a season and, for me in my first head coach role, I suppose you could call it a baptism of fire.

Fortunately, the previous two meetings against Rochdale have gone our way and hopefully today will be the same.

Rochdale Hornets are a quality team with some top class players and we expect nothing less than an extremely tough game.

The last time we played them was probably our best performance of the year so far and nothing less than that will do today if we are to get the result we are looking for.

Last Sunday the game against South Wales Scorpions turned out to be a particular tough encounter. The journey to South Wales is long and seemed to take a little bit out of the lads' legs and mental state.

We didn't start the game at the same level as previous games so the first half became more of a battle of wills and fortunately, we went in at half time 6-4 in front.

We performed better in the second half and played some nice rugby which resulted in the team scoring some quality tries to which Jamie Dallimore added all the goals in his best day with the boot.

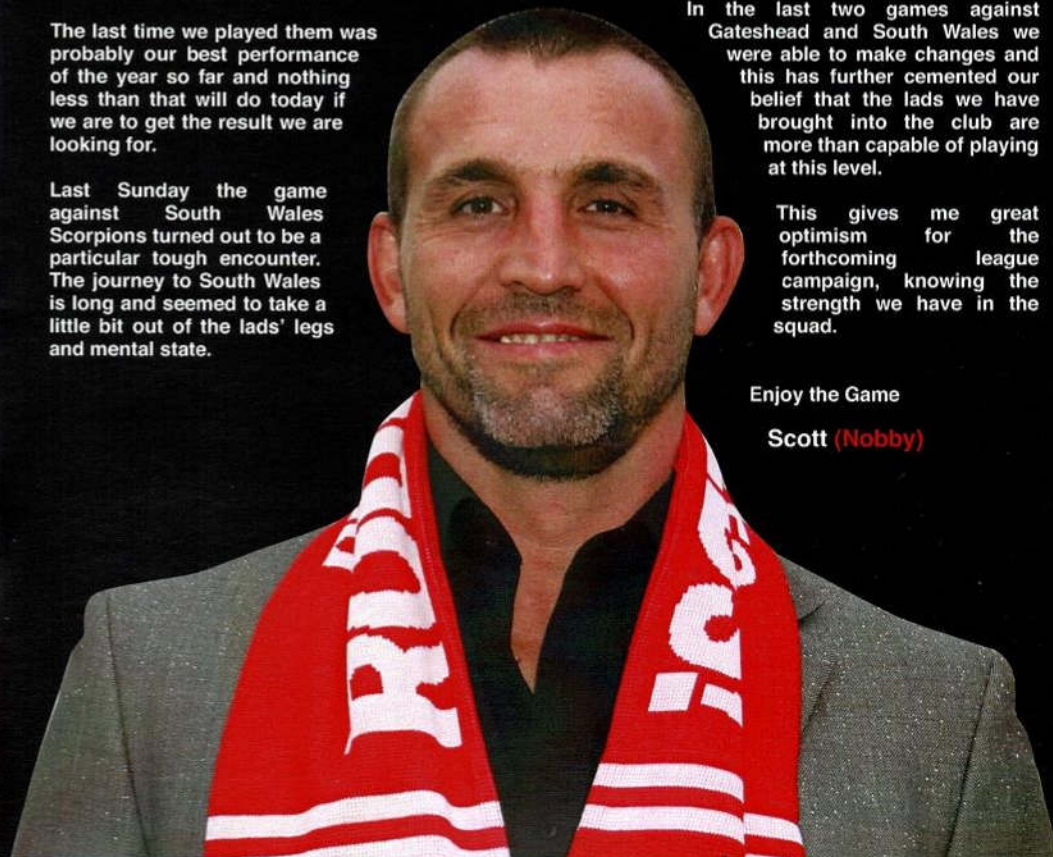

South Wales played well. They seemed to be a much improved side on last season's team and it will be tough for any team to go to Neath this year and come away with a victory.

In the last two games against Gateshead and South Wales we were able to make changes and this has further cemented our belief that the lads we have brought into the club are more than capable of playing at this level.

This gives me great optimism for the forthcoming league campaign, knowing the strength we have in the squad.

Enjoy the Game

Scott (Nobby)

Who are your heroes or people you look up to?

I don't really have a hero I look up to, but there are definitely lots of people whom I admire, usually for bravery in the face of adversity or some of the things people do when really ill etc. It makes me realise how much we moan about things that are not important and I only wish I could keep that feeling in my head permanently.

If you could invite 2 people to dinner dead or alive who would they be?

My mum and dad. They both passed away while I was relatively young and I would love to be able to have time to ask them questions and for them to ask me questions.

If your house was hit by an earthquake what would be the first thing you'd save?

So long as family were okay it would probably be my television. We are quite close - probably too close!

What's your funniest moment at the club so far?

Too many to mention - it would take a page on its own!

Which TV programme would you never miss?

Later with Jools Holland

What was the last book you read?

Can't remember the name now, but it was a true story about a guy who became addicted to drugs at 11 and spent years taking all sorts whilst he made a fortune, lost a fortune, lost years due to the drug taking, lost his family, then managed to change his life around and become drug free. Shows you should never lose hope.

What's your favourite type of music?

I like lots of different music. Into Willy Moon at the minute but have all kinds of different music on my phone and ipod. Depends what mood I'm in.

...and finally, tell us a secret.

Players can be hard work when it comes to contract negotiations.

CHRIS' COMMENTS

WELCOME to Whitebank for the first league game of 2013.

Our Northern Rail Cup campaign has, in all probability, come to an end after the match at South Wales and although it looks likely that we won't top the group, and therefore progress, we can be more than satisfied with the performances we put in.

Having lost the first game, and having been very disappointed about the manner of the defeat, the lads responded well and won each of the next three matches.

In those games we have shown different qualities in order to get the 'W' but the one constant in it all has been the determination and enthusiasm to work hard even when things have gone against us.

No doubt those qualities will serve us in good stead over the coming months

We kick off today with a really tough match against our neighbours from down the road. Although we have already beaten them twice this year we will take nothing for granted and neither team will need any motivation going into today's game.

On behalf of the club, I would like to welcome a new sponsor to the game in Kingstone Press. Hopefully, this new commercial link-up will develop into a long and mutually beneficial partnership.

If you haven't already tried Kingstone Press cider give it a go - take it from me its good!

Its fair to say that we are certainly hoping a few more people will make the effort to get to today's game. Like all clubs, we need people to show their support for us at home matches, particularly where the revenue comes to the club.

We are fully aware of the difficulties that everybody is facing but we have reduced prices and there are less matches this year so it is actually cheaper to support your club!

As ever, last week's away support in South Wales got right behind the lads.

It is, indeed, a sign of how much their backing is appreciated by the players when, post-match, the full squad will walk over to greet the fans, as opposed to merely making a token effort, which is usually the case if you ever watch a football match!

Today is the start of a journey which will hopefully see us achieve our - and your - goals this year and as always you have a part to play in that regard. Please get behind the team and be loud and proud!

AUTOGRAPH

Who are your heroes or people you look up to?

I don't really have heroes, but I look up to a lot of people in rugby like Sonny Bill Williams and Sam Burgess, two great players whom I like to watch.

Do you play any other sports and if so do you excel in them?

I used to play a lot of football when I was younger - rugby on a Sunday morning for Blackbrook and football for Haydock in the afternoon. When I signed for Saints that had to stop and I've just played rugby ever since.

What is the highlight of your career so far?

Playing in the Millennium Stadium in the All-English Schools' final and scoring a try in a winning side.

If you could invite 2 people to dinner dead or alive who would they be?

I would ask Jim Carrey and Rihanna.

If your house was to be hit by an earthquake what would be the first thing you'd save?

It has got to be my family.

Who's the funniest of your team-mates and why?

We have a few funny lads in the team like Sam Gee, Dalll and Hobbo, but Danny Samuel has got to be the funniest. Some of the things he comes out with have me laughing for ages.

Which TV programme would you never miss?

I don't mind Coronation Street and Eastenders, but I wouldn't say I never miss an episode.

What was the last book you read?

I read some of Sean Long's autobiography - only the bits my Dad said were funny though.

What's your favourite type of music?

I don't mind, any type of music really.

How do you relax after a match?

A take-away, then to bed watching a DVD.

Finally.....Tell me a secret.

It wouldn't be a secret if I told you!

(Left to right):
David Cookson (Oldham player), Simon Tait (Oldham MBC), Sid the Shark,
Chris Hamilton (Oldham RLFC chairman), Bill Lovat (Regenda),
Roary (Roughyeds mascot), Jamie Dallimore (Oldham player).

OLDHAM Rugby League Football Club

and their community partners Regenda have teamed up to tackle loan sharks and to back Oldham Council's initiative to bring them to justice.

Council flyers raising awareness of the dangers of loan sharks were distributed to the Whitebank crowd at the home game against Gateshead Thunder.

Roary, the Roughyeds' mascot, and Sid the Shark mingled with fans to support Simon Tait of Oldham MBC and his team in condemning loan sharks and recommending Oldham Credit Union instead.

Roughyeds players David Cookson and Jamie Dallimore, who didn't play against Gateshead, also helped to get the message across.

Bill Lovat, Regenda's Regional Director (East), was also at the game to support the initiative and to talk to club sponsors and hospitality suite guests about Regenda's links with the club. He said:

"Regenda strongly supports this fight against loan sharks and we were pleased to take part in the event with Oldham RLFC."

"It's hugely positive to see a local club taking such an active part in community life, and recognising that there are issues that might affect their supporters."

"As part of the solution, Regenda and the club are working together to promote Oldham Credit Union, providing practical options and alternatives in dealing with this threat from loan sharks."

"This is a fine example of a local partnership showing benefits for the community, local residents and the club's supporters and we look forward to working together in the years ahead."

Added Oldham RLFC Chairman Chris Hamilton:

"We are aware of the importance of being involved with projects like this, which is sending out a strong message at a time when many people are facing financial difficulty."

"We are pleased to assist and, in conjunction with Regenda, we are also helping to promote an alternative form of finance with Oldham Credit Union."

"This is a key message not only to our supporters, but also to the larger public in this very difficult economic climate."

"Regenda have demonstrated their commitment to the local community via their Limehurst Village 10-year plan and have also supported us fully as we strive to establish the club in the same community."

Describing loan sharks as

"criminals who prey on vulnerable people and blight communities"

Councillor Jean Stretton, cabinet member for Neighbourhoods and Devolved Services, said:

"They fleece their victims and often use intimidation and violence."

"Oldham Council will not allow this bullying and criminal behaviour and we will work with our partners to target those who think they are above the law."

"Instead of turning to loan sharks I would encourage residents to use Oldham Credit Union which offers great saving and lending opportunities."

2013 SQUAD LINE-UP

SQUAD STRENGTHENER

(Prize draw deadline)

FANS are reminded that contributions to ORSA's Squad Strengthener scheme are always welcome and gratefully received, but only payments made to the scheme prior to Sunday, April 28 will qualify for entries in the prize draw, which will take place on that day at the home game against Oxford.

ORSA officials are delighted and highly encouraged by the response to the fund since its launch in February, the amount pledged to date having already exceeded last year's figure.

More than £2,300 was raised in the first three weeks and the total continues to rise.

To anyone planning to contribute it would obviously be beneficial to do so before the draw which will be for the following prizes kindly donated by Oldham RLFC:

FIRST PRIZE

A season ticket (money to be refunded if the winner already has one) and a framed, signed shirt of the player of your choice.

SECOND PRIZE

A £75 voucher to spend on club merchandise or two tickets for the end-of-season Players' Presentations with an opportunity to present the Supporters' Player of the Year Trophy.

THIRD PRIZE

A £50 voucher to spend on club merchandise.

The three winners will also be invited to a home match as man-of-the-match sponsors with a place in the boardroom and corporate hospitality.

Money raised will be used solely for the acquisition of new players if and when they are required by the club.

This year, for the first time, each £5 donated will qualify for an entry into the draw. Shares may be purchased by cash, cheque or direct debit.

A £50 lump sum, for example, qualifies the donor to 10 entries in the draw, while a 12-month direct debit of £5 per month would provide 12 draw entries.

Membership forms and further details are available in the social club on match days, from Nigel Marland or Sheila Somerville, from the club office (0161 628 3677) or by downloading from the Oldham RLFC website.

Completed forms should be sent to Sheila Somerville at 48, Great Meadow, Shaw, Oldham OL2 7PX and cheques should be made payable to: ORSA SQUAD STRENGTHENER.

All contributions, whether £5, £50 or more, will help to make a real difference to the success of the team in their push for promotion.

Who are your heroes or people you look up to?

My dad and grandad have had a big impact on my career and I wouldn't be playing rugby if it wasn't for their support.

Do you play any other sports and if so do you excel in them?

I've played a bit of tennis with my uncle and I'm not bad at it. But I think rugby is the sport for me.

What is the highlight of your career so far?

Scoring a hat trick against Gateshead for the Roughyeds.

If you could invite 2 people to dinner dead or alive who would they be?

Michael McIntyre (I think he's quite funny) and Alan from 'The Hangover'.

If your house was to be hit by an earthquake what would be the first thing you'd save?

My Mrs will kill me for saying this, but probably my cat.

Who's the funniest of your team-mates and why?

Probably Sammy Gee or Hobbo. They love to throw the banter about.

Which TV programme would you never miss?

Hollyoaks

What was the last book you read?

Sean Long's book, it's quite funny.

What's your favourite type of music?

Any type really. I do like a bit of 'Scouting for Girls' though.

How do you relax after a match?

With some really dirty food!

Finally.....Tell me a secret.

I always wanted to play football when I was young, but I was too big!
That's why I started playing rugby.

-----	-------------	------	---	--------

FRUSTRATION was the order of the day with the forced cancellation of our match against South Wales due to our typical British weather. As a group we had worked hard all week and were really looking forward to the challenge ahead when I was also hoping to be able to assess how three debutants would perform.

This year we have a squad of 25 and during the course of the season each player will have an opportunity to show his worth. It is disappointing for any player not to be selected when they have trained so hard, but equally we cannot have players training constantly and not giving them the opportunity to shine.

The squad this year is probably the strongest I have had the pleasure to coach during my three years at Oldham and as the season progresses I am sure this will prove to be the case.

Our next home game is Friday, 5th April against Rochdale Hornets with an 8pm kick off and I am sure Hornets will arrive full of confidence following their win against us in our last meeting.

Maximising all our hard work, we are looking forward to avenging our near neighbours, in what promises to be a highly competitive game. Look forward to seeing you all there.

Best wishes

Phil
