X --- O X O NOBBY'S NOTES O X --- O X

HELLO everyone and welcome to today's game against London Skolars at the Whitebank Stadium.

We expect an extremely tough game against Joe Mbu's team but we are looking forward to the challenge.

I have to be honest. The last time we played each other down in London, the Skolars should have won the game and it was only thanks to an incredible tackle by Mo Agoro on our try line that we survived and picked up the three points with a narrow victory.

Skolars have a lot of quality and experience in their team and they are well coached by Joe, so we are under no illusion about how hard today's game will be.

Last week we travelled to Gloucester to take on the All Golds in their own backyard and we got the game we were expecting.

They have made huge steps forward since last season, both on and off the field, so getting the win was really pleasing for the club.

As the season goes on I don't think they will lose many games at home and I fully expect them to be in the playoffs in September, having seen the improvements they have made to the playing staff and coaching staff.

The Oldham players ground out a good win, which was nice to see, and played some quality rugby at times which always kept us at least two scores in front for the whole game.

I made some changes to the team and I will be doing the same for the next couple of weeks so that we have a fully fit and ready squad for the upcoming June and July fixtures.

This is a crucial period of the season and hopefully we will get the results we want and kick on our season to the playoffs.

I hope you have a good day today and that we give the Oldham fans the result they have come to see.

Many thanks for your great support,

Nobby

JOSH GOES ON... AND ON... AND ON

DAVID March didn't play in Hunslet's 40-0 hammering at York so our very own Josh Crowley is not outright leader in the Championship One list of most consecutive appearances.

We've three players, in fact, in the division's top five ---- a great tribute to the consistency of Josh, Dale Bloomfield and Michael Ward.

Josh and 'Bloomers' also figure in the Kingstone Press Championship One team of the week as well as Jon Ford, who scored a brace of tries in our win at Gloucester last Sunday.

CHRIS' COMMENTS

WELCOME back to Whitebank for what is hopefully going to be a less stressful afternoon than the previous home game against York.

We can all do without the roller coaster of emotions that we went through that day although we showed considerable character to win in the end.

The significance of those three points was suitably demonstrated last Sunday when York put 40 points without reply past Hunslet while we were winning at Gloucester on what will be a difficult ground for away teams to pick up points as the season progresses.

Time and again we are now seeing ample proof that this division is getting more competitive with each passing season.

There is still plenty of improvement in us as a team. We have a group of players who want to learn so training is always intense and hard.

We have tough opponents today in London Skolars who have had a mixed start to the season, so in that respect alone they will be dangerous, as they seek some consistency.

For us, it is about keeping our work ethic going and trying to get another three points towards our goal of finishing as high as possible in the division.

Scott (Naylor) now has the right kind of problems as a coach in that he has competition for places all over the park. All successful teams have this sort of squad system. Keeping everyone happy is not an easy job, but the proof of the pudding is in the eating and Scott has already proved to be very adept at still getting good results when he makes changes. Long may that continue.

This week has seen another of our young players turn professional with the club. Tom Dempsey is still a baby in rugby terms and even though he plays for the under-20s he is still only 17.

He has shown great potential in his time with us and we wish him well as he takes the next step in what we hope will be a long and successful career.

Thanks for your support once again down in Cheltenham last week and please be loud and proud again today,

Enjoy the game,

Christopher Hamilton

HERE COME THE R.A.F.

OUR young players from the under-20s squad will be given an unexpected opportunity to impress coaches Scott Naylor and his No 2, Lee Spencer, in a game against the Royal Air Force here at Whitebank next Saturday, June 7 (2.30pm kick off).

The RAF requested a game as part of their preparations for a trip to Canada later in June and for their annual Inter-Services Championships in September.

Said our chairman Chris Hamilton: "The under-20s had no game on June 7 so we were delighted to welcome the RAF to Whitebank.

"It isn't often we are given the chance to stage games like this and to welcome members of the Forces to our ground. Next Saturday we will extend a huge Whitebank welcome to Flight Sergeant Ozzy Hicks and his squad and we hope our supporters will turn up in numbers not only to support our boys but to show our appreciation for everything the RAF does in the service of our country.

"As for the game itself, it will provide our lads with a different type of challenge to the ones they normally face and it will be interesting to see how they handle it."

Season-ticket holders will gain free admission, while other fans will be asked for normal under-20s admission prices, namely £4 adults and £2 concessions.

FLYING INTO WHITEBANK

by Flight Sergeant Ozzy Hicks (team manager, RAF Rugby League)

THE Royal Air Force rugby league team played its historic first fixture in October, 1992 against the French Army at RAF Finningley in Yorkshire. RAF RL has gone from strength to strength ever since.

Warrant Officer Damian Clayton MBE, the current head coach and secretary, played in that first game and has been instrumental in working hard ever since those early days to achieve what we have and who we are today.

By playing teams like GB Police, GB Students, amateur clubs such as Drighlington, Stanningley and many others we have benefited from going up against good opposition and this has improved the overall standard of rugby league within the RAF.

The squad has travelled far and wide to promote the great game of rugby league and the good name of the Royal Air Force.

We have visited far-away places such as Jamaica, Australia, New Zealand, Russia and, in 2012, Canada, all the time promoting the RAF and our great sport.

We have also been involved in one capacity or another with fantastic rugby league events, highlighted by our presence at State of Origin and NRL games in Australia.

We have also had a good time while socialising with Russian cosmonauts!

Our most recent overseas trip, two years ago, was to Toronto, Canada where we took on the Canadian national side and came away with a well-deserved, if close, victory.

Our captain, Cpl Chris Gordon, returned to Canada later that year with English Lionhearts.

Later this month we will be travelling to Toronto again in a bid to repeat that great win in front of an expected crowd of 10,000 in the Lamport Stadium on June 21.

The pinnacle of every season comes with the Inter-Services Championships in September in which play the Army and the Navy.

Having won the Championship several times, and now seeking more success, we look for good, quality opposition to prepare us and that's why we have arranged games against both Oldham and York City Knights under-20s.

Both of those teams will give us a hard, fast, competitive work-out and provide us with superb preparation for the forthcoming battles with our arch enemies!

The RAF motto is 'Per Ardua Ad Astra' which means 'Through adversity to the stars'.

Yours in rugby league,

Ozzy Hicks

GANG OF FOUR IN TEAM OF THE MONTH

ROUGHYEDS players continue to be recognised in Kingstone Press team of the week and team of the month awards as befits a team in the upper reaches of Championship One.

We were lauded with no fewer than FOUR of our boys – more than any other club – in Rugby League World magazine's latest team of the month and we had two others among the nominees who didn't quite make it.

In the opinion of Rugby League World, edited by Littleborough-born Gareth Walker, our quality quartet comprised:

Mo Agoro

(right wing), who has made a habit of scoring at least one try per game on a regular basis.

Lewis Palfrey

(stand-off), our club skipper, goalkicker and pivotal play-maker.

Michael Ward

(prop), a robust, bustling, scrum-capped, all-action front-rower who leads from the front.

Danny Langtree

(second-row), also named by RLW as Championship One player of the month.

Well done those men! And well done, too, to winger Dale Bloomfield and half-back/hooker Kenny Hughes who narrowly missed out on selection after being strongly considered.

Nominees:

Full-back: Haynes (York), James Cameron (Hemel), Sean Morris (Oxford)

Wings: Agoro (Oldham), Mapals (Hunslet), Bloomfield (Oldham)

Centres: Saltonstall (York), Mulkeen (Oxford), James Woodburn-Hall (London)

Stand-off: Palfrey (Oldham), Jimmy Rowland (Oxford), Jy-Mel Coleman (Hemel)

Scrum-half: Ansell (Hunslet), Matty Beharrell (Gateshead), Matt Bradley (London)

Prop: Houston (Hunslet), Ward (Oldham), Chris Vitalini (South Wales)

Hooker: Smith (London), Jack Lee (York), Hughes (Oldham)

Back row: Langtree (Oldham), Payne (Gateshead), Williams (London)

The split per club was as follows: Oldham 4, Hunslet 3, London 2, York 2, Gateshead 1, Oxford 1.

Team of the month:

James Haynes (York); Mo Agoro (Oldham), James Saltonstall (York), Callum Mulkeen (Oxford), Lee Mapals (Hunslet); Lewis Palfrey (Oldham), Danny Ansell (Hunslet); James Houston (Hunslet), Martyn Smith (London), Michael Ward (Oldham), Danny Langtree (Oldham), Jason Payne (Gateshead), Dave Williams (London).

ASHURST IN THE SPOTLIGHT

FORMER Great Britain star Bill Ashurst, one of our sport's finest ever post-war players, will do a Questions-and-Answers session at Neil Roden's next testimonial function, which takes place in the Legends Bar at the Body Images Gym in Hindley, Wigan next Saturday night, June 7 (7pm for 7.30).

It will be a fun night, highlighted not only by Bill's appearance but by a solo gig on his guitar from our former player Andy Isherwood.

Tickets are £5 so see Neil around the club here, look out for the poster in the Whitebank club giving full details, or just turn up on the night.

Amari looking for a CLEAN sweep

AMARI Plastics Manchester, who created and sponsored Oldham Rugby League Club's new 'Welcome to Whitebank' sign, have provided further assistance to the club as part of the refurbishment of shower rooms in the home and away dressing rooms.

Thanks to Amari, the shower-room walls will be cladded with PVC from Rochling Trovidur so as to look clean, smart and user-friendly.

The company has also sponsored the Roughyeds' young second-row forward George Tyson, who is at Whitebank on a season-long loan from Salford Red Devils.

"We wish George well for the rest of the season and hope the upgraded shower rooms will inspire the Oldham team to enjoy a CLEAN sweep of Kingstone Press Championship One honours," said an Amari spokesman.

A wide variety of sponsorship packages are available at the club, which finished second in Championship One last season and is widely regarded as likely to be one of the leading contenders for promotion via the play-offs in 2014.

For further details ring Janet at the club on 0161 624 9630 extension 70552.

STANDARD CUP FINAL

OLDHAM RLFC (1997) Ltd would like to make known its position relative to the venue of the Oldham Amateur League's Standard Cup final.

This year, not for the first time, this prestigious event in local rugby league circles was staged at the Manor Park home of Oldham Rugby Union Club in Bardsley.

On Thursday, May 15, the Oldham Evening Chronicle published a story in which the Oldham Amateur League said there were costs associated with playing the final at Whitebank whereas Oldham RUFC was the more economical option because they did not charge a penny.

That could easily lead people to believe that Oldham Rugby League Club were either not too concerned about having the final at Whitebank or, worse still, wanted it there in order to make financial capital.

Neither could be further from the truth.

Said club chairman Chris Hamilton: "One of the first things we did when we moved into Whitebank in 2010 was to have talks with the Oldham Amateur League with regard to the possibility of staging the Standard Cup final at our ground.

"We were NOT looking to make money out of it, but the fact is that every time we open the ground to stage a match we incur considerable costs in order to meet the RFL's terms and conditions.

"For instance, we have to have stewards inside the stadium for every game and that is only one of several associated costs that have to be met every time we open the turnstiles.

"We gave the Oldham Amateur League an indication of what those costs would be and we also suggested that it would be in everyone's best interests to have in place a multi-year agreement. That was put to them merely as an option, and only as an option.

"We would love to see the Standard Cup final played at Whitebank at the home of the town's professional rugby league club --- as it was traditionally in Watersheddings days ---- but we are not in a position to lose money on it which is what would happen if we were to meet essential costs ourselves.

"In short, we would love to see this showpiece event at Whitebank and hopefully that will happen sooner rather than later.

"Regarding cost implications, we are not looking to make money, but neither are we in a position to cover the costs ourselves."

Hopefully, that will have cleared up any misapprehension surrounding the final. The best wishes of everyone at Whitebank, chairman, staff, coaches and players, go to the Oldham League for the rest of this season and beyond.

Oldham Roughyeds Supporters Association

THE Oldham Roughyeds Supporters Association (ORSA) recently held its annual meeting at which John McAndrew succeeded the late Nigel Marland in the role of chairman with Phil Ward taking over as vice-chairman from John.

An ORSA spokesman has also confirmed that the 2014 Squad Strengthener Fund is once again assisting the club with the financial implications of the players signed on loan since the start of the season. The players from clubs in the Championship and Super League are specially selected by the coaching staff with a view to strengthening the squad.

They come at a cost so contributions from the fund are much appreciated by the club to ease the burden.

In appreciation of the Squad Strengthener contributors, all members were recently entered in a draw and the three winners, Eddie Luckraft, Mike Travis and Derek Scholes, plus their guests, were invited to receive match-day hospitality at the Oxford game.

Each winner was also presented with a framed photograph of the squad and by all accounts a good time was had by all - especially with the win!

TOM SIGNS ON THE DOTTED LINE

Tom Dempsey signs on the dotted line, watched by his parents and club chairman Chris Hamilton. Picture courtesy of OLDHAM EVENING CHRONICLE.

THE latest member of our under-20s squad to turn pro for the club is 17-year-old Tom Dempsey, a talented half-back and the youngest player at Whitebank.

He has signed a deal to November 30, 2015 which will give him plenty of time to continue his development in the under-20s and also to reap the benefits of a full pre-season's work ahead of next year's campaign.

Tom lives in Runcorn. He played his early amateur rugby in Widnes and was spotted by the Wigan Warriors chief scout Jack Roden, who took him to the Super League club where he worked his way through the development system. He was bitterly disappointed not to be offered a contract at Wigan, but Jack pointed him in our direction and he hasn't looked back since.

He has only been here a relatively short time (the beginning of this season), but he has made a big impression while playing in a key midfield role for the under-20s against opponents who are much bigger, older and more physically mature.

Head coach Scott Naylor said of him: "Neil Roden (under-20s coach) thinks highly of him and I've also been impressed when watching him in the under-20s.

"We often run the first team against the under-20s in training and even at that level Tom looks comfortable. It's great to have players like Richard Joy and Tom Dempsey coming through from the under-20s because in many ways that's the future of the club."

Club chairman Chris Hamilton added: "Tom is very young with a lot of work ahead of him, but he has all the right attributes such as ability, desire, commitment and the mental toughness to be the best he can be.

"His parents are tremendously supportive as well, which is also important, and we feel sure that Tom has all the makings of a very good player and that he and the club can be good for each other."

He is wearing a red and white striped rugby jersey with 'REED JARNEY & SON LTD' and '1962' visible on the sleeve. He has extensive tattoos on his left arm and is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. In the background, other players in white socks and red shorts are visible, along with a red banner that says 'rugby'.

NEIL'S NOTES

WE are looking forward immensely to our 'extra' game against the Royal Air Force at Whitebank next Saturday, June 7 kicking off at 2.30pm.

Your support that day would be especially appreciated by the boys and by the club because it would be nice to give the RAF lads and their officials a nice warm welcome to our neck of the woods.

Heartiest congratulations to Tom Dempsey, who has turned pro for the club at the age of 17 to follow the recent signing of Richard Joy. Well done both!

By the time you read these notes we will have played Sheffield at Whitebank yesterday after a disappointing result the week before against the Cumbrian Regional Academy up at Barrow.

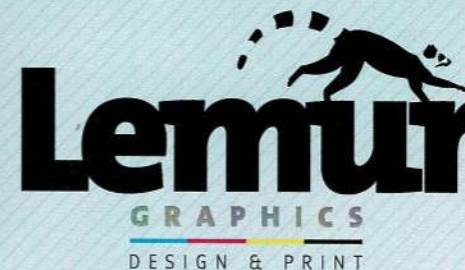

We played well in the first half to lead 22-12 at half-time, but we had a poor 15-minute spell in the second half and ultimately it was to cost us the game. The effort from the boys was great, but we suffered a few injuries and in the end we ran out of steam and bodies.

Andy Ball and Richard Joy each scored two tries and another was added by Connor Partington, while Tom Dempsey kicked three goals in our 40-26 defeat.

Unfortunately, Paddy Fitzsimmons was ruled out by an elbow injury; Luke Kavanagh, on debut, pulled a hamstring in the first five minutes; and Jake Boardman did a shoulder early in the second half. These things happen sometimes and injuries are part and parcel of the game, as we all know.

Thanks for your continued support. It is really appreciated. Hope to see you next Saturday,
